Prospectus for 1872. FIFTH YEAR.

A Representative and Champion of American Art.

THE ALDINE

An Illustrated Monthly Journal claimed to be the handsomest Paper in the World. NEW FEATURES FOR 1872.

ART DEPARTMENT.

As a guarantee of the excellence of this department, the publishers would beg to announce during the country year, specinens from the following eminout American Artista:

W. T. Richards, Victor Nehlig, Win, H. Wilcox, James H. Beard, James Smiley, R. E. Piguet, Wm. Beard, Wm. Beard, George Smiley, Wm. Hart, George Smiley, Aug. Will, Granville Perkins, Frank Beard. F. O. C. Darley, Par J. Hows. Paul Dixon,

These pictures are being reproduced without regard to expense, by the very best engravers in the country, and will bear the severest critical comparison with the best foreign work, it being the deter-mination of the publishers that THE AL-DINE shall be a measured with instances. DINE shall be a successful vindication of Am rican taste in competition with any existing publication in the world.

LITERARY DEPARTMENT.

Where so much attention is paid to illus-tration and get up of the work, too much dependence on appearances may very naturally be feared. To anticipate soci-misgivings, it is only necessary to state, that, the editorial management of THE ALDINE has been introsted to Mr. Rich-ard Henry Stoddard, who has received as-surances of assistance from a host of the most popular writers and poets of the country will contain nearly 300 pages, and about 250 fine engravings. Commencing with the number for Janury, every third num-ter will contain a beautiful inter picture on plate paper, inserted as a frontispiece. The Christmas number for 1872, will be a spiendid volume in itself, containing fitty engravings, (four in tint) and, although relaited at $1 will be sent without extra harge to all yearly subscribers. A Chromo to every Subscriber was a very popular feature last year, and will be repeated with the present volume. The publishers have purchased and repro-duced, at great expense, the beautiful oil painting by SEIS, entitled "DAME NAS-TURE'S SCHERE."

THE VOLUME FOR 1872
