

A disastrous conflagration occurred in Oil City on Tuesday morning, of last week. About five o'clock it was discovered that the National Hotel, owned by Mr. James White, located west of the Union depot, was on fire, and the flames spread rapidly through the building and soon communicated to the Sands Block, adjoining on the west and the Taylor House south of the burning building, both of which were destroyed. The Allegheny Trust and Banking Co.'s building next took fire and was partially destroyed. Winsor Bros. & Co.'s new brick block located in rear of the Sands block, not yet completed took fire, but by the efforts of the firemen, this fine structure was saved. But for the noble efforts of the firemen a large portion of the business part of the city on the east side would have been consumed.

The Derrick gives the following estimate of the losses:

Taylor House, owned by conductor M. B. Taylor; cost $10,000. Partial insurance.

Peter Goodwin and E. D. McKinney, lessees of the Taylor House, loss $6,000; insurance $2,000.

National Hotel, owned by O. M. Reynolds, kept by J. H. White; Reynolds' loss $35,000, insurance $20,000; White's (Geo.) loss $800; no insurance.

Mrs. M. A. Sands' building $10,000, insurance $5,000, loss on furniture $2,000, no insurance.

McCray & Rockwell, in Sands building $800.

Conductors Taylor & Dobbins, room in Sands' building, loss $100.

J. Stanley & Clark, Shurrer & Co., office in same building, loss $750.

Standard Oil Company, office in Sands' building; loss light.

Western Union Telegraph and Pacific and Atlantic Telegraph offices, in Sands' block, loss light.

John Farley, saloon, Mrs. Sands' building, loss $2,000; insurance $1,500.

W. H. Brown, proprietor American house; loss on furniture removed about $1,000; insurance $3,000. C. M. Rice, loss on American house, broken windows, &c., about $250, insured.

We clip the following items from the St. Mary's Gazette:

We are informed that on Saturday last at the tannery at Sterling a terrible accident happened which caused the death of James Clark, a brother of one of the owners of the tannery. He was grinding bark at the time, when by some means he became entangled in the machinery which lifted him up over the hopper and his feet getting into it literally ground them both off. He lived but a short time after the accident occurred. The remains were brought to this place on Tuesday last for burial.

Quite an excitement was occasioned on yesterday evening by the report that Mr. Lawrence Fochtman had shot his wife. The occurrence took place on the street near the residence of the mother of the woman. Mr. Fochtman, it seems, went to the residence of his mother-in-law and inquired for his wife. He was informed that she had gone to the store. He immediately started toward the store, and on the road met his wife. It is alleged he then drew a revolver and fired four shots at her, two of them taking effect, one in the arm, and one in the hand. The injuries sustained are not of a serious nature. Fochtman immediately fled, and thus far, has evaded arrest.

Michael Flinn, who has been working at Emery's camp, for some months past, until recently, came to St. Mary's to stop until "driving" time. He suffers with temporary insanity. On Monday last, after having taken several drinks, he retired to bed, as the landlord supposed, but shortly afterwards he jumped out of the window to the sidewalk, a distance of about twenty-five feet. His ankle was badly injured. We are informed that about a year ago he jumped from the upper story of the Elk hotel, in this place, and also, we are informed, made a leap of forty feet in Lock Haven some time ago. Hitherto in his perilous feats he has sustained no injury. He is an inoffensive man, and most of the time appears to be perfectly rational. His friends should take some precautions to prevent him from exercising his proclivities for jumping, as he may do himself an injury which will be fatal in its effect.

The Oil City Derrick says that Mr. E. Fuller, a few days since, was caught in the band wheel of the engine at his well, on the flats, and thrown with such force as to render him insensible. He received several cuts about his head and face, from which the blood flowed freely.

A celebrated writer says that if one could read it, every human being carries his life in his face, and is good looking or the reverse, as that life has been good or evil.

WILL THERE BE WAR?

The news from England is of a startling character and indicates that war may be imminent, unless the English authorities moderate their tone considerably. They appear all at once to have become convinced that our claims for losses caused by their cruisers, sailing under the Confederate flag, are alarming in extent, and will be insisted upon before the Geneva Board of Arbitrators. There must be an impression also, that those claims are likely to be allowed, in which event England's debt will be suddenly and enormously enlarged. The rumors come thick and fast that the press, Government, and the people unite in a demand that the Washington Treaty shall be annulled, or that our claims for damages shall be modified. This appears like idiocy on the part of England, for if our claims are just, they ought to be paid, and if unjust, there is not much probability of their being allowed by the arbitrators. President Grant is firm, and insists that the Geneva conference is similar in its nature to a court of equity, and that we have the manifest right to make what ever claims for damages we please. It is for the court alone, to decide upon their justice. The country will sustain the President in this view, at all hazards, and England must abide by the provisions of the Washington treaty, or submit the questions between us to that more terrible alternative the arbitration of the sword.

With such a possible prospect before us, it becomes us to examine well into our position and our ability to cope with such a formidable power as Great Britain. In this connection we remark first, that it was made public only a few days ago, that no less than fifty-three of our war vessels, among them several monitors and iron clad, are ready to go to sea at once. England's commerce would, in a brief time be swept from the ocean, and her power would be crippled at a single blow. Canada would doubtless furnish the battle grounds for the land forces, whilst "Old Ireland" would make a bold strike for independence. But we desist; all good citizens would sadly deplore a war with England, and it would be terrible in its results. We trust that the roused British lion will yet find it wise to submit to peaceful arbitration.—Pittsburgh Gazette.

The following is regard to the matter occurs in the Queen's speech:

The arbitrators appointed pursuant to the treaty of Washington for the purpose of amicably settling the Alabama claims held their first meeting in Geneva. Bases were laid before the arbitrators in behalf of each party to the treaty. In the case so submitted by the United States large claims are included which are understood on my part not to be within the province of the arbitrators. On this subject I have caused a friendly communication to be made to the government of the United States. The Emperor of Germany has undertaken to arbitrate on the San Juan water boundary, and the cases of the two governments have been presented to his Imperial Majesty. The Commission to sit at Washington has been appointed and is in session. The provisions of the treaty which require the consent of the Parliament of the Dominion of Canada await its assembling.

HEADQUARTERS REPUBLICAN STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE OF PENNSYLVANIA. PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 5, 1872.

In pursuance of the resolution of the REPUBLICAN STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE, adopted at Harrisburg, Jan. 18, 1872, a REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION, composed of Delegates from each Senatorial and Representative District, in the number to which such District is entitled in the Legislature, will meet in the House of Representatives, at Harrisburg, at 12 o'clock, noon, on WEDNESDAY, the 10th day of April, A. D. 1872, to nominate candidates for Governor, Judge of the Supreme Court, Auditor General (should the Legislature provide for the choice of one by the people), and an Electoral Ticket; and also to elect Senatorial and Representative Delegates to represent this State in the REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION, to be held at Philadelphia, June 5, 1872. RUSSEL ERRETT, Chairman.

Wm. Elliott, D. F. Houston, Ezra Lukens, H. M. Lytle, Secretaries.

A substitute for the eight-hour law is shortly to be presented to the United States Senate. It will provide that every person employed in government arsenals, navy yards, printing offices and workshops, except those who work by the piece, shall be paid by the hour, at the same rates as similar services are paid for by hour in the private establishments of the vicinage, to be ascertained by dividing the price of a day's work by the number of hours required in such private establishments as a day's work. Under this rule employees can work eight, nine, ten, eleven or twelve hours a day, as may be agreed on by them and those in charge of the work, and receive the same pay for each and every hour that is received by those in the neighboring establishments.

"Mr. Brown, I owe you a grudge; remember that!" "I shall not be frightened, then; for I never knew you to pay anything that you owed."

A Detroitier who laughed at a man who had slipped down on an icy sidewalk, was promptly knocked over by that individual.
