

NATURE'S HAIR RESTORATIVE

BY A MEMBER OF THE COMPANY.

I do not know as I shall be able to designate the first eight corporals, as I have mislaid the old Roll. But to begin,

Wm. Lawrence, Corporal, wounded at Gains' Mill, Va., June 26, 1862, absent sick at expiration of term.

Jacob P. Saeger, Corp., received five wounds at Gettysburg; three at Laurel Hill, Va., May 8, 1864; in hospital at expiration of term.

John T. Watson, Corp., wounded at Wilderness. Discharged Sept. 20, '64, expiration of term.

Herman Arters, Corp., discharged of Surgeon's certificate, March 17, '63. Hamilton J. Mason, Corp., discharged on Surgeon's certificate, June 22, '63.

Jas. L. Huddleson, Corp., discharged Nov. 18, '62, for wounds received at second Bull Run, fight.

F. M. Vogus, Corp., wounded at Fredricksburg, Dec. 13, '62, and at Laurel Hill, May 7, '64, promoted to 1st Serg't, March 18, '65. Mustered out with Co. E., 1865. Veteran. Mr. Vogus was color bearer during the Wilderness fight, up to May 8, at which time during the charge in the morning, just as he was getting up to the breast-works of the enemy, he was wounded and fell. Immediately recovering himself he climbed on top of the breast-works and planted the colors. Hardly had he done so till he was again wounded in the breast, and as he was falling he grasped the colors and threw them toward our men, who were retreating, and fell. Crawling back he succeeded in getting away.

Andrew J. Mitchell, Corp., wounded at North Ann. Mustered out with Co. E., June 28, '65. While he was at camp, Hall's Hill, Va. He had the small pox very badly. He stood in the company until it was all out on him, and strange to tell, not another man had it. His tent mate had the varioloid slightly.

Jacob T. Shriver, Corp., died June 10, '62, of wounds received at Hau over Court House. He was the first one of the regiment that died by reason of wounds received from the enemy.

W. F. Wentworth, Corp., wounded at Fredricksburg Dec. 13, '62. Killed at Laurel Hill, May 7, '64.

Albaugh, Private, died of the fever.

HARDWARE

WELL FIXTURES

Fredricksburg, Dec. 13, '62. Discharged, March 25, '63, by reason of wounds.

Benjamin P. Baskin, mustered out with Co. E. '65. Veteran.

James M. Bromley, killed at second Bull Run.

Archibald Bromley, killed at second Bull Run.

John M. Bromley, died at Elmira, N. Y. The three Bromleys were brothers.

Robert C. Baskin, killed at Laurel Hill May 8, '64.

Judson Bailey dropped from the Rolls June 30, '64.

Lewis S. Carpenter, discharged Sep. 20, '64, expiration of term.

John L. Crutchlow, wounded at Malvern Hill, July 1, '64, at second Bull Run, Aug. 30, '63. Discharged Dec. 22, for wounds received.

John A. Dustin, wounded at Wilderness, May 5, '64. Absent in Hospital at expiration of term.

Samuel Drane, discharged on Surgeon's certificate Feb. 24, '64.

John C. Downing, wounded at Gains' Mill, June 27, '62. Discharged by reason of wounds, June 23, '63.

Robert W. Davis, wounded at Malvern Hill, July 1, '62. Discharged by reason of wounds. Date unknown.

William S. Dawson, died at Hall's Hill, Dec. 9, '61.

James Davis, wounded at Gains' Mill, June 27, '62. Prisoner from May 5, to Dec. 11, '64. Discharged Feb. 11, '65.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ELECTION.

The Republicans of New Hampshire have achieved a substantial and decided victory, which cannot fail materially to strengthen the prospects of the Republican party throughout the country. The first election of the Presidential year is always looked forward to with peculiar interest, and every State in the Union has watched the progress of the New Hampshire contest with unusual anxiety and absorption. Whatever may be said to the contrary the struggle possessed a national significance, in that it was the preliminary skirmish of the great battle to be fought in November—a reconnaissance in the force from both camps preparatory to the grand campaign. Had the opposition carried the day, every Democratic organ and orator in the country would have considered it an auspicious omen, hastened to proclaim it as the prelude to a series of victories which should sweep the administration from power.

Notwithstanding the statements put forth in some quarters that the Democracy did not propose to make any unusual exertions to carry the State, on the ground that a pronounced success might betray them into injudicious action with reference to national issues—there is no doubt that the party was tested to its utmost capacity, and that not a single vote was permitted to be lost. Hungry men are not apt to voluntarily forego a tempting meal because it may haply damage their chances of invitation to a better feast. A bird in the hand is worth two in the bush, as well in politics as in other matters, and nothing can be more likely than that a single element which promised to conduce to success was left unemployed by the Democracy.

The very history and circumstances of the canvass, indeed, prove this. If ever there was a time when the hold of the Republican policy upon the people was subjected to a severe strain, it was during the campaign just closed. It may safely be said that the Democratic party never went into a similar contest under auspices of so favorable a character, nor with such reasonable expectations of triumph. Not only had the Republicans to fight the Democracy proper, but also the labor reformers, the temperance party, and the anti-administration influence from without, to all of which the former furnished the motive power, and of whose labors it expected to appropriate the results. The opposition also had the advantage of all the personal differences and enmities which have sprung up among Republicans themselves regarding the national administration, as well as of all the mistakes and errors which have been committed in the matter of public appointments, and of all the furors which have been made concerning the subjects and questions which have lately undergone or are now undergoing the scrutiny of official investigation. The Democracy party, therefore, had every motive to put forth every ounce of strength which it possessed, and there is no sort of doubt that, stimulated by these unwonted auxiliary agencies, it exerted itself until its sinews almost cracked.

And the result is, that notwithstanding all this, the people—who are generally guided in their political action by fixed political principles, have either suffered themselves to be misled or to grow disaffected; but with decency and dignity have put aside all questions of personal like or dislike, have pronounced emphatically in favor of that great party which has rendered so much and such signal service to the nation; have declared that the administration is fully entitled to the respect and confidence of the people, and redeemed the Granite State. It is a good portent, and cannot fail to tell powerfully on the country at large. The Republican party challenges the votes of honest and patriotic men upon its records and its acts. It stands now, as it has always stood, for freedom and equal rights, for economy, honesty, and protection of the young industries of our country against the matured industries of foreign States, the humane treatment of the Indians, the sanctity of the national credit, for the enforcement of peace at home, and the pacific settlement of disputes abroad. These measures and principles, which mark the policy of President Grant, constitute the claims of the party to public support and confidence, and there is little doubt that they will be as highly and justly appreciated by the people of the country generally when the proper time comes for an expression of national opinion, as they appear to have been by thoughtful and industrious farmers and mechanics of New Hampshire.—Pittsburgh Commercial.

A CHILD MURDERED—At Driftwood, on Saturday last we had related to us the particulars of the most horrible affair that was ever perpetrated in the county. The day previous, a Mrs. Sarah Myers, wife of Theodore Myers—residing on Bennett's Branch, six miles from the above named place—in what is believed to have been a fit of insanity, killed her son, an infant nine months of age. The mother first took the helpless babe and placed it on the top of a hot stove and next put him into a kettle of boiling apples thus literally roasting and scalding the child, from the effects of which it died within a few moments.

We learn that the mother was subject to epileptic fits, and that when recovering from those fits she is generally insane for a brief time. It is supposed that she had a fit (no one was present) and while recovering, unconsciously committed the awful deed. She was, when told of the affair, almost frantic with grief, and is now in a condition that excites the earnest pity of all her neighbors and acquaintances.—Cameron Press.

DOCTOR PIERCE'S

Golden Medical Discovery

CURES DISORDERS OF THE THROAT, LUNGS, LIVER & BLOOD

In the wonderful medicine to which the afflicted are shown pointed for relief, the discoverer believes he has combined the medicinal and curative properties of Nature's most sovereign curative properties, which God has instilled into the vegetable kingdom for healing the human race, and before combined in one medicine. The evidence of this fact is found in the great variety of most obstinate diseases which it has been found to cure: in the cure of Bronchitis, Severe Coughs, and the early stages of Consumption; it has astonished the medical world, and eminent physicians pronounce it the greatest medical discovery of the age. While it cures the most Severe Coughs, it purifies the system and purifies the blood. By its great and thorough blood purifying properties, it cures all Memories from the most Scrofula in a common Blotch, Pimple, or Eruption. Mercury, and its various diseases, and their effects, are eradicated, and vigorous health and a sound constitution established. Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Fever sores, Scalds, and Mouth Sores, in short, all the numerous diseases caused by hot blood, are conquered by this powerful purifier and invigorating medicine. If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallowness of skin, or yellowish brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or vertigo, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chill, alternated with hot flashes, low spirits, and glaucous forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from Scrofula or Hot Blood. In many cases of Liver Complaints only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect cures, leaving the liver strengthened and healthy. For the cure of Renal and Constipative of the bowels, it is a never failing remedy, and those who have used it for this purpose are kind in the praise. The proprietor offers $1,000 reward for medicine that will equal it for the cure of all the diseases for which it is recommended. Sold by druggists at $1 per bottle. Prepared by R. V. Pierce, M. D., Sole Prop. Iver, at his Chemical Laboratory, 135 Nassau street, Buffalo, N. Y. Send your address for a pamphlet.

A MIRACLE!

Mr. Samuel Bell, of W. E. Schmeitz & Co., Wholesale Boot and Shoe Manufacturers, 31 Fifth Avenue, Pittsburgh, Pa., has been afflicted with chronic rheumatism for thirty years, from his right hip to his foot, having to use a crutch and a cane, at times so painful as to utterly incapacitate him from attending to his business. Having tried every remedy known, without effect, except Gilliland's Pain Killer, he was finally induced to try it. A second application enabled him to lay aside his crutch, and a third effected a permanent cure. Mr. Bell is a popular and well-known citizen, is a living monument of the efficacy of that great medical discovery, Gilliland's Pain Killer. The afflicted should ask their grocer or druggist for it, and try its wonderful power. Mr. Gilliland, we understand, wants a respectable agent in every town and county for it. The principal office is at 72 Third Avenue, Pittsburgh, Pa.

1872.

The Pittsburgh Commercial. A PAPER FOR THE PEOPLE.

The "Presidential year" is always a reading year with the American people. It imposes extraordinary duties on journalists from which the people may usually expect not only the news of the day, but intelligent discussion of public questions andunciation of opinions. While this is true in a general sense the year before us is likely, in a political sense, to be one of unusual interest; the Democratic party is breaking up, and there are indications of alliances and party groupings novel in our politics. The elections of the past year have resulted in almost an unbroken series of Republican victories. General Grant's administration has received the unequivocal approval of the American people; and there is every indication now that, as the Republican candidate, he will be re-elected President. As an Independent Republican Paper the COMMERCIAL will in the future, as in the past, render an unflinching support to Republican Principles, holding that the good of the Republic requires that the Government should remain in the hands of the party that saved it in the great life-or-death struggle. In the future as in the past it will speak its own views regarding men and measures, holding that through free discussion only the people can be reached, and the independence of the press preserved. In this regard we can say simply that the COMMERCIAL will be true to itself and its established character. As a Newspaper, nothing will be spared to maintain the position which the COMMERCIAL has always held among the leading journals of the day, for news enterprises as well as for independent opinions. This year, home and abroad, will be full of interest. European politics are agitated, and the American reader will likely find much in them to attract his attention. At home all is life and push. Railroads are being constructed, and where new projects are being daily proclaimed; population is increasing; enterprise intelligently directed was never so well rewarded, and the prospect for the future is being constantly brightened. To say the least, extremely encouraging. With all these things the COMMERCIAL is intimately identified and as a Business Paper, at the center of the greatest manufacturing district on the continent, has constantly in view whatever of interest readers may reasonably expect to see in its columns,—especially carefully prepared market reports, manufacturing intelligence and general news, collected and from abroad.

To our patrons we have only words of cheer. With some our readers we have held pleasant relations for years, and we are glad to see the continuance of these relations for many years to come. We feel proud in the fact that the COMMERCIAL wields an influence second to no journal in the State. Its readers as a general thing are the influential, intelligent classes. In a circle of hundreds of miles, embracing nearly the whole of Pennsylvania, much of Ohio, West Virginia and States beyond, it is the favorite in the counting-house, the office, the store and the family, especially of business and cultivated classes. To hold this place will be our constant effort.
