The Congressional Priater is reported to have said that the cost of printing the testimony taken before the several Investigation Committees which have been raised during the present session of Congress will far excool the sum charged to have been emb zzled. We do not think that the cost of the proceeding should ever deter Congress from investigating fraud, and for the sake of honesty in the publie service it is right that a thousand dollars should be expended in hunting down an officer who has only stolen bead killing him instantly. Mr. a hundred; but before beginning the Brown was a young man, but 25 years suit of the supposed criminal there ought to be some evidence that there has been the larceny of a hundred dollars. We had a furious storm over alleged frauds in the New York Custom House, and a committee was appointed to in-quire into the truth of the charges; witness was produced to show that the winners are age. She was smoking a pipe, and had a package of natural leaf to bacco depending from her arm. In spite of the millions that are collected every week. There was not even the presence that any officer had embezzled funds or acted dishonestly in the assessments of duties. The peremptory seizures made by some of the Government detectives were complained of, as also shown that New York merchants were in the habit of offering brines to each of the St. Petersburg oil district. This but when the investigation began no the woman appeared to be about the chants were in the habit of offering bribes to petty officers, and that they themselves had built up the very system from which the abuses were supposed to emanate. The burden of the proof produced was to show that Custom House officers had taken part in the management of local politics.

Then came the investigation of the alleged sale of arms to French agents, in which it appeared that there had been neither violation of law nor breach of good faith; after that the Robson investigation, which proved the most despicable failure of all. It is about time that Congress would put a stop to the expenditure of public money in the investigation of frauds which have never been perpetrated, the charges being mostly gotten up by a gang of blackmailers whose head quarters, we regret to say, is in Baltimore -Bultimore American.

-We learn that a house belonging to Mr. Hugh Orr, of Lawrence townshop, about two miles from this place. was destroyed by fire on Saturday fore moon, April 13th. The building was accupied by Mr. Levi Conklin, whose household goods were also burned. Mr. C.'s loss will be seriously felt by FLOUR AND FEED, him. The fire originated in the roof, from sparks falling on it. The house was a pretty old one. We have heard Which they offer to the public at rates as Macra. THROAT, LUNGS, LIVER & BLOOD

In the wonderfal medicine to which the afflicted are above pointed for relief, the discoverer believes he has combined in harmony more of Nature's most sovereign curative properties, which God has in-tilled into the vegetable kingdom for healing the sick, than were ever before combined in one medicine. The evidence of this fact is found in the great variety of most obstinate diseases which it has been found to conquer. In the cure of Bronchitts, Severe Coughs, and the early stages of Cought, has astonished the medical faculty, and eminent physicians pronounce it the greatest medical discovery of the age, While it cures the severest Coughs, it streightens the system and purifies the blood. By its great and therough blood purifying properties, it cares all medical discovery of the age. While it cures the severest Coughe, it streighters the system and purifies the blood. By its great and thorough blood purifying properties, it cures all Humors, from the worst Scrofula to a common Hiotels, Pimple, or Eruptien. Merential disease, Mineral poisons, and their effects, are crafticated, and vigorous beaith and a sound constitution established. Erystpelas, Balt Hu am, Fever ores, Scaly or Hough Sk in, in short, all the numerous diseases caused by had blood, are conquered by this powerful particine and lavagorating medicine.

If you feel dull, drowey, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish brown spots on face or body, feequent headache or dizziness, had taste in mouth, laternal heat or chills, alternated with hot dissless, low spirits, and gloomy foreboolings, irrelater appelite, and tongue conied, you are suffering from Torpita Liver or Hillouaness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a renedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect cures, leaving the liver extremplement and hoalthy. For the cure of Habitani Constipation of the bowels it is a never failing remedy, and those who have used it for this purpose are loud in its praise.
