H. L. McCANCE'S,

Mr. Samuel Bell, of W. E. Schmertz & Co., Wholosale Root and Shoe Manufacqurers, 31 Fifth avenue, Pittsburgh, Pa., has been afflicted with chronic rheumatish for thirty years, from his right hip to his foot, having to use a crutch and a cane, at times so painful as to utterly incapacitate him from attending to his business. Having tried every remedy known, without effect, except Gilliland's Pain Killer, he was finally induced to try it. A second application enabled him to lay aside his crutch, and a third effected a permanent cure. Mr. Bell is a popular and well-known citizen, lis a llying monument of the effscacy of Hell is a popular and well-known citizen, is a living monument of the effacacy of that great medical discovery, Gilliland's Pain Killer. The afflicted should ask their grocer or druggist for it, and try its wonderful power. Mr. Gilliland, we understand, wants a respectable agent in every town and county for it. The principal office is at 72 Third Avenue, Pittsburgh Pa. 31-44.

The death of the Rev. Robert J. Breckinridge reminds us of an amusing incident in his life, which we believe has never been printed. Some member of a presbytery-a country brother-complained that the city clergymen dressed too well, and thus made undue distinction between them and their country brethren. Dr. 187 Breckinridge, always ready for debate, straightened his tall, lithe form up, and "indignantly denied the charge." In a burst of eloquent and ger he declared that he was ready to change clothes with any brother on that floor. In an instant a short fat brother-as broad as long-waddled into the aisle and called out weazily : 'Mr. Mederator, I'm his man!" The vision of Dr. Breckinridge's arms and legs protruding from the baggy clothes of the other upset the dignity of the presbytery, and spoiled the eloquence of the orator.

Now and then we get a fresh little statistic of Mr. Gilmore's musical enterprise, of which report is nothing if not numerical. At the first ever-tobe-remembered Jubilee, the organ required twenty-four men to blow it. The organ building for the June demonstration will be three times as large. It would therefore require seventy-two men to blow it, did not science step in with a steam-engine, and supply a maximum of wind with a minimum of motive power. Who can say that in time we may no have a steam soprano?

In Oregon they resort to peculiar modes of electioneering. A man in Lane county who aspired to be a candidate for Sheriff complains that his enemies circulated a report that a tree fell upon him and killed him, in order to prevent his nomination, thinking, probably, with very good reason, that if he was supposed to be dead he would not be nominated. He very rightly protests that this is not fair play, as he is not willing to be regarded as dead by his fellow citizens, nor to be kept from the honorable position of Sheriff 31 80 of Lane county.

A note from a gentleman who was "snowed up" in Maine, states that during the last storm too much snow was blown through the keyhole of the outside door of the house where he was stopping, and that it took two men two days to shovel it out. And that wasn't the hardest storm of the month by any means.

The Chicago Post puts it thus: The buzz-saw has slain its thousands and the mower and reaper its tens of thousands. The season for being killed by base ball opens a little late this year, but a satisfactory report has been received from Racine. Ago twelve. Hot liner. In the stomach.

In Chicago, some boys surreptitiously pinned to the coat of a pedestrian a 1 80 yellow card, bearing the inscription: "Small-pox here; are you vaccinated?" The Times says "the gentleman met with a perfect ovation wherever he went, but he had pretty much the entire walk to himself."

During the conference at Worcester the following dialogue was overheard between tr a newsboys: "I say, Jim, what's the meaning of so many ministers being here all together?" "Why," answered Jim, scronfully, "they always meet once a year to exchange sermons with each other."

A Salem officer on Tuesday capied an honest importation from the Emerald Isle with his mouth to the opening of a street letter-box, inquiring for a letter for Pat Murphy. The officer showed Pat the way the postoffice, where it is presumed he got an answer. A western New York miss ungnardedly made the remark in the family circle recently that "when gentlemen

earth." Dohson says his friends seem determined to give him the title of Dr. His butcher, baker, and all the rest do so, 9 00 but they put the Dr. after his name instead of before it.
