Mr. Samuel Bell, of W. E. Schmertz & Co., Wholesale Boot and Shoe Manufacturers, 31 Fifth avenue, Pittsburgh, Pa., has been afflicted with chronic rheumatish for thirty years, from his right hip to his foot, having to use a crutch and a cane, at times so painful as to utterly inespacitate him from attending to his business. Having tried every remedy known, without effect, except Gilliland's Pain Killer, he was except Gfililand's Pain Killer, he was finally induced to try it. A second application enabled him to lay aside his crutch, and a third effected a permanent cure. Mr. Bell is a popular and well-known citizen, is a living monument of the effacacy of that great medical discovery, Gililland's Pain Killer. The afflicted should ask their greeer or druggist for it, and try its wonderful power. Mr. Gililland, we understand, wants a respectable agent in every town and county for it. A bummer boasted that he could tell any kind of wine or liquors blindfold, merely by the taste. He tried one kind after another, and readily named them. At last a glass of water was handed him. He tasted it, besi-

tated, tasted it again, smelt it, re-tast-

It is said Miss Nilsson first heard the "Old Folks at Home" sung at the house of Park Goodwin, in New York soon after her arrival in this country, and that she was so much struck by its plaintive melody and touching words, finding a response as they did in her own heart, that she immediately set herself to learning both, and rarely fails to sing them in some portion of each concert. Her exquisite utterance of the melody gives renewed interest to a song which in the last quarter of a century has had an almost unparalleled success. It was among the earlier published compositions of the late Stephen C. Foster of Pittsburgh, and made his name known and esteemed wherever the English language is spoken and English songs sung.

The copyright of this one song brought its author over $15,000, and the sale is still good. At the time of the Crimean war letter writers said that in the trenches before Sebastopol the two favorite songs were the Scotch "Annie Laurie" and the American "Old Folks at Home." The song has been sung in all parts of the world, wherever Englishmen or Americans have penetrated.

A rumor is current in Brooklyn to the effect that a personal difficulty of a grave character has arisen between the spirit of Demosthenes and the ac-complished editor of the Golden Age. It appears that upon the nomination to the Presidency of Mrs. Victoria C. Woodhull by the convention for giving everybody anything, Demosthenes called up Mr. Tilton to fulfill the expectations of the spirit-world aroused by his interesting biography of that gifted woman and "come out" in her support. To this Mr. Tilton replied that he had already "gone in" for Horace Greeley, in sign whereof he invited the attention of the gifted author to a brand-new white hat which was at the moment wearing. The enraged Greek, without another word. raised the white hand which had essayed to shake the Macedonian throne, and knocked the white hat over the wearer's eyes. A high joint commission, consisting of Stephen Pearl Andrews, Brigham Young and the ghost of Fanny Wright, is now sitting on the case, which it is hoped may be settled without bloodshed.

In a country town resides a clergy man who is pastor of a small flock, who esteem him very highly, and whom he is fond of catechizing. A few days since, while taking a ramble through the village, he stopped at the house of one of his parishioners, and after the usual salutations had been exchanged, the conversation ran as follows: "Well, Mrs. W., can you tell me how Adam fell?" The lady commenced to smile audibly, and finally replied, - "Why, my dear doc-1 80 tor, you are not serious?" "Very serious indeed," responded the Doctor. Mrs. W., whose husband's name happened to be Adam, replied, "Well, well, you shall have it, Doctor. You see Adam went to climb over the fence the other day, to go to Deacon M's. for a bottle of whisky, when an oar lying on the ground took his foot. Over Adam fell and barked his shin; and that's the whole truth of the matter."
