thitty years, from his right hip to his foot, having to use a crutch and a came, at times so painful as to utterly incapacitate him from attending to his business. Having tried every remedy known, without effect, except Gililand's Pain Killer, ho was finally induced to try it. A second application enabled him to hay aside his crutch, and a third effected a permanent cure. Mr. Bell is a popular and well-known citizen, is a living monument of the effected of that great medical discovery. Gililand's Pain Killer. The afflicted should ask their grocer or druggist for it, and try its wongrocer or druggist for it, and try its won-derful power. Mr. Gilliland, we under-stand, wants a respectable agent in every town and county for it. The principal of-fice is at 72 Third Avenue, Pittsburgh Pa. 31-4t

An instance of rare honesty, and showing how a dog may desire to pay 120 18 his board hill, recently occurred is Fitchburg, Mass. A lady saw a dog 32 02 odd bits which had been thrown and one day she called him in and fed him. The next day he came back, 92 and as she opened the door he walked 400 in and laid an eggg on the floor, when he was again fed. The following day 11 83 he brought his egg to pay for the din-

A Pacific paper says: A fellow in Oregon thought he would be smart, and just have a little fun with a young lady on whom he had waited two or three times. He asked her what she would do if a nice-looking young fellow asked her to marry him. She smiled, ch, so gushingly, and looked good enough to eat, but said nothing. Then he asked her what she would say Then he asked her what she would say if he asked her to marry him. She threw her arms around him, and rushed out of the room for her hat and shawl. The poor fellow says he was never married so sudden in his life. Probably that was the nearest she ever came to being asked, and she thought fooling around with sentiment would be dangerous.

Among the diversions of a residence in Florida is an occasional fight with an alligator in the streets. A party 2 43 of Northern gentlemen in St. Augus-15 46 tine encountered one of these unpleasant reptiles a few days ago, and he re-fused to let them pass with their team.

The necessary amount of affection toward Molly was awful rough on 'em. Never came away from that house but every one of 'em was smashed. Couldn't expect a fellow to waste good tobacco 9 30 that way, could you?"

There is nothing so affecting in a child as a certain sweet inborn spirit of self-abnegation. Sammy was a little boy, at school in a village far from his home. One day his father came to see him, and they took a walk together. Meeting the principal of the school, Sammy performed the ceremony of in-troduction. "Mr. S.," said he "this is a father of mine."

A young lady in Camden, N. Y., last week dropped a newspaper on the bridge. A young gentleman, who had not kept posted with the fashions, picked it up and offered it to the young lady. She indignantly repudiated the ownership, and he is wondering what made her look so mad.

Two guileless Iowa maidens induced two jocose Iowa youths to go through the marriage ceremony with them "just for fun." This done, the guile-less females produced previously-prepared licenses and certificates, and the jocose individuals are now at lib-25 52 crty to repent at leisure.

A lady in Atlanta tied her husband's hands and feet the other day, just for fun, and then went through his pockets for a certain billet doux, and found it. His physician tells him that his face won't be badly scarred, though he may remain permanently bald.

As a gentleman was telling his friend, that a mutual acquaintance was sent to the Penitentiary for gross intoxication, he was asked why he did not bail him out. "Bale him out!" he replied, "why you could not pump him out.'

Smith and Jones were at the menagerie, and the conversation turned on Darwin's theory. "Look at that monkey," said Smith. "Think of its being an undeveloped human!" "Human?" said Jones, contemptuously. It's no more human than I am."

A country editor's sole editorial in one week's issue of his paper was to the effect that if anything will make a 130 00 man feel juicy about the heart, it is to 53 talk velvet to a pair of sky-colored 8 97 eyes, by moonlight in a clover-field.

Peru, Indiana, has a remarkable chorus society. A local sheet says: "The se prano reached high C without 600 any effort, and the basso profundo made a run of the gallery stairs, striking B flat in a sitting position.'

An irate colored female on a Ten-Taxes and costs must be paid when proped prize in some "prize" candy boxes sold her, pitched into the newsboy and gave him a sound thrashing. The Hartford Post says two-thirds of the people of Poquence pass Sunday in fishing for muskrats with shot gons, and that is the way the other third know when Sunday comes.
