The Democratic Nominations.

The Democratic State Convention at Rending, May 30 nominated Hon. Charles R. Buckalew for Governor, on the seventh ballot. Mr. Buckalew was born in Columbia county, Pennsylvania, December 28, 1821; adopted the profession of law, and was admitted to practice in 1843. He is an uncompromising party man and will daw only a party vote.

Wm. Hartley of Bedford was nomdyed-in-the-wool Democrat, but comparatively unknown.

Richard Vaux, of Philadelphia, James H. Hopkins of Allegheny, and H. B. Wright, of Luzerne, were nominated for Congressmen at large.

The resolutions as adopted contain nothing but an indorsement of Jefferson's inaugural and Jackson's farewell declaration; that the election of Buckalew will secure at once a correction of all existing evils, and the condemnation of grants of charters by the Judges Allison, Ludlow, Pierce, Pax-Radical Legislature to the South Improvement Company and like corporations. The resolutions were tamely received and failed to elect even ordinary applause.
