Communication from Russell Errett.

H'do'rs of the Republican State Central Com. of Pa., 716 Walnut St., Philadelphia, June 24, 1872. EDITOR REPUBLICAN—Dear Sir:-

Errett, Chairman of the Pennsylvania Republican State Central Committee party is the rebel element at the South, has been here in consultation with the National Executive Committee, or some of its members. Privately he of the determined opposition of so large a proportion of the Republican press, and the voters of the State.

such papers as The Press will help Hartranft. According to Errett the "old man of the sea" on the shoulders of the Parcelliage of the Pepublican party of Pennsylvania is neither Cameron nor Hartranft, but General Grant. He thinks (and this is understood to be the opinion of State Treasurer Mackey, and other Cameron followers) that the party is more divided upon Grant than it is friends so report him.

Please say to your readers that this whole story is a lie, made up of the whole cloth. I have never, privately or otherwise, given it as my opinion that Hartranft cannot be elected, but, on the contrary, have uniformly expressed my hearty conviction that he so only can but will be elected. Nor have I ever said or thought that Grant was "the old man of the sea" on the shoulders of the Republican party, nor that the party is more divided on Grant than Hartranft. All these allegations of the Press are utterly false and unfounded.

So painful as to utterly incapacitate him from attending to his business. Having the there is opainful as to utterly incapacitate him from attending to his business. Having tried every remedy known, without effect, —When Evans proved a defaulter it was Gen. Hartranft that commenced legal proceedings against him, and at hird effected a permanent cure. Mr. Bell is a popular and well-known citizen, is a living monument of the effected a permanent cure. Mr. Bell is a popular and well-known citizen, is a living monument of the effected a permanent cure. Mr. Bell is a popular and well-known citizen, and a third effected a permanent cure. Mr. Bell is a popular and well-known citizen, it was Gen. Hartranft that commenced legal proceedings against him, and yet Evans with a portion of the "pickand unfounded.

Permit me to add that, while I have the fullest confidence in the success of Hartranft and Grant, we need the believe that Hartranft is guilty of complicity with Evans! This is nearly press. I therefore take this opportu- as bad as making Yerkes, the pentenpity to urge on you the importance of pressing constantly on your readers the claims of Government Hertranft with the understanding that if Buckalew beats Hatranft for Govthe claims of General Hartranft, and ernor Yerkes should be pardoned .of keeping constantly before them the Pittsburgh Commercial. fact that Grant cannot be elected if A wedding was dashed in Alabama we lose Pennsylvania in October. This circular is not for publication, but simply to furnish you an authoritive contradiction of fabrications of a mendacious newspaper, whose falsehoods are calculted to mislead and deceive, unless so contradicted. I ask, therefore, as a favor to the cause we all love, that you will give your readers so much of this as is necessary for the public enlightment.

> Very Respectfully, RUSSELL ERRETT, Chairman.

-Among the most perplexing of the many difficult questions lately propounded to Mr. Greeley by his former political associates and friends, is the inquiry addressed to him by Hon. Lewis F. Allen, who has subscribed for the Tribune ever since it was started, as to his opinion of the understanding which is supposed to exist between the editor of a paper and its subscribers concerning its general political principles, Mr. Allen complains that he, in common with thousands of others, having paid for a Republican paper in which he mainly believed, is now, by reason of its total change of front saddled with a paper in which he does not believe at all; and while he says he cares nothing for the paltry sum of unearned subscription which he has paid, he wishes Mr. Greeley to tell him whether, as a matter of political and business ethics, he is doing right to keep his money for that which he did not subscribe? He does not want the money back nor does he avow himself in favor of the election of President Grant, but he is anxious to have a candid expression of opinion from Mr. Greeley, concerning the intrinsic equitableness of the case. The Tribune has not yet given a satisfactory reply.

Campaign Mottoes by Greeley.

"Grant and his policy deserve the very highest credit."—Horace Greeley. "The people of the United States know General Grant-have known all about him since Donelson and Vicksburg; they do not know his slanderers, and do not care to know them."-

Horace Greeley.
"While asserting the right of every Republican to his untrammeled choice of a candidate for next President until a nomination is made. I venture to suggest that General Grant will be far better qualified for that moment-ous trust in 1872 than he was in 1868."

-Horace Greeley.
"We are led by him who first taught our armies to conquer in the West, and subsequently in the East also. Richmond would not come to us until we sent Grant after it, and then it had to come. He has never been defeated and never will be. He will be as great and successful on the field of politics as on that of arms."

—Horace Greeley.

Yes; Gen. Grant has failed to gratify some eager aspirations, and has gives it as his opinion that Hartranft cannot be elected in October, in the face thereby incurred some intense hatreds. These do not and will not fail, and his Administration will prove at least equally vital. We shall hear lamen-tation after lamentation over his fail-Publicly he sings quite a different tune, and boasts that the opposition of the thought, but the through the war and into the White House, and they still uphold and sus-

At least Mr. Errett's known scoundrels forcibly entered and pretty thoroughly went through the louse, taking a sum of money, a lot of clothing and many articles of value. Mrs. Duncan's trunks and wardrobe was ransacked and the contents scattered promiscuously about, in some instances being wantonly and maliciously torn and cut. Mr. Duncan has legal proceedings against him, and yet Evans with a portion of the "picklegal proceedings against him, and yet Evans with a portion of the "pickings" in his pocket, and McClure, who is just using Forney as a convenient tool to defeat Grant by defeating Harttool to defeat Grant by defeating Harttool first undertakes to make people
