On Friday morning a terrible accident occurred to a fireman on an engine on the Atlantic and Great Western road, named Charles Huber, by which he will no doubt lose both legs, if not his life. He had got off his engine to open a switch, when his foot slipped and he fell upon the track in front of the locomotive. One of the wheels passed over him, cutting off one leg just above the ankle and crushing the other. The unfortunate man was taken to Meadville and transferred to the Sisters' of Charity Hospital.

On Friday night a would be incendiary placed some shavings saturated with oil under the stoop of Baker's hotel, the traveler's home, at Petersburg, and set fire to the house. The flames were extinguished before much damage was done. The rascal made his escape and is yet unknown.

Messrs. Vandergrift & Foreman, Sutterfield, Taylor, and others, are entering in a new bank, started at Fairview. This town is becoming an oil-dorado, and all branches of business must be introduced to meet the wants of the community, which is rapidly increasing in numbers. Messrs. Vandergrift & Foreman have established a pipe line at this point, and our popular young townsman, Mr. George S. Stahl, is the superintendent. Success to George—also Fairview.

The following items are taken from the East Brady Independent:
Mr. Robert Craig, living on the Clarion road, between Rimersburg and Curtsville, had his store robbed a short time ago of goods and money to the amount of $40. Last winter he suffered the same way. He thinks he is on the track of the thief. We hope he may catch him.

Mr. Jake Hill, of Pittsburgh, has sold his valuable Hillville property to Judge Brandon, of Forest county. This ranks among the most valuable properties on the Allegheny, and in the hand of an energetic man like the Judge, will add largely to the business of this locality. The property consists of a fine saw mill, lath mill, &c., with a number of dwellings, store house and other buildings. The situation is very fine and with the excellent harbor for timber and superior shipping facilities, will become a largely paying concern. We welcome the Judge to our midst, and hope to record his complete financial success.

The Tidouite Journal says:
The stone foundation of the new depot begins to loom up and the prospects are that the structure will be up before snow flies.

Luther Green, Esq., is building a very substantial foundation in rear of the People's Savings Bank Block, on Main street, preparatory to erecting a brick structure next season.

Many new buildings are being erected in different parts of the Borough and the cry yet is "more houses." We believe a young fortune might be made by any one who would erect a number of neat, cosy dwelling houses. The demand for them exceeds the supply greatly and many persons are unable to bring their families to this place on account of no conveniences for them. The hotels are crowded and the prices are high in consequence. If we had more men like Mr. D. S. Thompson, in Tidouite in the way of building, the population of the place would be double in a very short time.

On Wednesday, July 31st, 1872, the delegates of the 19th Congressional District met in the Court House at Ridgway. Amos Gould, of Erie Co., was chosen President and J. H. Haggerty of Elk, and S. T. Allen, of Warren, Secretaries. The following is a list of the delegates who reported up to 2 o'clock on Wednesday:
Erie—Amos Gould, E. Sturznickel, J. R. Willard.
Elk—Charles Mead, George A. Walker, J. H. Haggerty.
Warren—J. R. Clark, A. D. Wood, S. T. Allen.
Forest—Samuel Clark, W. R. Dunn, McKean—J. M. Welsh, Wm. T. Totten, A. N. Taylor.
Cameron—George Metzger, E. R. Mayo, L. Taggart.
The President called for nominations for the candidacy on the Republican Ticket of the 19th District, in response to which, J. R. Clark, Esq., of Warren nominated Col. B. Curtis, of Erie. No other name being submitted to the convention, on motion nominations closed. A ballot was then taken, and Col. Curtis was unanimously nominated on the first ballot.
