A FEW MISSTATEMENTS CORRECTED.

Senator Wilson has authorized the publication of the following letter:

NATICK, MASS., June 29.

"J. O. Culver, Esq., State Journal, Madison, Wis."

"My dear sir: The mail has just brought me your note and extracts clipped from newspapers purporting to be speeches made by me. In answer to your inquiries I have to say that they are all thought and words of like character which have appeared in the papers are pure inventions, wicked forgeries, absolute falsehoods. Never have I thought, spoken or written those words, nor anything resembling those words, nor anything that the most malignant sophistry could torture into those words. I could not have done so, for they are abhorrent to every conviction of my judgment, every throeb of my heart, every aspiration of my soul. Born in extreme poverty, having endured the hard lot of the sons of poverty are so often forced to endure, I came to manhood passionately devoted to the creed of human equality. All my life I have cherished as a bright hope, and held and avowed as a living faith, the doctrine that all men, without distinction of color, race or nationality, should have complete liberty and exact equality—all the rights I asked for myself. My thoughts, my words, my pen, my votes, have been consecrated for more than thirty-six years to human rights. In the Constitutional Convention of Massachusetts; in eight years' service in her legislature; in more than seven years' service in the Senate of the United States; in thirteen hundred public addresses; in the press; in speeches and writing that would fill many volumes and make thousands of pages, I have iterated and reiterated the doctrine of equal rights for all conditions of men. Is it not, my dear sir, passing strange that partisanship should so blind men to a sense of truth, justice and fair play that they could forge and print abhorrent sentiments—sentiments insulting to God and man—and charge them upon one whose life has been given to the cause of equal rights at home, and whose profound sympathies were ever given to the friends of liberty of all races and nationalities abroad?"

Yours truly, HENRY WILSON."

O H, M Y ! !

NORTH CAROLINA!

2,000 Republican Majority!

Sure pop for Grant in November!

A "Hot One" for Horace!

The North Carolina election resulted in a victory for the Republicans. Caldwell is elected by a handsome majority. Notwithstanding the fact that the Democrats claimed the State by eight or ten hundred majority, the Republicans carried it. We gained one Congressman and reduced the Democratic majority in the Legislature. The Democrats still have a majority in the Legislature owing to a gigantic fraud in the apportionment of that State, the Second District being made overwhelmingly Republican, and the other seven so wronged in defiance of all rules and reason as to give an apparent Democratic majority in each of them. Under these circumstances it is a great as it is an unexpected victory. A great deal of powder was procured by the Democrats to celebrate this victory, but they concluded they would wait until the next time. The significance of this Republican triumph cannot be mistaken. It shows the strength of a good cause, and foreshadows a final triumph of Republican principles. Greeley, Sumner, Schurz and the rest of the conspirators should learn from this that they must stand under, or the great avalanche on the 5th of November will crush them. All honor to North Carolina.

Republican District Convention.

According to previous announcement the Republican Senatorial Conference met at the Alexander House in this place, on Tuesday last. The following gentlemen composed the Conference:

Clarion county, Col. J. P. Lyon, Samuel M. Pierce and Samuel Bruneman; Jefferson, W. F. Stewart, Esq., C. M. Brewer, Esq., and Daniel Smith; Forest, Hon. A. Cook, Hon. W. R. Coon.

The convention organized by selecting Col. J. P. Lyon, chairman and C. M. Brewer Secretary. In the Senatorial Conference Armstrong county was not represented, not sending any delegates. David Maclay, Esq., of Clarion county, was nominated for State Senator by acclamation. Conference then adjourned.

The conference to choose candidates for Constitutional Convention, met immediately upon the adjournment of the Senatorial Conference. In addition to the Conferees above named, Armstrong county was represented by Col. J. B. Finley, J. B. Neal, Esq., and Jas. B. Brown. The same organization as in the Senatorial Conference was preserved.

The following gentlemen were then placed in nomination: from Armstrong county J. E. Brown, Esq., Clarion county presented the name of Hon. James Campbell, and Jefferson county Maj. G. W. Andrews. On motion it was agreed this conference nominate two candidates for constitutional delegates. On the first ballot J. E. Brown Esq., had four votes, G. W. Andrews had five votes and Hon. Jas. Campbell had three votes. On motion J. E. Brown and G. W. Andrews were unanimously chosen as Constitutional Delegates. On motion Col. J. B. Finley, S. M. Pierce Esq., and W. F. Stewart, were appointed a committee to prepare resolutions.

On motion, these proceedings were ordered to be published in the Armstrong Republican, Union Free Press, Clarion Republican, Brookville Republican, Forest Republican, and East Brady Independent.

The following resolutions were adopted: Resolved, That we hereby ratify the proceedings of our National and State Republican Conventions, and unqualifiedly recommend the candidates chosen by them the unconditional support of the Republicans of this Senatorial district.

That in David Maclay, for State Senator, and G. W. Andrews and James E. Brown, as delegates to the Constitutional Convention, we have gentlemen of ability, integrity, business capacity, and legal worth, such as will redound to the welfare of any party, and representatives who will reflect honor on their constituents, and we do hereby unconditionally recommend them for the entire and unreserved support by every true citizen. J. P. Lyon, Chairman. C. M. Brewer, Secretary.

Take the following items from the East Brady Independent:

On Monday morning the mutilated remains of a man were found on the track of the Allegheny Valley Railroad, near Hulton Station, about twelve miles from the city. Both legs were cut off, the head severed from the body, and the body otherwise mangled. The pieces were scattered about on the track presenting a most sickening sight. They were gathered together and Coroner West being notified, held an inquest yesterday afternoon, when the name of the deceased was ascertained to be William Metzler, a resident of New Castle, Lawrence county. He had been employed by the railroad company at Hulton Station, and for some time past had been on a spree. It was supposed that while intoxicated on Saturday night he laid down on the track and fell asleep, and was run over and killed, and that afterwards the different trains, during the night, passed over the corpse. The jury rendered a verdict that "deceased was run over and killed by an unknown train on the Allegheny Valley Railroad." His age was about sixty-six years, and he leaves a family of a wife and two children in New Castle.

The ring performance in Kleckner & Co.'s circus did not have much attraction for us, and we awaited the moment when the "Lion King" should enter the den. He came and passed in, and then ensued a scene that beggars description. The lioness and tiger had been fighting between the bars that separated them, and they were in anything but a peaceful mood. The tiger by this time had been secured by a chain, and was lying on the bottom of the cage. When the keeper threw the wicket open that separated the animals, the lioness made a rush for the tiger, and pounced upon him; but the tiger, prostrate as he was, caught her by the shoulder with his forepaws, and held her powerless for a moment, when she sprang to the other end of the cage; as she attempted to pass back again, the keeper struck at her, when quick as thought she struck him with the claws of her right forefoot, tearing terrible gashes in the calf of his left leg. The keeper struck her a blow with a heavy stick, and knocked her down, when she scrambled up and rushed to the side of the lion, and the keeper forcing the wicket to its place, managed to get out in safety. His leg was badly lacerated, but he was cool and did not seem to comprehend the danger from which he had escaped. The excitement amongst the immense throng was intense for a while, but when the keeper passed out, everybody gave way to joy, that he had escaped with his life.

The people of St. Petersburg and vicinity were thrown into great excitement early Monday morning by the intelligence that a fatal accident had taken place on the Filman Farm, near Turkey Run. It seems that five men were at a well on the Filman farm, either as drillers or lookers-on, when the tools struck through into a crevice of the sand rock, and an immense volume of gas was liberated from its long imprisonment and rushed with great force up through the well and almost instantly communicated with the fire under the boiler and exploded with great force, enveloping the engine and derrick. All this was a work of an instant, and the men working at the well had no time for flight, but were caught in the burning gas and three of them, Nelson Vessel, Michael Shoup, and Alexander McGee, were burned to death. Martin Frank was dangerously and John Malton slightly burned.—Titusville Herald.
