-Mr. James D. Kelly, of Pittsburg, was in town last week, visiting his son, A. B. Kelly, Esq. Although pretty well up in years, he looks good for a quarter of a century yet.

-M. Carpenter is at present at Lickingville, near the camp meeting grounds, taking pictures for all classes and conditions of men. We hope he will be well patronized.

-The Blue Stockings and Red Jackets played a match game on Wednesday last, resulting in a victory for the Blue Stockings by a score of 74 to 43.

-A picuic composed of the people of town, came off on Friday afternoon and evening at Tubb's Run. We were unable to be present, owing to a rush of job work, but understand that a very pleasant time was experienced by all who attended.

-The attendance at camp meeting from this place on Sunday last was terriffic. Odd Fellows from neighboring towns are invited, and are requested to bring their own regalia. A fine start will be given the lodge here, and a pleasant time will be had at the opening.

-The White Pines and Blue Stockings played a match game on Saturday last. The White Pines played a most magnificent game, scarcely any bad playing being done on that side during the game. The Blue Stockings did as well as they could, but came out behind pretty badly, the score being 72 to 17. Another game will be played next Saturday.
