SENATORIAL.

We publish the following communication from the Jeffersonian to show our readers that all is not levely in the Democratic camp as regards the York, last week, S. J. Mr. Mc-Clay, the Republican candidate is well version, he announced that he knew spoken of and would undoubtedly rep-resent the interests of this district as ley at Cincinnati, and that he (Tilden) well as any other man in it:

Editor Brookeille Jeffersonian: In your issue of the 28th ult, I find card from R. B. Brown, of Clarion, which as a specimen of incoherent egotism is worthy of a gilded frame for its preservation as a warning to the rising generation of the fearful results of this morbid self love, which blinds us to feets and leads him from was mentioned as one of the parties blinds us to facts and leads him from seeing things as they really are. Burns wisely wrote:

"O wad some pow'r the giftie gie us To see oursels as others see us! It wad frae monie a blunder free us, An feolish notein!"

But it is not with this characteristic of Mr. Brown's card that I wish to deal. I would speak rather of his assumptions and of his exceedingly bad taste.

Mr. Brown introduces my name into his eard as having promised to him the support of the Democracy of Armstrong county, in my remarks before the Conference at Brookville. This I certainly never did, and his manner of stating the effects of my remarks is as unfair as it is deceptive. I promised no man the support of the Democracy of this county. I have never claimed and do not assume to have, the control of the Democracy. They are inde-pendent, thinking men, and act for themselves. I claim no dictatorship over them. Greeley never directly denied the truth of the Binghampton accusations.

And this man all time was claiming to be a Republican, and still does so claim. And they call him "Honest." What do words mean, anyway. Let us have a new dictionary. The old definitions of "honesty," "truth," "honor" and other such words are becoming obsolete. So of party names and principles. Republicanism and Demogracy are certified in the contract of the co Democracy are getting strangely con-founded. Who is who, and what is what, which of them is anyone or everybody?-Derrick.

THE BETTER PART OF VALOR.

Mr. Sumner has not found it convenient to remain in the country and participate in the conflict he so valiantly provoked. He has gone to Europe, bled at Brookville. That Conference and will not return before the opening was diesolved and never made any of Congress; will not be here to vote nomination whatever. But before he went some one in New York asked him whether it was true that, when he gave up the portfolia of the Committee on Foreign Relations of the Senate, nine treaties were found therein, which he had received from the State Department, and never laid before the committee; and he replied that it was not, thus adding direct and downright falsehood to his other offences. For the proof of this fact is official and beyond dispute. We have published the full list of treaties he had thus suppressed. The oldest of them, that providing for the Mexican Claims Commission, had been in his hands no less than eighteen months, and never been laid before the committee! What reason for this: Nothing can be clearer. Mr. Sumner had been opposed to Grant throughout his whole Administration. He refused to visit the White House or the State Department, and consequently remain-—On Friday evening last W. C. Plummer of the Courier was knocked down and severely kicked and stamped upon by P.
