

NATIONAL REPUBLICAN TICKET.

For President U. S. GRANT, of Illinois.

For Vice President HENRY WILSON, of Massachusetts.

REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET

For Governor, JOHN F. HARTRANFT, of Montgomery Co.

For Judge of Supreme Court, ULYSSES MERCUR, of Bradford Co.

For Auditor-General, HARRISON ALLEN, of Warren Co.

For Congressmen at Large, HON. GLENNI W. SCOFIELD, of Warren.

GEN. CHALES ALLBRIGHT, of Carbon.. GEN. LEMUEL TODD, of Cumberland.

REPUBLICAN COUNTY TICKET.

For Congress, CARLTON B. CURTIS, of Erie.

For State Senator DAVID McCLAY, of Clarion County.

Constitutional Delegates JAS. E. BROWN, of Armstrong, GEO. W. ANDREWS, of Jefferson.

For Assembly, H. H. MAY.

For Prothonotary, J. B. AGNEW.

For Sheriff, T. J. VAN GIESEN.

For Treasurer, FRED. GLASSNER.

For Commissioner, JOHN THOMPSON.

For Auditor, L. WARNER.

For Surveyor, S. D. IRWIN.

There is a thoroughly matured if not venerable story circulated in some sections of how Pat enticed the bear. He was seen running, gun in hand, with surprising agility, taking fences and ditches, like a steed-chaser, before him. Having reached safety and the jeers of his friends, he enlightened them that he was only enticing his enemy to more significant defeat—just as, Liberal testimony being taken, Republicans are now lured to destruction. North Carolina, Vermont, Maine—all of the States where the coalition have suffered so heavily—it is now explained have only been decoys to tempt incautious confidence and attract pursuit. It is very likely that when a little more success of this sort has been attained, as it soon will be, and when the allies have achieved the feat of the rebels in getting their foe "just where they wanted them," they will find that their happy application of the story will vanish before a square meal by brain, to which these preliminary affairs have only been appetizers. If their purpose was what it is now said to have been, there is, indeed, some reason for fear. They have enticed their opponents to utter, absolute certainty of success—so great that the Tammany betters could not find men to hedge with. If this confidence is an engine of weakness, great will be the downfall, and awful brain's mortification. But on the other hand, it is painful to think what the result would be in the event of the slightest miscalculation. Should Pennsylvania be used as Maine was, and New York follow Vermont and others copy the lead, not even the most notable skeaddling of the rebellion would parallel that in November. It is time for them to try for their safety, while there is yet opportunity.

FOR SALE.—To close an estate, two tracts of land of about 2000 acres, situated on Millstone Creek, Forest County. Heavily timbered, mainly hemlock, valuable for the bark, and supposed by good judges to be good oil territory. Map with particulars at this office.

and ordinarily intelligent ones, who talk of supporting Buckalew, and yet call themselves friends and supporters of Grant. Such an idea, so foreign to all the teachings of the past history of Pennsylvania, so unreasonable in its assumed logic, so totally incapable, as regards any useful friendship for President Grant, is not a common one, and yet it exists, of course in a very limited degree. The attempt to blend two services which are as wide apart as are the services of any other "two masters," has this practical impossibility about it. The support of Buckalew is the support of all the elements of hostility to Grant; and those who oppose Grant in October will have no part in the helping of him in November. Their services will then be wholly unnecessary. Having done what they could to break down his chances of success in October, their help will not be needed in November. He will sweep Pennsylvania from border to border, upon the flood-tide of Republican victory in October, and the honor of his victory will belong wholly to those who won it a month before. Men who have vainly tried to defeat Grant's candidate and advance-guard in October, and who then come forward with profers of aid, after the grand battle has been virtually won, will find that while they can vote for Grant, after having voted and worked against him, they will have neither part nor lot in the proud distinction of having rewarded a good and faithful servant with the renewed confidence of a grateful people. Buckalew means, whatever it may be called, hostility to Grant; just as Hartranft means hostility to Greeley. Buckalew offers no reform or public advantage to the good citizens that will not be better secured under Hartranft, while to advocate him makes professions of friendship for Grant useless and idle.

The State Journal gives the following account of the visit of the "Traveling Political Mendicant" to that city on Wednesday evening and how he was received by the poor Democrats who he has so often lampooned in the Tribune:

Horace, the wonderful, versatile, ubiquitous and truculent Horace Greeley, has been here and gone. He came in the midst of a pumpkin gathering—came when all other vegetables are pouring in upon us—and left perfumed by the breaths of men redolent with whisky and lager, and whose thick tongues one short year ago wagged at the simple mention of his name, with imprecations on his head and awful damnations on his soul. It was droll to see the motley crowd peer and gaze at the great apostate; and it was droll to see Greeley attempt the role of a disinterested patriot. His clothes looked as though they had yesterday come from the store; his cheeks glowed with the indication of well-assumed innocence, and his ample brow glistening with the majesty of a man wearing honors which in his heart he felt he is not worthy of. Our Democratic friends went in couples to greet their new master. They tremblingly grasped the hand which smote them so often, and as they looked steadily into poor Greeley's white and uneasy eyes, they inaudibly inquired: "Do I look like a gambler?" "Have I the appearance of a sot?" "Do I smell of a sweat cloth?" "I am no bully, am I?" to all of which Greeley, with his usual grace and classic style, seemed to respond: "If any man says so, he is a liar and a scoundrel." Next ought to have been on the spot. The leaders of the Democratic party at Harrisburg looked most ludicrous—as they shook hands and passed on, they wiped their hands on the seats of their breeches, as a pre-occupied man does when he unexpectedly touches anything by which he imagines he has been defiled. In the meanwhile Greeley looked as a child with its first penny whistle. It was awful to look at his smile. His thick, bloodless lips were drawn into all manner of contortions, and his cheeks of sallow, pumpkin-like hue, glistened with a fever heat of expectancy and greed. A more farcical public exhibition of feigned homage to a man on the part of people who were in the habit only a year ago, of cursing and reviling him, was never seen on any occasion. It was the hardest piece of work the Democracy of Harrisburg ever did. On their part it was all sham—while poor Greeley took it in earnest. We never in all our life saw so many men blush as blushed at this Greeley reception, and as the echoes of the whistle which signalled the train off in reverberations, the sound of a long-drawn breath issued from the crowd, as if every man present felt relieved that the humiliating spectacle was over.

We commend to the consideration of those Republicans who maintain or profess to maintain, that there is no necessary connection between the October and November elections in this State, the following passage from the New York World in relation to the matter in question: "If there is any Radical mad enough to fancy that his party can carry Pennsylvania in November for Grant, after losing Pennsylvania in October through Cameron and Hartranft, we stand the nature of the hazard at stake. They see that the loss or gain of Pennsylvania in October is the win-all or lose-all of the November battle. Not a single coalition paper in the country, from Maine to Texas, takes any other view of the case than this. By learning wisdom from their enemies, the Republicans of the State may achieve a magnificent victory. By persisting in a delusion, or failing to appreciate properly the momentous character of the struggle, the Republican party of the whole country may be brought into an irretrievable disaster. It is not the honor or shame of the Keystone State alone that are involved—it is the welfare or calamity of the nation.

From this time forward until the closing of the October polls the air will be darkened with swarms of falsehood and slander concerning the State candidates. Thus far, as is known to every intelligent and reflective mind, the Confederate campaign has been conducted on a basis of misrepresentation and calumny. It is true the shameless mendacities so industriously hatched and set afloat have, in every instance, been promptly met, refuted, and exposed. This, however, has not deterred their authors from pursuing their nefarious trade, but seems, on the contrary, to have rendered them more unscrupulous and venomous than ever. It is conceded by all that Pennsylvania is the national battle-ground, and the October election the national fight. All the available resources of the opposition have been concentrated here, and here their last and worst display of malice and vindictiveness, masked under pretensions and high-sounding names, will be made. Knowing the weakness of their cause and the vulnerability of their candidate, Buckalew's managers will try to distract attention by scattering their stink-pots of abuse on every hand. Old lies will be re-coined, old calumnies revived, old slanders revamped, and new detractions of every character set in motion. Let no man be deceived. The issues of the canvass, and the characters and records of the respective candidates, are before the people. The worst criticism has failed to reveal a flaw in the one—the most lenient judgment must confess that there is hardly a sound spot to be found in the other. Hartranft representing "honesty, efficiency and integrity," or Buckalew with his heel upon humanity and his broad back turned toward the sun. That is the choice.—Commercial.

We have for years held Mr. Greeley to be an ally of the Tammany Ring; therefore when he told the Baltimore Convention that in accepting their nomination he was "as much a Republican as ever" we believed him. Horace Greeley as a Democratic leader is where he belonged years ago; he is just as good a Republican as ever; and just as good an one as Horatio Seymour. At the same time, we didn't think he was a copperhead Democrat. But his swinging-around-the-circle speeches show he is that. At Pittsburgh he reiterated strong secession sentiments and lied about and reviled the Union Soldiers. At Newport, Kentucky, he went still deeper into the confederate mire apologized for the barbarities at Andersonville and Libby. Hear this new champion of the rebellion. "We should not wrong each other, we should not distrust each other, we should feel that we should not see any person dealt unjustly by. Even in this struggle I do not believe it was the policy of either party to set any prisoner dealt unjustly by. As a rule, I believe prisoners on both sides, the people meant that they should be treated with humanity, as far as they were able to treat them so. I think this was the spirit of the people."

We would like to see this infamous old liar stand up before a crowd of survivors of Belle Isle and Andersonville and say that. If Grant was not left without a competitor inside of fifteen minutes it would be because the boys had more respect, patriotism and decency than the grey-haired apostate who made this apology for the Dick Turners of the South. Does any one suppose, after these efforts to bid for Southern votes that Mr. Greeley would oppose any wish of the South if he were elected? No, he would be a more pliant tool of Southern and rebel schemes than Buchanan was. Of all Northern dough-faces Horace Greeley is the doughiest.—Derick.

—We always keep our stock full and complete in the following goods: Dry goods, clothing, boots and shoes, tinware, glassware, stoneware, drugs, and patent medicines. We also have a Tailoring Department, where you always find a full assortment of clothes and cassimeres, which we make up to order in the most fashionable styles. Call and examine our goods, styles and prices. We keep the Singer Improved Family Sewing Machine for sale at less than agent's prices. Singer's Sewing Machines take the precedence over all other machines; this company having sold over 50,000 more than any other make during last year, and 2,427 out of 2,944 furnished to the sufferers in Chicago were Singer machines—each person choosing their own machine. Also the Universal Clothes Wringer, the best, most durable and serviceable in use. Call and see us; our room is limited, but we have the goods and will think it no trouble to show them.

and ordinary intelligent ones, who talk of supporting Buckalew, and yet call themselves friends and supporters of Grant. Such an idea, so foreign to all the teachings of the past history of Pennsylvania, so unreasonable in its assumed logic, so totally incapable, as regards any useful friendship for President Grant, is not a common one, and yet it exists, of course in a very limited degree. The attempt to blend two services which are as wide apart as are the services of any other "two masters," has this practical impossibility about it. The support of Buckalew is the support of all the elements of hostility to Grant; and those who oppose Grant in October will have no part in the helping of him in November. Their services will then be wholly unnecessary. Having done what they could to break down his chances of success in October, their help will not be needed in November. He will sweep Pennsylvania from border to border, upon the flood-tide of Republican victory in October, and the honor of his victory will belong wholly to those who won it a month before. Men who have vainly tried to defeat Grant's candidate and advance-guard in October, and who then come forward with profers of aid, after the grand battle has been virtually won, will find that while they can vote for Grant, after having voted and worked against him, they will have neither part nor lot in the proud distinction of having rewarded a good and faithful servant with the renewed confidence of a grateful people. Buckalew means, whatever it may be called, hostility to Grant; just as Hartranft means hostility to Greeley. Buckalew offers no reform or public advantage to the good citizens that will not be better secured under Hartranft, while to advocate him makes professions of friendship for Grant useless and idle.

The State Journal gives the following account of the visit of the "Traveling Political Mendicant" to that city on Wednesday evening and how he was received by the poor Democrats who he has so often lampooned in the Tribune:

Horace, the wonderful, versatile, ubiquitous and truculent Horace Greeley, has been here and gone. He came in the midst of a pumpkin gathering—came when all other vegetables are pouring in upon us—and left perfumed by the breaths of men redolent with whisky and lager, and whose thick tongues one short year ago wagged at the simple mention of his name, with imprecations on his head and awful damnations on his soul. It was droll to see the motley crowd peer and gaze at the great apostate; and it was droll to see Greeley attempt the role of a disinterested patriot. His clothes looked as though they had yesterday come from the store; his cheeks glowed with the indication of well-assumed innocence, and his ample brow glistening with the majesty of a man wearing honors which in his heart he felt he is not worthy of. Our Democratic friends went in couples to greet their new master. They tremblingly grasped the hand which smote them so often, and as they looked steadily into poor Greeley's white and uneasy eyes, they inaudibly inquired: "Do I look like a gambler?" "Have I the appearance of a sot?" "Do I smell of a sweat cloth?" "I am no bully, am I?" to all of which Greeley, with his usual grace and classic style, seemed to respond: "If any man says so, he is a liar and a scoundrel." Next ought to have been on the spot. The leaders of the Democratic party at Harrisburg looked most ludicrous—as they shook hands and passed on, they wiped their hands on the seats of their breeches, as a pre-occupied man does when he unexpectedly touches anything by which he imagines he has been defiled. In the meanwhile Greeley looked as a child with its first penny whistle. It was awful to look at his smile. His thick, bloodless lips were drawn into all manner of contortions, and his cheeks of sallow, pumpkin-like hue, glistened with a fever heat of expectancy and greed. A more farcical public exhibition of feigned homage to a man on the part of people who were in the habit only a year ago, of cursing and reviling him, was never seen on any occasion. It was the hardest piece of work the Democracy of Harrisburg ever did. On their part it was all sham—while poor Greeley took it in earnest. We never in all our life saw so many men blush as blushed at this Greeley reception, and as the echoes of the whistle which signalled the train off in reverberations, the sound of a long-drawn breath issued from the crowd, as if every man present felt relieved that the humiliating spectacle was over.

We commend to the consideration of those Republicans who maintain or profess to maintain, that there is no necessary connection between the October and November elections in this State, the following passage from the New York World in relation to the matter in question: "If there is any Radical mad enough to fancy that his party can carry Pennsylvania in November for Grant, after losing Pennsylvania in October through Cameron and Hartranft, we stand the nature of the hazard at stake. They see that the loss or gain of Pennsylvania in October is the win-all or lose-all of the November battle. Not a single coalition paper in the country, from Maine to Texas, takes any other view of the case than this. By learning wisdom from their enemies, the Republicans of the State may achieve a magnificent victory. By persisting in a delusion, or failing to appreciate properly the momentous character of the struggle, the Republican party of the whole country may be brought into an irretrievable disaster. It is not the honor or shame of the Keystone State alone that are involved—it is the welfare or calamity of the nation.

From this time forward until the closing of the October polls the air will be darkened with swarms of falsehood and slander concerning the State candidates. Thus far, as is known to every intelligent and reflective mind, the Confederate campaign has been conducted on a basis of misrepresentation and calumny. It is true the shameless mendacities so industriously hatched and set afloat have, in every instance, been promptly met, refuted, and exposed. This, however, has not deterred their authors from pursuing their nefarious trade, but seems, on the contrary, to have rendered them more unscrupulous and venomous than ever. It is conceded by all that Pennsylvania is the national battle-ground, and the October election the national fight. All the available resources of the opposition have been concentrated here, and here their last and worst display of malice and vindictiveness, masked under pretensions and high-sounding names, will be made. Knowing the weakness of their cause and the vulnerability of their candidate, Buckalew's managers will try to distract attention by scattering their stink-pots of abuse on every hand. Old lies will be re-coined, old calumnies revived, old slanders revamped, and new detractions of every character set in motion. Let no man be deceived. The issues of the canvass, and the characters and records of the respective candidates, are before the people. The worst criticism has failed to reveal a flaw in the one—the most lenient judgment must confess that there is hardly a sound spot to be found in the other. Hartranft representing "honesty, efficiency and integrity," or Buckalew with his heel upon humanity and his broad back turned toward the sun. That is the choice.—Commercial.

We have for years held Mr. Greeley to be an ally of the Tammany Ring; therefore when he told the Baltimore Convention that in accepting their nomination he was "as much a Republican as ever" we believed him. Horace Greeley as a Democratic leader is where he belonged years ago; he is just as good a Republican as ever; and just as good an one as Horatio Seymour. At the same time, we didn't think he was a copperhead Democrat. But his swinging-around-the-circle speeches show he is that. At Pittsburgh he reiterated strong secession sentiments and lied about and reviled the Union Soldiers. At Newport, Kentucky, he went still deeper into the confederate mire apologized for the barbarities at Andersonville and Libby. Hear this new champion of the rebellion. "We should not wrong each other, we should not distrust each other, we should feel that we should not see any person dealt unjustly by. Even in this struggle I do not believe it was the policy of either party to set any prisoner dealt unjustly by. As a rule, I believe prisoners on both sides, the people meant that they should be treated with humanity, as far as they were able to treat them so. I think this was the spirit of the people."

We would like to see this infamous old liar stand up before a crowd of survivors of Belle Isle and Andersonville and say that. If Grant was not left without a competitor inside of fifteen minutes it would be because the boys had more respect, patriotism and decency than the grey-haired apostate who made this apology for the Dick Turners of the South. Does any one suppose, after these efforts to bid for Southern votes that Mr. Greeley would oppose any wish of the South if he were elected? No, he would be a more pliant tool of Southern and rebel schemes than Buchanan was. Of all Northern dough-faces Horace Greeley is the doughiest.—Derick.

—We always keep our stock full and complete in the following goods: Dry goods, clothing, boots and shoes, tinware, glassware, stoneware, drugs, and patent medicines. We also have a Tailoring Department, where you always find a full assortment of clothes and cassimeres, which we make up to order in the most fashionable styles. Call and examine our goods, styles and prices. We keep the Singer Improved Family Sewing Machine for sale at less than agent's prices. Singer's Sewing Machines take the precedence over all other machines; this company having sold over 50,000 more than any other make during last year, and 2,427 out of 2,944 furnished to the sufferers in Chicago were Singer machines—each person choosing their own machine. Also the Universal Clothes Wringer, the best, most durable and serviceable in use. Call and see us; our room is limited, but we have the goods and will think it no trouble to show them.

—We commend to the consideration of those Republicans who maintain or profess to maintain, that there is no necessary connection between the October and November elections in this State, the following passage from the New York World in relation to the matter in question: "If there is any Radical mad enough to fancy that his party can carry Pennsylvania in November for Grant, after losing Pennsylvania in October through Cameron and Hartranft, we stand the nature of the hazard at stake. They see that the loss or gain of Pennsylvania in October is the win-all or lose-all of the November battle. Not a single coalition paper in the country, from Maine to Texas, takes any other view of the case than this. By learning wisdom from their enemies, the Republicans of the State may achieve a magnificent victory. By persisting in a delusion, or failing to appreciate properly the momentous character of the struggle, the Republican party of the whole country may be brought into an irretrievable disaster. It is not the honor or shame of the Keystone State alone that are involved—it is the welfare or calamity of the nation.

From this time forward until the closing of the October polls the air will be darkened with swarms of falsehood and slander concerning the State candidates. Thus far, as is known to every intelligent and reflective mind, the Confederate campaign has been conducted on a basis of misrepresentation and calumny. It is true the shameless mendacities so industriously hatched and set afloat have, in every instance, been promptly met, refuted, and exposed. This, however, has not deterred their authors from pursuing their nefarious trade, but seems, on the contrary, to have rendered them more unscrupulous and venomous than ever. It is conceded by all that Pennsylvania is the national battle-ground, and the October election the national fight. All the available resources of the opposition have been concentrated here, and here their last and worst display of malice and vindictiveness, masked under pretensions and high-sounding names, will be made. Knowing the weakness of their cause and the vulnerability of their candidate, Buckalew's managers will try to distract attention by scattering their stink-pots of abuse on every hand. Old lies will be re-coined, old calumnies revived, old slanders revamped, and new detractions of every character set in motion. Let no man be deceived. The issues of the canvass, and the characters and records of the respective candidates, are before the people. The worst criticism has failed to reveal a flaw in the one—the most lenient judgment must confess that there is hardly a sound spot to be found in the other. Hartranft representing "honesty, efficiency and integrity," or Buckalew with his heel upon humanity and his broad back turned toward the sun. That is the choice.—Commercial.

We have for years held Mr. Greeley to be an ally of the Tammany Ring; therefore when he told the Baltimore Convention that in accepting their nomination he was "as much a Republican as ever" we believed him. Horace Greeley as a Democratic leader is where he belonged years ago; he is just as good a Republican as ever; and just as good an one as Horatio Seymour. At the same time, we didn't think he was a copperhead Democrat. But his swinging-around-the-circle speeches show he is that. At Pittsburgh he reiterated strong secession sentiments and lied about and reviled the Union Soldiers. At Newport, Kentucky, he went still deeper into the confederate mire apologized for the barbarities at Andersonville and Libby. Hear this new champion of the rebellion. "We should not wrong each other, we should not distrust each other, we should feel that we should not see any person dealt unjustly by. Even in this struggle I do not believe it was the policy of either party to set any prisoner dealt unjustly by. As a rule, I believe prisoners on both sides, the people meant that they should be treated with humanity, as far as they were able to treat them so. I think this was the spirit of the people."

AT CLARINGTON, Saturday Evening, Oct. 5, 1872.

A grand Republican meeting will be held at Clarington, on Saturday evening, Oct. 5th, and will be addressed by G. W. Andrews, one of the candidates for Constitutional Delegate from this District, and Dr. Heichhold of Brookville, and Miles W. Tate and W. P. Mercilliot, Esq., of Tionesta. Let everybody turn out and hear the truth in its purity, and be convinced who should properly be the standard-bearers of the State and Nation.

The County Committee have made arrangements for the following meetings: at Fagundus, Thursday Eve., Oct. 3d.

Speakers—W. E. Lathy, Esq., of Erie, and Miles W. Tate, Esq.

At East Hickory, Saturday Eve., Oct. 5th.

Samuel D. Irwin, Esq., and other competent speakers will be in attendance.

BEAVER College and Musical Institute Opens its Fall Session September 10, 1872.

Location accessible, healthful and beautiful. Rooms cheerful and comfortable. School homelike. Instruction thorough and earnest. Twenty boys received into Seminary Hall on moderate terms.

Rev. R. T. TAYLOR, President. S. C. CLARK, WATCH MAKER & JEWELER, TIDIOUTH, PA.

And Dealer in WATCHES, JEWELRY, AND MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS.

Repairing done in a workmanlike manner and warranted to give satisfaction. 41y

CONFECTIONARIES. JAS. McRAY, at the Post Office, has opened a choice lot of CONFECTIONARIES, CANNED FRUITS, TOBACCOS, CIGARS, AND NOTIONS OF ALL KINDS.

A portion of the patronage of the public is respectfully solicited. 40-41 JAS. M. McRAY.

READ! READ! The subscribers having re-rented the IRVINE GRIST MILLS.

Would say to their old customers, and the community generally, that they keep constantly on hand a large stock of FAMILY FLOUR of all grades, Chop Feed, Shorts, Bran, Oats and Corn. With our facilities for doing business, we purpose not to be undersold by any establishment in this section of the county, and would say to the lumbermen and dealers of Forest county, that they can be SUPPLIED CHEAPER and more promptly than from any other point, if attention given to all orders from a distance. E. JONES & CO.

INSURANCE CO. OF NORTH AMERICA, No. 221 Walnut St. Phila.

Incorporated 1794. Charter Perpetual MARINE, INLAND & FIRE INSURANCE

Assets Jan. 1, 1872, $2,348,323.30 $29,000,000 losses paid since its organization. WM. BEHLER, Central Agent, Harrisburg, Pa.

MILES W. TATE, Agent in Tionesta, Forest County, Pa. 8-6m

TIDIOUTH TEA STORE!

The place to buy every variety of the VERY BEST TEAS AT THE LOWEST PRICES, is at the extensive Tea Store of H. T. CHAFFEY, where you can always find a large assortment of the best Teas at New York prices. A large assortment of Groceries and Provisions, unexcelled in quality and cheapness by any other store in Warren county, always on hand. The people of Forest county will save money by purchasing their supplies at this place. Best brands of FAMILY FLOUR, delivered at any depot on the line of the R. R. free. Store on Main St. near the Depot. Profitable Employment.

We desire to engage a few more agents to sell the world-renowned improved Buckeye Sewing Machine, at a liberal salary or commission. A horse and wagon given to agents. Full particulars furnished on application. Address W. A. HENDERSON & CO., General Agents, Cleveland, O. or St. Louis, Mo. 34-41

CONSTITUTION OF PENNSYLVANIA. Joint resolution proposing an amendment to the Constitution of Pennsylvania. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, That the following amendment of the Constitution of this Commonwealth be proposed to the people for their adoption or rejection, pursuant to the provisions of the tenth article thereof, to-wit:

AMENDMENT: Strike out the sixth section of the sixth article of the Constitution, and insert in lieu thereof the following: "A State Treasurer shall be chosen by the qualified electors of the State, at such times and for such terms of service as shall be prescribed by law."

WILLIAM ELLIOTT, Speaker of the House of Representatives, JAMES S. HUTAN, Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—The twenty-second day of March, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two. JOHN W. GEARY.

Prepared and certified for publication pursuant to the Tenth Article of the Constitution. FRANCIS JORDAN, Secretary of the Commonwealth, Harrisburg, June 26th, 1872.

PENNSYLVANIA MILITARY ACADEMY. At Chester, Delaware County, Pa. (For Resident Cadets only.) The seventh annual session commences Wednesday, Sept. 3. Thorough instruction in Civil Engineering, the Mathematical and Natural Sciences. The Classics and English is imparted by W. Paul, graduates of our best New England schools, have been employed for several years. Inquire of Evan T. Swayne, Sallie W. Swayne, Principals.

Eaton Female Institute. On Phila. & Balt. Central R. R. Kennett square, Chester Co., Pa., offers all the inducements that constitute a home in connection with a thorough English Education, at $148 per school year. No extras except for instruction in Wax, Music, Latin, French, German, Painting and Drawing. Eastern teachers, graduates of our best New England schools, have been employed for several years. Inquire of Evan T. Swayne, Sallie W. Swayne, Principals.

BORDENTOWN (N. J.) FEMALE COLLEGE.—Thorough instruction. Healthful and beautiful location. One of the finest in the country. Graduates of our best New England schools, have been employed for several years. Inquire of Evan T. Swayne, Sallie W. Swayne, Principals.

ADVERTISING AT LOW RATES! For $5 per inch per Month, we will insert an advertisement in the First-Class Papers in Pennsylvania. List sent on application to GEO. P. BOWELL & CO., Advertising Agents, 41 Park Row, N. Y.

CAMPAIGN GOODS FOR 1872. Agents wanted for our Campaign goods. Sell at sight. Pay 100 per cent. profit. Now is the time. Send at once for Descriptive Circulars and Price Lists of our Fine Steel Engravings of all the Candidates, Campaign Biographies, Charts, Photographs, Badges, Pins, Flags, and everything suited to the times. Ten Dollars per day easily made. Full samples sent for $2. Address MOORE & GOODE, 57 Park Row, New York. 19-4.

AGENTS WANTED FOR CHAMBERLAIN'S GREAT CAMPAIGN BOOK, THE STRUGGLE OF 1872; A novel in Political and Popular Literature. A Graphic History of the Republican and Democratic Parties; a racy sketch of the so-called Liberal Republican Party; an inside view of the Cincinnati Convention. The minor tickets or side shows of the campaign. The finest Illustrated Book Published. A Book wanted by every American citizen. To secure territory at once, send $1 for outfit. Union Publishing Co., Chicago, Ill., Phila., Pa., or Springfield, Mass. 19-4.

POLITICAL GOODS OF ALL KINDS. Fireworks, Flags, Lanterns, Torches, Badges, Uniforms, &c., &c. JOSEPH B. PURDY, 32 and 34 Maiden Lane, N. Y. Established 1843.

EPILEPSY OR FITS. A SURE CURE for this distressing complaint is now made known in a Treatise of 62 octavo pages on Foreign and Native Herbal Preparations, published by Dr. O. Phelps Brown. The prescription was discovered by him in such a providential manner that he cannot conscientiously refuse to make it known, as it has cured everybody who has used it for Fits, never having failed in a single case. The ingredients may be obtained from any druggist. A copy will be sent free to all applicants by mail. Address Dr. O. Phelps Brown, 21 Grand St., Jersey City, N. J. 21-4

EICHLER'S RECIPES FOR LIQUORS. Contain the latest improved instructions for mixing Brandy, Whiskeys, Rums, Gins, Bitters, Fancy Cordons, Fruit Syrups, Bay Rum, &c., &c. No one engaged in the liquor business can afford to do without them. Ask for them and examine them at the book-stores. Delivered by mail, on receipt of $2 by Aschenbach & Miller, N. W. cor. 3d and Callowhill Sts., Philadelphia, Pa. Index and sample sheets sent free.

TARRANT'S SELTZER WATER. Nothing like it in medicine. A luxury to the palate, a painless evacuant, a gentle stimulant to the circulation, a perspiratory preparation, an anti-bilious medicine, a stomachic, a diuretic and an admirably general alterative. Such are the acknowledged and daily proven properties of Tarrant's Effervescent Seltzer Aperient. 16-4 SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS.

BARLOW'S INDIGO BLUE. Is the cheapest and best article in the market for Blueing Clothes. The genuine has both Barlow's and Wilberger's name on the label, and is put up at Wilberger's Drug Store, No. 25, North Second Street, Philadelphia. D. S. WILBERGER, Proprietor. For sale by Druggists and Grocers. 16-4.

$1,000 REWARD. For any case of Blind, Bleeding, Itching or Ulcerated Piles that Defying the Best Medical fails to cure. It is prepared expressly to cure the Piles, and nothing else. Sold by all Druggists. Price, $1.00. 13-4

AGENTS WANTED.—Agents make more money at work for us than at anything else. Particulars free. G. Stinson & Co., Fine Art Publishers, Portland, Maine. 16-4

ADWAY'S READY RELIEF. CURED THE WORST PAIN IN FROM ONE TO TWENTY MINUTES. NOT ONE HOUR. ADWAY'S READY RELIEF IS A GREAT FOR ALL PAIN. THE ONLY PAIN REMEDY. It is the only remedy that cures all pains, such as rheumatism, neuralgia, toothache, headache, and all other pains, in from one to twenty minutes. It is the only remedy that cures all pains, such as rheumatism, neuralgia, toothache, headache, and all other pains, in from one to twenty minutes. It is the only remedy that cures all pains, such as rheumatism, neuralgia, toothache, headache, and all other pains, in from one to twenty minutes.

ADWAY'S READY RELIEF. CURED THE WORST PAIN IN FROM ONE TO TWENTY MINUTES. NOT ONE HOUR. ADWAY'S READY RELIEF IS A GREAT FOR ALL PAIN. THE ONLY PAIN REMEDY. It is the only remedy that cures all pains, such as rheumatism, neuralgia, toothache, headache, and all other pains, in from one to twenty minutes. It is the only remedy that cures all pains, such as rheumatism, neuralgia, toothache, headache, and all other pains, in from one to twenty minutes.

ADWAY'S READY RELIEF. CURED THE WORST PAIN IN FROM ONE TO TWENTY MINUTES. NOT ONE HOUR. ADWAY'S READY RELIEF IS A GREAT FOR ALL PAIN. THE ONLY PAIN REMEDY. It is the only remedy that cures all pains, such as rheumatism, neuralgia, toothache, headache, and all other pains, in from one to twenty minutes. It is the only remedy that cures all pains, such as rheumatism, neuralgia, toothache, headache, and all other pains, in from one to twenty minutes.

ADWAY'S READY RELIEF. CURED THE WORST PAIN IN FROM ONE TO TWENTY MINUTES. NOT ONE HOUR. ADWAY'S READY RELIEF IS A GREAT FOR ALL PAIN. THE ONLY PAIN REMEDY. It is the only remedy that cures all pains, such as rheumatism, neuralgia, toothache, headache, and all other pains, in from one to twenty minutes. It is the only remedy that cures all pains, such as rheumatism, neuralgia, toothache, headache, and all other pains, in from one to twenty minutes.

ADWAY'S READY RELIEF. CURED THE WORST PAIN IN FROM ONE TO TWENTY MINUTES. NOT ONE HOUR. ADWAY'S READY RELIEF IS A GREAT FOR ALL PAIN. THE ONLY PAIN REMEDY. It is the only remedy that cures all pains, such as rheumatism, neuralgia, toothache, headache, and all other pains, in from one to twenty minutes. It is the only remedy that cures all pains, such as rheumatism, neuralgia, toothache, headache, and all other pains, in from one to twenty minutes.

ADWAY'S READY RELIEF. CURED THE WORST PAIN IN FROM ONE TO TWENTY MINUTES. NOT ONE HOUR. ADWAY'S READY RELIEF IS A GREAT FOR ALL PAIN. THE ONLY PAIN REMEDY. It is the only remedy that cures all pains, such as rheumatism, neuralgia, toothache, headache, and all other pains, in from one to twenty minutes. It is the only remedy that cures all pains, such as rheumatism, neuralgia, toothache, headache, and all other pains, in from one to twenty minutes.

ADWAY'S READY RELIEF. CURED THE WORST PAIN IN FROM ONE TO TWENTY MINUTES. NOT ONE HOUR. ADWAY'S READY RELIEF IS A GREAT FOR ALL PAIN. THE ONLY PAIN REMEDY. It is the only remedy that cures all pains, such as rheumatism, neuralgia, toothache, headache, and all other pains, in from one to twenty minutes. It is the only remedy that cures all pains, such as rheumatism, neuralgia, toothache, headache, and all other pains, in from one to twenty