LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

-S. D. Irwin has the frame of his new house raised, and will enclose it

-J. W. Stroup has his new house enclosed, and it presents quite a neat appearance on the hitherto clear field in which it is built.

-Wm. Harlan flies the stars and stripes from a hickory pole in front of his residence, notwithstanding the late Republican triumph in the State.

-Dr. Winans has completed his new fence clear around his premises, and they look much better for the improvement.

-S. H. Haslet has concluded not to finish his new residence until next summer, when he will put the finishing Democrat. We have only space for touches on it and move in.

-There were services in both the Methodist and Presbyterian churches on Sunday last; something which has not occurred before in a long time.

-Geo. Hunter was quite seriously out of place.

-Capt. Knox has rented the South hope, lots of money.

-A young man named Gahan has been prostrated with typhoid fever at the house of J. Y. Saul, for a few weeks. We hear that his condition is improving.

STATE SENATE.

trict, which is composed of Clarion, Armstrong, Jefferson and Forest,-David is elected. As a natural consequence, Brown is defeated. And "a madder man you never saw." We wish we had a thousand extras of the last issue of the Democrat, so we could send one out to each of our subscribers, that they might see and appreciate the sublime wrath of Brown. His paper (which we suppose now "is not an organ,") is just frothing like a thousand bottles of "pop" with the corks and Theo. Wilson, and makes some lows: very unbeautiful remarks about both of these gentlemen. We don't suppose either of them will ever be able to hold up his head again among the honest voters of this Senatorial district. And why? Because McClay, didn't promise to smash the navigation company, nor to get an appropriation for the Carrier Seminary, was elected over Brown, who did promise these things and, we have reason to believe, a score of other things which he could not do. One thing, however, before winter if the weather permits. looks bad for Brown, viz: The Democrats in Clarion county did not give their usual majority on the ticket labelled State Senate. So popular a man as Mr. Brown was (according to the Clarion Democrat) should at least his county, and we are surprised that ble. the Domeratic candidate, with his paper filled with his praises for weeks past, the immense circulation it has, and the profound influence it exerts, all working together, could not scrape up a larger Democratic majority for State Senator. Mr. Brown explains one extract, which is a sample of the Radicals made an extraordinary effort to elect McClay, and secure a vote for Cameron. All old Simon's tactics were resorted to. Money, whisky, lying, forgery, cheating, colonization injured in a scuffile, on Wednesday of and hold bribery were the order of the last week. We hear that two of his day everywhere, and weak men went ribs were broken and his shoulder put down like grain before the storm. Scores of cases have already been reported to us where money was openly offered for votes. The managers of room of Robinson & Bonner's part of the navigation company worked unthe new building, for a tin shop, and ceasingly to deceive the lumbermen he makes a good deal of noise, and we and the officers of certain railroads came down to the work with a will that showed the interest they felt in McClay.

-About the "thinest" excuse we see for the defeat of Buckalew, is that the "Radicals" imported 40,000 negroes from Maryland into Pennsylvania on election day, all of whom voted for been more bitter in his opposition to Hartranft than any Democratic paper We present the official returns of in the State, and who undoubtedly Hartranft was elected by a fair vote of the people of Pennsylvania, but, attributes it to the influence exerted by the coming Presidential election. We think this much more sepsible than erying "fraud, corruption, money, colonization," &c. It is our opinion that the Democracy was never injured much in that particular direction, as they can poll more votes with fewer voters than any party thet ever had an existence. Wait until the Presidential election, and if there are enough negroes to go around, we will import about 60,000 for this State.

-A jubilee took place in town on Saturday night last, over the Republican victories in the county and State. The cannon was fired off, a large bonand a general good time had. We don't suppose the people in any porthe result of the election than the peo- nia and the Territories; and passenple of this county.
