Our Appearance.

An apology is due to our patrons, for our appearance in half-sheet form this week. The editor is still absent, and we have been so unfortunate as to fall ill, from a severe attack of cold. We have made diligent efforts to get help from abroad, but without success. We have done our best in sending this sheet out, and would not have issued at all, had it not been for advertisements which must appear in order to make them legal. Next week the paper will contain its usual amount of local and miscellaneous matter, as the editor will then have returned.

Dr. J. H. Douglass, of Tidouite will be in Tionesta on Monday, Nov. 4th, and will remain three days. He will be prepared to save the worst of decayed teeth and roots, where the crowns are nearly gone. He will also be prepared to administer Chloroform, Ether and Nitrous Gas. Give him a call. Rooms at the Holmes House.

HOW TO GO WEST.

This is an enquiry which every one should have truthfully answered before he starts on his journey, and a little care taken in examination of Routes will in many cases save much trouble, time and money.

The "C. B. & Q. RR." running from Chicago, through Galzburg to Burlington, and the "I. B. & W. Route," running from Indianapolis, through Bloomington to Burlington, have achieved a splendid reputation in the last two years as the leading Passenger Routes to the West. At Burlington they connect with the B. & M. R. R. and form the great Burlington Route, which runs direct through Southern Iowa to Nebraska and Kansas, with close connections to California and the Territories; and passengers starting from Tionesta, on their way westward, cannot do better than to take the Burlington Route.

This Line has published a pamphlet called "How to go West," which contains much valuable information; a large correct map of the Great West, which can be obtained free of charge by addressing the General Passenger Agent B. & M. R. R., Burlington, Iowa.

Teachers' Examinations.

DIED.

HOLEMAN.—On the 28th day of October, 1872, in President township Venango Co., Pa. Martha Jane, wife of Richard Holeman, aged 29 years, 5 months and 15 days.

Mrs. Holeman was a daughter of William and Mary A. Scott, of Mill village, Erie Co., Pa. She experienced religion when only about fifteen years of age, and joined the M. E. Church. Her consistent and christian life won for her many friends who now mourn her loss. The hope of immortality and eternal life that cheered and supported her through her sufferings and enabled her to exhort her husband and friends to meet her in Heaven, is another proof that that religion which teaches us how to live, will also teach us how to die. A very appropriate funeral discourse was delivered by Elder Lloyd, of Tionesta.

Over the river I'm going,
Beyond where the peary gates stand;
Over the cold, icy billows,
To live in a fair, sunny land;
My Father has built me a mansion
More precious than silver and gold;
Yes, over the river I'm going,
To where there are pleasures untold.
The angels there will welcome me,
With harps and crowns of gold;
Yes, over the river I'm going,
To where there are pleasures untold.
