Shades of Switzerland! One of the most beautiful incidents contained in the dull old school books shattered at one blast from the Swiss Historical Society! Why is it that some old fogies must dispel all the romance that history contains? It was but a short time ago that we read a statement that the great speech of Patrick Henry, at the outbreak of the American Revolution, was all a myth, and was written by his biographer; that Pat. was an Irishman with some good sense, but was entirely uneducated and had never constructed a grammatical sentence in his life. We suppose the next thing on the carpet will be that the story about Geo. Washington and his little hatchet, was a put up job, and never happened; that "in those days" there were no hatchets, and everybody used was an uncompromising patriot; that Patrick Henry was a soul-stirring orator, or that Geo. Washington was a truthful boy as he was a great man? Now for pity's sake muzzle all these societies who are bound to make out that there is no truth in any of the
