

The Watson Robbery near Titusville—A Bold Outrage.

About six o'clock Saturday evening a party supposed to consist of nine men, unknown, committed a bold robbery at the house of Mr. John Watson, near Titusville, on the Pleasantville road. The robbers entered the house while the family were at supper, and bound and gagged the four members present. They then forced Mr. Watson to open his safe, and abstracted therefrom between one and two thousand dollars. After this successful financial venture they compelled the entire family to accompany them to the different rooms and watch them ransack everything that could be supposed to contain valuables. Not finding anything of particular value, they blindfolded Mrs. Watson and her daughter, bound their hands and feet together, and tied them to a sofa. Not satisfied with this they attached a line to the stove and around their persons, so that any attempt made by the ladies to escape would upset the stove and fire the house. The robbers had heretofore acted leisurely, but on leaving the house some confusion occurred, in which the lamp was overturned, and the kitchen set on fire. One of the men very considerately extinguished the flames and saved the lives of the inmates. The gang disappeared and nothing has since been seen of them. About eleven o'clock Mr. Stewart, a member of the family, went home from the city and found them bound and gagged as left by the robbers. Without waiting to liberate them he returned and notified Chief of Police Rouse, who, with a number of the force, repaired to Watson's house, and liberated the inmates. They had all suffered much from ill-treatment and Mrs. Stewart especially is in a critical condition. As yet not the faintest clue of the robbers has been found, and it is probable that ere this they are safe in some of the larger cities. The gang seem to have known that Mr. Watson had money in the house, and to be well acquainted with the premises, as they had irons and ropes ready to secure every member of the household. They were all masked, and each one carried a revolver and club.

The citizens of Titusville are greatly excited over this bold outrage so near the city, and on Saturday could talk of little else. Every one had a theory to advance which of course touched everything but the right one. The police are using every effort to secure the marauders, and may succeed, but success is doubtful.

It seems that there has been a gang operating throughout the oil country of late, more especially in the lower districts. During the suspension engine houses were robbed of everything movable, and only last week a sewing machine agent was waylaid between Fairview and Petrolia, and robbed of seventy dollars. These outrages were doubtless committed by the same gang. They will, of course, keep shady till the excitement cools off, but it would be well for all to keep a sharp lookout and have all suspicious characters promptly removed.—Derriek.

An Address by the United States Centennial Commission.

To the People of the United States: The Congress of the United States has enacted that the completion of the One Hundredth Year of American independence shall be celebrated by an International Exhibition of the Arts, Manufactures, and Products of the Soil and Mine, to be held at Philadelphia, in 1876, and has appointed a Commission, consisting of representatives from each State and Territory to conduct the celebration.

Originating under the auspices of the National Legislature, controlled by a National Commission, and designed as it is to "Commemorate the first Century of our existence, by an Exhibition of the Natural resources of the Country and their development, and of our progress in those Arts which benefit mankind, in comparison with those of older nations," it is to the people at large that the Commission look for the aid which is necessary to make the Centennial Celebration the grandest anniversary the world has ever seen.

That the completion of the first century of our existence should be marked by some imposing demonstration, we believe, the patriotic wish of the people of the whole country. The Congress of the United States has wisely decided that the Birth Day of the Great Republic can be most fittingly celebrated by the universal collection and display of all the trophies of its progress. It is designed to gather, with in a building covering fifty acres, not only the varied productions of our mines and of the soil, but the types of all the intellectual triumphs of our citizens, specimens of everything that America can furnish, whether from the brains or hands of her children, and thus make evident to the world the advancement of which a self-governed people is capable.

In this "Celebration" all nations will be invited to participate; its character being International. Europe will display her arts and manufactures, India her curiosities, and Japan will lay bare the treasures which for centuries their ingenious people have been perfecting. Each land will compete in generous rivalry for the palm of superior excellence.

To this grand gathering every one will contribute its fruits and cereals. No mineral shall be wanting; for what the East lacks the West will supply. Under one roof will the South display in rich luxuriance her growing cotton, and the North in miniature, the ceaseless machinery of her mills converting that cotton into cloth. Each section of the globe will send its best offerings to this exhibition, and each State of the Union, as a member of one united body politic, will show to her sister States and to the world, how much she can add to the greatness of the nation of which she is a harmonious part.

To make the Centennial Celebration such a success as the patriotism and pride of every American demands will require the co-operation of the people of the whole country. The United States Centennial Commission has received no Government aid, such as England extended to her World's Fair, and France to her Universal Exposition, yet the labor and responsibility imposed upon the Commission is as great as in either of those undertakings. It is estimated that ten millions of dollars will be required, and this sum Congress has provided shall be raised by stock subscription, and that the people shall have the opportunity of subscribing in proportion to the population of their respective States and Territories.

The Commission looks to the unflinching patriotism of the people of every section, to see that each contributes its share to the expenses, and receives its share of the benefits of an enterprise in which all are so deeply interested. It would further earnestly urge the formation in each State and Territory of a centennial organization, which shall in time see that county associations are formed, so that when the nations are gathered together in 1876 each Commonwealth can view with pride the contributions she has made to the national glory.

Confidently relying on the zeal and patriotism ever displayed by our people in every national undertaking, we pledge our prophesy, that the Centennial Celebration will gloriously show how greatness, wealth and intelligence, can be fostered by such institutions as those which have for one hundred years blessed the people of the United States.

JOSEPH R. HAWLEY, President.

Thanksgiving Proclamation.

In the name and by the authority of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, John W. Geary, Governor.

Believing in the Lord our covenant God, in whom our fathers trusted, and in His controlling Providence over the affairs of men and nations, a public acknowledgment of His goodness, and our constant dependence on Him, is eminently becoming an enlightened and civilized people.

Now, therefore, impressed with these sentiments, in pursuance of a revered custom, and in conformity with the Proclamation of Ulysses S. Grant, President of the United States, recommend Thursday, the Twenty-Eighth day of November next be set apart as a day of Praise, Prayer and Thanksgiving.

I, John W. Geary, Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, do most respectfully request the citizens of this State to observe that day as such, with all due respect and solemnity.

Let thanks be given to Almighty God, that He has bestowed upon us the common blessings of life, given us health, and relieved us from pestilence; that labor is abundantly rewarded; that we have no dread of impending famine, or fear of industrial or commercial distress; that the arts, sciences, general education, and sentiments of peace and good will are steadily advancing. Let us be especially thankful for the great privileges of American citizenship; for the untrammeled expression of opinion, that our political rights still remain safe under beneficent laws, and in the hands of an order-loving people, and that "equal and exact justice" is vouchsafed to all. For these, and for every civil, social and religious blessing we enjoy, let us yield the sincere tribute of grateful hearts, and humbly beseech their continuance.

Given under my Hand and the Great Seal of the State, at Harrisburg, this twenty-eighth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, and of the Commonwealth the thirty-seventh.

JOHN W. GEARY, Governor.

GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINES.

The following are selected from thousands of testimonials of similar character, as expressing the reasons for the preference of the Grover & Baker Machines over all others.

"I like the Grover & Baker Machine, in the first place, because if I had any other, I should still want a Grover & Baker; and having a Grover & Baker it answers the purpose of all the rest. It does a greater variety of work and is easier to learn than any other."—Mrs. J. C. Crosby (Jeany June).

"I have had several years' experience with the Grover & Baker Machine, which has given me great satisfaction. I think the Grover & Baker Machine is more easily managed, and less liable to get out of order, than any other I have used."—Mrs. Dr. Watts, New York.

"I have had one in my family for some two years, and from what I know of its workings, and from the testimony of many of my friends who use the same, I can hardly see how anything could be more complete or give better satisfaction."—Mrs. Gen. Grant.

"I believe it to be the best, all things considered, of any that I have known. It is very simple and easily learned; the sewing from the ordinary spools is a great advantage; the stitch is entirely reliable; it does ornamental work, and is not liable to get out of order."—Mrs. A. M. Spencer, 30 Bond St., Brooklyn.

"I am acquainted with the work of the principal makers, and I prefer the Grover & Baker to them all, because I consider the Grover & Baker the best in the house which was done nine years ago which is still good."—Mrs. Dr. McCready, No. 43 East 2nd Street, N. Y.

"More than two-thirds of all the sewing done in my family for the last two years has been done by Grover & Baker's Machine, and I never had a garment rip or need mending, except those rare and troublesome boys will make in whole cloth. It is, in my opinion, by far the most valuable of any I have tried."—Mrs. Henry Ward Beecher.

"The Grover & Baker Sewing Machine has rendered in every respect, the most perfect service. It is known to many advantages with beauty of execution and economy in price that it is a necessity in every household."—Mrs. Governor Geary, Harrisburg, Pa.

"I had the Grover & Baker Machine for ten or twelve years in constant use in my house. I have known every kind of Family sewing, both personal and household, accomplished up to the Grover & Baker Machine, to the entire satisfaction of all concerned."—Rev. Stephen H. Tyng.
