The derrick is the house that Jack built.

The oil is the malt that lies in the house that Jack built.

The refiner is the cat that eats the rat that invades the stores that lie in the house that Jack reared. The Press is the dog that werries the cat, that feeds on the rat, that gnaws on the sack, that lies in the domicil reared by Jack.

"Rezoloot" is the cow with broken horn, that tessed the dog with pointed tooth that worried the cat that indulged on the rat, that dined on the malt embalmed in sacks that lies in the mansion built by Jack. The Association is the maiden so weak and forlorn who milked the boving with a twisted horn, that tossed the dog like a bag of corn, that troubled poor pussy's demestic peace, that troubled the rat that fed on grease, that lay in the tenement that Jack built.

The Agency is the priest with pomp and form, that married the maiden so fair and forlorn, that received the Incteal from old Crumple Horn, that tossed the deg with rage and scorn, that broke the back of pussy cat, that made a meal off the ravenous rat, that ate the riches stored in fat, that lay in the house that Jack framed.

And the "bulls and bears" they roared in the morn when the shaven priest with pomp and form had married the maiden so sad and forlorn, that took care of the milk from Twisted Horn, that charged on the dog with "rezoloet', scorn, that kept the feline in a troubled mind, that hashed the rat with felonious fangs that invaded the riches in plethoric sack, that lay in the mansion reared by Jack .- Tidioute Journal.

-The Pittsburgh Commercial says that we learn, from Harrisburg, that it is the intention of Governor Hartranft to sift, closely, the mass of special legislation put into his hands for approval, and to send back to the legwhich are either unnecessary or unwise. The new Secretary of the Commonwealth and Attorney General are scrutinizing bills keenly, and any at tempts to sneak through questionable bills will be met with an attention too vigilant to be overcome. This is as it To orders drawn should be. The people will stand by the Governor in his course. The present winter has been looked to, To orders drawn by some, as the last and best opportunity that they are likely to enjoy for passing bills for their own priyate benefit; and the state at large will be glad to hear of the probability of their disapointment.
