CLIPS.

Conceiving that our climate has permanently changed, and that henceforth we may expect to be visited by severe winters, an extensive New York builder proposes to fit houses in future to be crected by him with double window sashes, to be put on in winter, as in Canada and other cold countries. A great saving in fuel is effected by such fittings.

Mark Twain has written a lecture, which he proposes to deliver at $200. or so, a night, on his rights to the vacant Sandwich Island throne. He lays no claim to kingship with the de-ceased King Kamehameha, but rests his title in the fact that he has no other means of support.

Kansas has made itself nearly bankrupt by its lavish assistance to railway projects. Over $8,000,000 in bends have already been issued by counties and precincts, and in some instances the railroad debt exceeds the assessed valuation of all the land in ly, and in style equal to that of any the precinct or county.

Bishop Gilbert Haven finds three large Protestant congregations in the city of Mexico and wants a dozen ministers there right off. He is much delighted to find 'a company of singers gathered in the smen corner, going as loud as they could in real Methodist airs."

As some people are getting hysterical over what they call the inauguration expenses of the nation, it should be known that Congress don't appropriste a cent for inauguration, and the whole expenditure is paid out of the pockets of the people of the city of Washington.

The outery is general in New England against the severity of the winter. "For fifty years," say they who watch the vagaries of the thermometer with interest, and whose ideas run smoothly along isothermal lines, "no winter has been so rigorous."

A section of plastering about the size of a bed quilt fell on the heads of a group of State Senators, who occupied seats together in a Nashville theatre, the other evening. The frightened legislators thought an investigation was at hand.

Here is the champion girl. Just out of school, down in Mississippi, hired a few negroes last season, and undertook to carry on the farm at her homestead. Result : Eight bins pota-tatoss, six 'hundred bushels corn. Smart girl that.

Three nights in opera in Chicago last week resulted in taking $17,800, This sum must be multiplied several times to show what these three nights of opera cost those who went. And moeny is tight in Chicago !
