Time of Trains

ALTONESTA STATION, on and after Monday, November 4th, 1872:

Table with columns for Train No., Direction, and Time. Includes Southward and Northward routes.

Passengers will have to understand that "Northward" in the table is down the river and "Southward" is up the river.

LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

Rev. J. S. Stewart, of Oakdale, Pa., will preach in the Presbyterian Church of this place on Sunday, the 16th inst.

H. W. Roberts and sister are at present enjoying vacation at home. They have for some months been attending the Carrier Seminary.

Some Western editor describing the money market in his town, describes the state here just about now. He says "Money is close; but not close enough to be reached."

Horace Lingard's Troupe are to give an entertainment in the Opera House in Titusville to-morrow evening. This is one of the very best comedy troupes traveling.

It is reported that Mr. H. H. May is to erect a building between the bank and the church during the spring, and that Hilbrunner & Co. will occupy it as a store.

A bill has passed the house authorizing Forest County to borrow $3,000.00 for the purpose of building the bridges across the creek at this point and at Laeytown.

A culvert, arch, or run way, has been built under the railroad bridge across Hunter's Run, and an embankment is being built there to take the place of the trestles. A good idea.

Mr. Rowland Cobb, late of the lumber firm of John Cobb & Sons, has purchased the residence of J. B. Agnew, on Helen St., and will move in a few days. We welcome all such.

We learn from the Titusville Herald that Col. J. H. Cogswell's re-appointment as post-master of that city has been confirmed by the Senate. So far as we have heard, Col. Cogswell is a popular and efficient officer.

As soon as the creek is in shape to run lumber, Knox's Mill will be started up, and lumber will be manufactured as well, and furnished as cheap here as elsewhere. Geo. Sawyer will run the door, sash and blind part of the machinery.

J. H. Bowman, Esq., erst editor of Petrolum Monthly, was in town on Saturday last. His time was limited, hence he did not call upon us. The Petrolum Monthly is taking a rest until July, during which time Mr. Bowman is getting up a history of the Oil Regions. We should judge that he could get up a very readable book upon the subject.

All the ice which, previous to the soft weather, was distributed between here and Warren, is now gorged between this place and Hickory. It is one great gorge, and if it goes off sudden great destruction of property will ensue. The gorge is so high in some places that the R. R. track cannot be seen from the bank on this side of the river. If the ice is melted slowly away all will be safe; but if it goes out with rain, then stand for under.

TOTALLY WRECKED.

Yesterday morning Mr. J. D. W. Reck made up his mind to go to the depot, and accordingly started, on the ice. He hadn't progressed far until he changed his mind, by reason of the ice giving way beneath him.

At a court held in Warren last week Judge J. A. Dale got a judgment of $2,400 against the P. & E. R. R., for injuries received in August, 1870, while a passenger on that road, the particulars of which our readers are familiar with.

No action has yet been taken on the question of a fire-engine, and no more time should be lost. Geo. Sawyer has received an offer of a first-rate hand engine for $600. He is acquainted with the machine, and says it is a good one, and cheap at the price.

Sheaff Van Gieson, J. W. Stroup and Quill McClintock have taken the job of running most of the lumber of Jno. Cobb & Son and Bond Brothers, on the Tionesta creek, to deliver the same in Pittsburgh, and Leonard Agnew is running Cobb's lumber on the Clarion River.

To show how lumber is being manufactured in the forests about here, we give the following day's work at Thom's Run Mill, owned and run by Jno. Cobb & Son: In one day last week they took from the stump, hauled to the mill, sawed, hauled to the bank of Clarion River, and piled 18,000 feet of lumber.

On Saturday last a case of more than ordinary interest came up before Justice J. D. Porter, before whom a preliminary hearing was had. James Rafferty, of Washington tp., had three indictments preferred against him— one for assault and battery of his wife, the second for refusing to support her, and the third for burning the mill of T. J. Payne, in Farmington tp., in September, 1871.

The best stock of Watches, Clocks, Jewelry and Silverware in Oil City can be found at J. Wolf's, Centre St. Particular attention paid the repairing of fine Watches. Orders by mail promptly attended to.

The ferry across the river at Hickory Station has been purchased by W. M. Church, who holds himself in readiness to take passengers, teams, freight, &c., across the river at all hours of the day or night.

The lightest running Machine in the world is the Grover & Baker, at least Baldwin, of Tidonite says so, and he knows.

A WORD TO THE WISE, &c.

The many and great advantages of the Domestic Sewing Machine, and the large range of work which it is capable of doing, renders it the most popular machine ever offered to the public.

We take great pleasure in calling the attention of our readers to the advertisement of this invaluable aid to house-hold labor; and advise all in want of a first-class machine to call and examine the "Domestic."
