The editor of the Lancaster express tells this story, but he never writes under oath : "A wife of nearly ten years, having given her servants a holiday, was attending to culinary matters herself, and hearing her husband coming in the kitchen thought she would surprise him as soon as he entered the door by throwing her hauds over his eyes and imprinting a kiss on his brow as in the days of the honeymoon. The husband returned the salute with interest and said, as he disengaged her hands, "Mary darling, where is your mistress?" The wife dis-charged 'Mary, darling,' the next day, and now adopts a new plan of surpris-ing her husband."

The new code of California establishes such complete equality in the marriage state, and co does away with the old notion that a man and his wife are one flesh, that the two can contract with and sue each other the same as if they had never been married. The marriage of minors changes their status from minors to aduits, and so infants may jump at once into that delightful state of liability to sue and be sued which the wisdom of their loving parents has prepared for them.

According to the Independent, the Rev. Mr. Globe, the Baptist mission-ary who has recently translated the Gospel into Japanese, has rendored the word "baptize" by a word which, while it means in one sense "immerse," means almost always to "soak." John the Baptist, therefore, appears to the Japanese as John the Soaker, and the last verse in Matthew reads: "Go ye, therefore, and teach all nations, soaking them in thy name," &c.

A South American reporter has got the start of us now by stating that the oldest man in the world has at length been discovered. His name is Jose Martine Continho, a resident of Cape Frio, in the province of Rio Janeiro, Brazil, who was born on the 20th of May, 1694, and is therfore nearly 194 years old! It is said that he has fortytwo children by six wives, and can count 123 grandchildren, and twenty children of the last.

An exchange, says Mr. Jones' of Oshkosh, Ind., heard it intimated on the street the other day that he was henpecked. He went home and thrashed his wife tore up two or three dresses, opened all the doors and windows in her house, and sat down in the parlor with his feet on the centre to die, among a collection of choice books, and smoked his pipe. He thinks that the world is convinced now that he is boss of that ranche.

A correspondent of the Erie Gazette says that Daniel Cruil caught a fine deer last week near Irvineton, and Frank Blodget caught one on Saturday near Youngsville. "Dogs had driven it in," and when it came on the ice it was too much excited to keep from slipping down. Frank said he "tried to get hold of both his legs, but found one was buisness enough." He procured a rope, and the deer now has a whole cow stable to itself.

One day last week, near Marysville, Cal., a thirty-pound wildcat robbed Miss Leonore Methuen (age sixteen) of a pet lamb, when that heroic young lady buckled on her little pistol and persued the cruel monster, and with the assistance of a dog treed the animal in a live oak, when she scientifically shot him through the head. Who will say after this that California girls cau't shoot?

We are surprised to learn from the Enquirer that "Ben Wade's handsome NOT daughter is bound to marry a poor carpenter." The latest returns do not show that Mr. Wade had a daughter, and we fear that the "poor carpenter" will therefore make a very indifferent joiner.
