Thirty years ago a young man en-tered the city of New York in an almost penniless condition, and without a single acquaintance in the great wilderness of houses. To-day his name is known wherever humanity breathes. It is spoken in every city, and is as familiar to the workers in the mines as to his brother in the mills, and wherever language is known and ideas expressed the name of this penniless, unknown and uncouth lad of thirty years ago, is uttered. It was John Smith.

This is the way the Danbury News speeks of that everlasting old grumbler: "Where is that elderly scamp who has howled for the last sixty-three years for an old fashioned winter? Where is th old reptile, that we can get at him? How we would like to run him through a planing mill, run by ice water, and cut him open with a snow-plough, and fill him with snow-balls, and sew him up with an icicle. and strap him to the north pole until the Spring rains release him.

A very handsomely dressed young man who was waiting at his horse's head for his girl, Sunday afternoon, and desired to demonstrate to the watching neighbors how familiar he could be with such an animal, put the head of the noble beast in his bosom, and just then the animal sneezed, and -well anybody who has seen a horse sheeze can picture to himself the state of that shirt bosom, and collar, and vest, just as well as one of the old masters could do it.—Danbury News.

An English critic thinks he is justified in saying that America is begining to have a characteristic literature of her own. The apostles of this very desirable thing are, according to this wise person, Walt Whiteman, Mark Twain, Joaquin Miller, and Bret Hart. And when, he says, "the history of America literature comes to be written, the name of Samuel Langhorne Clemens will be mentioned among its founders.

Of these twelve Irishmen, nine are or were genuine Americans, two are Scotchmen, and one is a Frenchman-making in all twelve.

By an immense practice, extending through a person of many years, having, within that time treated over nine thousand cases of those diseases peculiar to woman, I have been enabled to perfect a most potent and agreeable medicine that musts the indications presented by that class of diseases with positive cer-tainty and exactures. presented by that class of discuses with positive cer-tainty and exactness.

To designate this natural specific compound, I have samed it

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

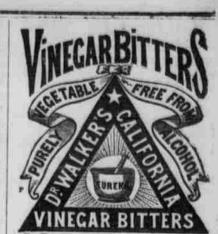

The term, however, is but a feeble experiment of my most matured appreciation of its value, based upon actual and witnessed realities. As a close observer, I have while witnessing its positive results in the few special diseases incident to the separate organism of woman, singled it out as the stimuar or crosswing gene of my me. Actas' carrier. On its merris as a positive, safe, and effectual remody for this class of diseases, and effectual remody for this class of diseases, and one that will at all timus and under all circumstances act kindly and in harmony with the lates which govern the female system. I am willing to stake my reputation as a plystem. Nay, even more, so confident am I that it will not disappoint the most sampuine expectations of a single invalid lady who employs it for any of the ailments for which I recommend it, that I offer and sell it under A FOSITIVE GUARANTEE. If a beneficial effect is not experienced by the time two-thirds of the contents of the bottle are used, I will, on the return of the bottle, two-thirds of the medicine having been taken according to directions, and the case being one for which I recommend it, promptly refund the money paid for it. Had I not the medicine having been taken according to directions, and the case being one for which I recommend it struly miracultous cures in thousands of case, I feel warranted and ferfectly not in risking beth my reputation and my money on it merits.
