REFUSING AND GRANTING LICENSES.

The friends of Temperance not Meadville. For the first time, we be lieve, there was a contest over applithe Parshall House and Mr. Thomas ance. Goodwin's City Hotel, for example, passed unquestioned. Such places as these are undoubtedly necessary for the accommodation of the traveling public. Mr. Thomas Goodwin is the best caterer in these parts, keeping meats, fish, game of all kinds in their season, and getting up supper and dinner parties to order, and keeping a quiet, orderly, respectable place, to which travelers arriving at irregular hours are frequently directed for their refreshments. A competent number of hotels and eating houses are necessary, but there must be some limita tion, and all of them must have certain qualifications. There have been, hitherto, and during the past year, some gr. ss and outrageous frauds practiced on the Court and Commissioners, and general laxity and violation of the law by various parties and the influences they have used to again procure their licenses are scandalous; but at present we will say that the Temperance League, which represents the most solid and esteemed of our citizens, now realize the value of organization. They were eminently fortunate in retaining the professional services of B. J. Reid Esq., of this city; and the skill and thoroughness with which he has served his clients and the cause of good morals, appears in the simple statement that fourteen hotel licenses from the city have been refused and but eleven granted, five eating house licenses refused and one only granted, two wholesale licenses refused and six granted-in all twenty-one refused and eighteen granted. It must be understood that the above list does not comprise all in this city at the January term, when there was no contest or sifting of the papers. The following "grist" of licenses was turned out all of which are now in force, to wit: twenty-five hetels, twelve eating houses and four wholesale houses makes a total of thirty-six hotels, thirteen eating houses, and ten wholesale liquor dealers in Titusville, and it ought to need no argument to convince the court that any more "bars" in this city are quite unnecessary the and dollars of the charred securities. dryest season. To the friends of the Temperance cause we say, keep posted, tally destroyed is estimated at from pay your dues to keep your organization in good, efficient operation, and to see that those who have obtained licenses do not incur forfeiture and the penalties of the law by selling at improper times or to improper persons.

-This morning a man named Buzzard, who has been sick with the consumption for several months past, expired at his house in Bennehoff Run, afterwards his body was found a mile near the mouth of Tarr Run. This case is a peculiarly sad one.—The man in question served through the bead and part of the body were badly braised and cut by the logs.—Cameron army for over four years, and while Herald. there contracted that fell diseaseconsumption-which finally ended his existence. The family, consisting of has made its appearance. Though the wife and six children, have readily detected by close observation, subsisted by charity for several months past, and the case is a peculiarly sad one. The remains will be taken to Meadville for burial.

- Herald Monday.

As the family is in a starving condition, Road Commissioner McHugh telegraphed to the County Commissioners to come and take charge of the remains, and accord to them a decent Christian burial. In answer to this, our respected County Commissioners telegraphed back-"Don't know aim." The probabilities are that the sfore said Commissioners did not under stand the case or they would not have sent the above. At the same time the law is very defective from the fact that it places the whole thing in charge of the Commissioners, who are located generally at the county scat located generally at the county scat were sent the above. -In Irvincton last Wednesday night, Mr. John Cooney's store was broken into, and had about six hundred dollars worth of goods taken, consisting of clothing, boots and shoes, notions, and about thirty dozen eggs. Mr. Cooney telegraphed to Tidionte, and the express messenger of the Oil Creek road and special coustable, nabbed one of the fellows at the depot. He is now lodged in jail. He says there was three others engaged in the robbery. Some of the goods were re-covered hidden under the steps of the Irvine Mill, and some were found on the person caught, who calls his name Ellsworth. Mr. Cooney has recovered about three hundred dollars worth of his goods. The three scamps yet uncaught have the balance. They got no money, as none had been left in the store. Mr. Cooney offers one hundred dollars reward for the recovery of the goods and the conviction of the thieves. - Warren Ledger.
