-Peter Carter was struck by light-ning and instantly killed, on Monday afternoon last, at his residence in Sugarcreek township, three miles from this city, on the old Warren road. About three o'clock a sudden thunder storm came up with rain and wind. After the storm passed Mr. Carter and wife went into the yard in front of his house and noticing a rail had been blown from the fence they advanced to put it back, at this moment a blinding flash of lightning, apparently coming from a clear sky, struck Mr. Carter and severely stunned his wife. He remained standing as if uninjured, until his wife recovered and went to him, when he was found to be Examination proved that the lightning proach struck him with the knife. struck his body about the centre, pasing upward, leaving dark red marks upon his breast, neck and ears.—His hair was badly singed and the crown of his hat torn out. A little daughter of the deceased who was standing about ten feet from him at the time was knocked down by the electric shock but not seriously injured.

Mr. Carter was an estimable citizen, about forty-five years of age, and leaves a wife and eight children to mourn his death. - Venango Citizen.

-The Warren Ledger reports a sad case of drowning in Tionesta Creek. It says last Sabbath afternoon a young man named Blake Lawless, aged eighteen years, in company with two other young men, started to take a bath in Tionesta Creek, near Rockwell's tannery, in Sheffield township. It seems that none of the party could swim, though young Lawless inferred that his companions were experts in that line. On arriving at the place select. Square New York. ed for the bath, quite a deep hole, young Lawless stepped to the water's edge and plunged in. He shortly gave evidence of his inability to help himself out again, and his companions, though fear or some other unaccountable cause, were powerless to assist him, though it is said he was not more than three feet from the bank at the time, and his body was found that near the shore. The cries of his comrades attracted some fifty or sixty persons to the scene of drowning, some of whom plunged in to save him, but without avail. His lifeless body was found after remaining in the water about half an hour. From the story of our informant, this is the most singular case of drowning we ever heard hands of the Treasurer.

-Frank Woodward, of Fagundus, met with a serious accident on the Butler race-course a few days since. While leisurely driving along, a run-away team suddenly came into collis-ion with the rear of his vehicle, throwing him out of his buggy with such violence as to fracture his left leg just above the ankle, besides inflicting other injuries less severe. Medical aid was promptly summoned, and the patient is progressing favorably.-

-Colonel E. A. L. Roberts has been awarded a contract for paving Nicholls Place and Prospect Hill, in Buffalo, with his patent wooden pave-ment. The Council awarded him the contract, on the petition of property holders. It is the same pavement which has given such satisfaction to our citizens, on Franklin street,—

-Joe Zimmerman of Pittsburgh sent up a toy halloon a few days ago with a coin attached inviting the man who got the balloon to take a cigar with him. The finder of the balloon wrote from a farm about two miles from Oil City. He will take a smoke Guiters, at Robinson & Bonner's. Call and see them.

-At about 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, Fred Meiser the butcher of beef and ice in the wagon to take to a vessel at the Pittsburgh docks and turned out to allow a to team pass on the roadway near the railroad cut. The horse appeared to be frightened and went over the embankment where it is at least twenty feet high and almost perpendicular, dragging the wagon and men over with him, and all lay together in a heap at the bottom. At first it was thought that both men were killed, but the broken wagen was removed and the men were found alive, and one of them, though bruised from head to foot, had no bones broken. Fred Meiser has one of his legs hadly torn and it is said that his hip is broken. The men were removed to Schutte's hotel and surgical assistance summoned. The horse is alive, but was bleeding from a dozen wounds received in the fall .- Erie Dispatch.

-The Tidioute Journal says a fire occurred at Chandler's B. S. Refinery, situated at the month of Dennis Run, on Tuesday evening. The still had been run too full, and the overflowing oil ran down into the fire, when instantly, with a loud explosion, everything was ablaze. Several barrels full of oil were on the platform, these all exploded with great violence. Mr. Chandler was on the platform at the time of the first explesion, and narrowly escaped with his life. The loss on oil barrels, tanks, &c. destroyed, is about $3000.

-The Warren Ledger notices a singular accident, resulting in the death of a man named Martin Naylor, at Sheffield, in that county, a few days since. It appears that connected with the tannery at Sheffield is a bark mill, used for grinding bark. Two teamsters had each driven up close to the mill with a load of bark to unload, and one of the loads jostling against the other tipped Naylor into the machinery while running. One of his legs was crushed so badly that amputation became necessary, from the effects of which he died.

-At eleven o'clock Friday night, Fredrick Giek, Jr., laborer, aged twenty-three stabbed and killed Joseph Patterson, in Erie. The murderer was arrested. The parties had a quarrel a short time before the fatal blow was struck, when Giek dared Patterson to come to him, and on his ap-
