Time of Trains.

At TIONESTA STATION, on and after Monday, November 4th, 1872:

Table with 3 columns: Train No., Direction, and Time. Includes Southward and Northward routes.

Passengers will have to understand that "Northward" in the table is down the river, and "Southward" is up the river. Trains 19 and 20 are mixed freight and accommodation; the others are passenger trains.

LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

—Those beautiful lots just north of Mrs. Henry's residence can be bought cheap, on long time, by applying to the editor of this paper.

—No one has been struck about these diggin's yet, but some have had mighty strong symptoms.

—The Clarion stage is a vehicle of some style, just now. It is neatly covered and painted, and looks easy.

—Mr. Kepler has closed his residence during the hot months, and he and his family are away rustating.

—The Tidioute Weekly Journal comes to us changed to a folio form, and much improved in appearance.

—A new and tasty fence has been put up about J. B. Agnew's lot, in the rear of the Post-Office. Let the internal improvements go on.

—Some of "the boys" were spearing last evening, but succeeded in getting nothing better than a few "stone-pokers."

—Messrs. May and Kelley, with their families, started for Cape May on Monday last, where they expect to sojourn for two or three months.

—The iron of the bridge which was wrecked last winter, is about all out of the river now, ready to be put on the cars and shipped back to the shop for repairs.

—Susan B. Anthony is going to talk to the citizens of Franklin, this week. That city had better reform, or there's no telling what'll happen next.

—The Derrick has been improved by a new dress, which was made necessary by the wear and tear of the old type. These large circulations are tremendous wearin' on a font of body type.

—Rev. Brown and lady will be in town during the latter part of the week, and it is possible that he will preach in the Presbyterian church on Sunday. Church-goers will know by the ringing of the bell.

—Some parties are building barges, or coal-boats, at Oldtown. On Thursday last we noticed two in the water, and the builders were at work on a third. These boats bring good prices in Pittsburgh.

—Harry Bates, well-known to the citizens of our place from his frequent visits here, who has for a few years past been attending Allegheny College at Meadville, carried off the first prize for declamation last week.

—M. Ittel's billiard rooms are running in good shape, and are extensively patronized by lovers of the game. The tables are first-class ones, and will undoubtedly prove a good investment for the proprietor.

—In front of Robinson's store, yesterday morning, we noticed a circular saw about four feet in diameter for M. J. Bond's mill at Bear Creek. Mr. Bond's reputation as a manufacturer of lumber according to the capacity of his mill, is second to none in the lumber region.

Well, we went fishing,—four of us. Mike Ittel's teamster picked us up in town about eight o'clock Monday morning, and landed us at Balltown, in front of the residence of Jake Cosper at half-past one same day. All of us had the fever the worst kind of a way, and merely waiting to get dinner, went down to the creek and after catching a chub for bait, commenced to fish among the rapids below Balltown dam for some large trout which Jake told us were there. A terrible rain came up, and we got mighty wet, but didn't get any of those large trout. The sky cleared up shortly, and we started up Logan Run to try the little ones, as the larger ones didn't seem disposed to bite. Four of us caught fifty trout that evening, making an average of twelve and a half trout to an individual; just enough to make us all radical on the trout question.

That night we slept the sleep of the just, and dreamed of—trout. Tuesday morning all were up at peep of day, and after eating our catch of the evening before, started out after those trout, two going up Logan and two up Minister. The trout (and punkies) bit well, and many thrills of joy did we thrill on that occasion, and each trout occasioned a thrill. Purer joy hath no mere worldly man ever known than just that same delight one feels while jerking a trout from his native element to the thirsty earth. We all came in a little after dark, and counted our trout, and found we had caused 550 dwellers of the purling brook to bite the dust on that day. Nobody felt disposed to quarrel because some one else had captured more fish than he—all were calm, so calm that they went to bed immediately after getting supper and pulling their boots. They did not dream of trout, nor anything else, they were tired. You might have gotten up another Boston Jubilee right under their windows for ten hours of that night, and they would never have been the wiser. Next morning we painfully dragged our wearied limbs out of bed, enthusiasm dimpered materially; thought we wouldn't go out that day,—weren't well. After stirring about a little, however, we concluded to try it again. The fishing of this day was more rationia than on the previous one; we took it cool. But didn't the punkies take a square meal out of our frame that day? If there is anything that will jerk the grace out of an upright, conscientious christian it is punkies. If we could inflict as much punishment according to our size as a punky we'd immediately challenge all the light and heavy weights of the world, fight them all at once, and put them all out of misery in seventeen minutes by the watch. On this day we fished the same streams, commenced later, and came in earlier, and caught 284, making our entire catch 884 trout. We were well again, and purchasing a john-boat pushed down the creek to town on Thursday, taking the entire day to do it. None of us will go out this season again for a "regular old time," and we feel weak when we think of our liability to be taken with the same epidemic next summer. It's an awful sight of fun, but a man wants a constitution fourteen times stronger than that of the United States, to make a business of it.

—We clip the following complimentary notice of Mr. Graves, the artist from the Venango Citizen:

Wm. A. Graves, artist, visited this city recently, bringing with him two elegant portraits, life size, of Dr. W. L. Whann and lady, of this city. As a portrait painter Mr. Graves is unsurpassed. His work gives entire satisfaction, and the large number of orders received by him is evidence that his work is highly appreciated by all. For the present his studio is located in Warren, Pa., but we understand he will soon move to this city.

—Jas. H. Fones, who has been clerking for Capt. Knox for some time past, purchased the Drug Store last week, and is now running the machine on his own responsibility. In addition to drugs and medicines of all kinds, the soda fountain is constantly charged, and James knows how to dish it up. Confectioneries, tobacco, cigars and toilet articles constantly on hand, for sale at the lowest figures.

—An announcement has been published that there would be a ball at the Lawrence House on the evening of the 4th of July. We are requested to state that there will be no party there on that occasion.

DEMOCRATIC NOMINATIONS.

The Democratic delegates elected at their primary meetings, convened in the Arbitration Room at the Court House yesterday afternoon and organized by electing the following officers: President, Capt. Pennell. Vice President, Maj. Goodman. Secretaries, Jas. Flynn and Siggins.

A ballot was taken on the candidates for Assembly, and the following was the result: Dr. J. Winans, 20. D. Black, 9. Wm. Haslet, 5.

Dr. Winans was therefore nominated on the first ballot, and the following conferees were appointed to meet conferees from Clarion county, and instructed to support the nominee of Forest county for the district nomination: Jacob Hood, I. C. Siggins, Capt. Neill.

S. C. Sloan was nominated as candidate for County Commissioner, without opposition.

Jas. Gillilan, of Hickory, was nominated for County Auditor.

Jury Commissioner, Jas. Flynn, of Green.

Coroner, J. E. Blaine, M. D.

I. C. Siggins was elected chairman of the Democratic county committee. Adjourned to meet at call of chairman.

The turnout to the Democratic Nominating Convention was creditable in point of numbers. It is claimed, we believe, that a nomination for Assembly in Forest is equivalent to an election, as Clarion concedes the Representative to Forest this time. The nominations made were good of the kind, but we don't like the kind. Good men are to the front, who, barring their politics are unquestionable. The platform adopted to run the candidate for assembly on, is a good one, viz: The Constitution of the U. S., Declaration of Independence, the Ten Commandments and the Fourth of July. The Campaign airs endorsed are as follows "Star Spangled Banner," "St. Patrick's day in the morning," "Vere is der Vater landt." The candidate for assembly was placed under an injunction by the convention to endorse last year's copy of the German Almanac.

—The following items of interest in regard to two former citizens of our county we take from the Petroleum Centre Record:

We had the pleasure this forenoon of meeting Mr. G. K. M. Crawford, of Tionesta. Mr. Crawford is engaged in the lumber business with Mr. A. H. Steele, the well known President of the Pennsylvania Petroleum Railroad. Mr. Steele has the contract for furnishing 200,000 feet of plank for the Titusville and Centreville Plank Road Company. He has purchased the timber on 180 acres of the Skinner farm, on Oil Creek, has put up a portable saw mill and will be under charge of Mr. Crawford, who is one of the pioneer lumbermen of Forest county. The lumber is principally oak with a slight sprinkling of chestnut and basswood. Mr. C. thinks it will take at least a year to cut the timber on this piece of land.

—Forest county wild cats are so tame they follow people about like kittens. One of the spry sort followed a man named Haslet some distance up Tionesta creek last week, and was only prevented from making a closer acquaintance by Haslet turning on his would be acquaintance and shooting it.—Courier.

We suppose, of course, this item was taken from our note on the same subject two weeks ago. Mr. Haslet did not shoot, nor shoot at, the animal, having nothing but a fishing pole to do it with. He merely bounced a rock at the cat, which scared it away.

—The Postmaster and postal clerks of Pittsburgh complain of obscene matter passing through the office in that city. The instructions are a little mixed in that particular case. The clerks are forbidden to read anything but the address on the cards, and at the same time warned if they permit any obscene or improper communications to pass through their offices on postal cards they will be held strictly accountable.

—The very reason why the noble game of base ball is not played here this summer, is, that Geo. Hunter has fenced up and planted corn on the old grounds.

The summer meeting of the Tidioute Driving Park Association will be held at Tidioute on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, July 23, 24 and 25, 1873. The premiums amount to $1,500, and competition is open to all. Purse No. 1, first day, amounts to $250. No. 2, $150. No. 1, second day $250. No. 2, $150. No. 1, third day, $325. No. 2, $125. No. 3, $200. No. 4, foot-race, $50. The entrance fee is ten per cent. of the purse, and must accompany the nomination in all cases.

—There will be no 4th of July in Tionesta this year. The American eagle has so many engagements on that occasion that no inducements of ours were strong enough to secure his services for any part of the day. He was wanted at the blow-out in Oil City, and was afraid that if he wasn't on hand the oil producers would meet and resolute him out of existence. This accounts for the absence of fire-crackers and enthusiasm this year.

—As we came down the creek last week we could not fail to notice the important improvements that had taken place in the Lacytown grist mill since Mr. Ledabour has taken it in hand. From the indications, the mill is ready for business, and we'll warrant that Ledabour will do good work.

—If there is any spectacle that is real refreshing, it is to see two drunken men perambulating our streets, trying first to hold one another and then the fence up. It's only once in a while that such an exhibition takes place here, and the scarcer the better.

—On Monday Old Sol thought he would give us a specimen of what we had to expect, and forthwith fetched up the mercury to 92° in the shade. A refreshing rain during the night checked the general perspiration and gave us moisture of a cooler nature.

—Work on the ice breakers for the piers of the river bridge commenced this week, Mr. S. C. Sloan having the job. They are to be built of logs, filled with stone and to extend up the river twenty-five feet from the bottom of the pier, and bound with iron.

—Robinson & Bonner have a full stock of Palm, Leghorn, Wool and Fur Hats for men and boys. Also Ladies' and Misses trimmed Hats.

—The lightest running Machine in the world is the Grover & Baker, at least Baldwin, of Tidioute says so, and he knows. 46 ly

MARRIED.

HAYS—LASHLELLS.—On Thursday evening, June 12, 1873, Frederick W. Hays Esq., of Oil City, to Miss Lizzie L., daughter of the late Geo. F. Lashells, Esq., of Meadville. Rev. J. V. Reynolds, D. D., officiating. Being absent last week, the above notice was accidentally omitted. Many of our readers are acquainted with Mr. Hays, and will join with us in wishing him and his fair bride a happy future. Both are old friends of ours and our best wishes will always accompany them.

[The following notice was sent us by a subscriber who was indignant because we cut down a former communication of his. We are determined he shall find no fault this time, and therefore publish his communication verbatim et literatim.]
