ANNOUNCEMENTS. [TERMS.—Announcements for Commissioner $5; for Auditor $3; District Attorney $4; Coroner $3; Jury Commissioner $2. No announcer and published unless accompanied by [1]

COM SIONER. M. E. PORTEIL, of Barnett Township, is a candidate for County Commissioner.

We are authorized to announce the name of ELI HOLEMAN, of Tionesia township as a cardidate for County Commissioner, subject to Republican usages.

-According to the Clarion Democrat, M. Williams was nominated as the Democratic candidate for Assembly in Clarion county. Maj. John Kealey, Wm. M. Abrams and R. B. Bell were chosen Representatives Conferees to Forest county, to nominate a caudidate for Assembly:

The following items were also taken from that paper :

Seven boys were arrested and taken before Burgess Wilson charged with being in the party that caught and burned the dog a couple of weeks ago. They were fined $5 each and

On last Saturday Wm. Waterson, of Antwerp, whilst working on a derrick on the Gilger farm, Central City, fell to the ground, a distance of sixty-three feet, and was badly bruised. It is almost a miracle that he was not killed. Under the care of Dr. G. W. Weaver he is getting along well, and to-day, Tuesday, hopes are entertained for his recovery.

A. P. Potter and Barney McCann, of Clarion township, were riding out of town last Saturday evening in a buggy, and near the seminary the shafts of the buggy came loose where it fastens to the axel, and the buggy was upset. McCann was thrown out violently and had one arm broken below the elbow.

A most brutal affair occurred at Foxburg, on Tuesday of last week. Two men under the influence of liquor commenced fighting, and one bit the other's nose off. The man who did this inhuman deed is named Owens. Constable Dearolph, of Petersburg, was sent for and went down, but the offender had escaped acress the river. The old man who lost his nose is horriby disfigured, and is lying in a criti-cal condition.

Two of Sheriff Johnson's prisoners, Burk and Porter, made their escape one night last week by cutting a hole in the ceiling of their cell, and getting into the attic, from where they came down stairs and left for parts unknown. Until a new jail is completed, there is not much use in committing prisoners, as the old jail is only a temptation for prisoners to run away; whereas if they were not imprisoned they might stay around till court, when they could be caught and tried.

-The following items are taken from the Venango Cittzen:

George Stevens, of Kane City, this County, was drowned in the Alle-gheny river, at the mouth of Two Mile Run, on Monday afternoon June 23d, at three o'clock. He had been at work on the Galloway Farm, and with two companions went to the river to bathe. His friends went across the river but he refused to accompany them, not being an expert swimmer. When they returned Stevens was no where to be found, and his compan-ions presumed that he was hiding from them. After looking around for some time his body was seen lying at the bottom of the river in about six feet of water. An alarm was given and men at work at Capt. Grant's brick yard, near by, hastened to the river, and soon brought the body on shore. Stevens was an industrious young man, of temperate habits, and leaves a wife and two children to mourn his untimely death. Coroner Corbett empanueled a jury and held an inquest on the body. The jury returned a verdict of accidental drown-

Sam. Rieser, late of Oil City, is proprietor of a Dry Goods store on 13th St., where he is at present closing out his stock. Patrick Hanlon is a stone mason, of good character, and is engaged at Oil City. Last Monday morning Hanlon went to Rieser's store took the latter by the cells. store, took the latter by the collor, jerked him out into the street, and, with a raw-hide, severely whipped him. The cause of this action on the part of Hanlon is given as follows. On Saturday Mrs. Haulon purchased some colico at Rieser's store, but did not receive as many yards as she paid for. She returned the calico and asked to have the error corrected. Rieser refused in rather an emphatic manner. The lady returned and had the goods measured by a third party, and with a lady friend returned to Rieser's and a lady friend returned to Rieser's and again asked him to make the correction. At this Samuel waxed wroth and used vile language in connection with the lady's name. For this ungentlemanly language Hanlon warmed his jacket. He keeps his furnace in blast when it is convenient, or thought to be of advantaged.

wasn't "acquainted with him." Hanand he did. sight now.

On Saturday morning last, an employee on the railroad, named Pat-rick Riley, a native of Ireland, and but recently from Brooklyn, N. Y., was drowned in Red Bank creek at Coder's dam, below town. We are informed that Riley had been drinking for several days, but that on the morning of the day mentioned he had signified his intention of going to work, aving in a measure become sober. Before going to work he went to the creek to bathe, and while in the water, from some cause he was drowned. Although in the water but a few minutes all efforts to bring him to were unavailing. He leaves a wife and two children in Brooklyn.—Brookville Republican.

-Yesterday afternoon, during the heavy thunder storm which passed over this place, a bolt of lightning struck and killed three colts in an open field on the Taylor farm, Vernon township, about two miles west of this city. There were ten colts in the field at the time, one two year old and two yearlings being instantly killed. The colts were the property of Mr. Mel nylor, of Fredonia, N. Y. The two year old was a handsome Hambeltonian, recently bought by Mr. Taylor in Orange County, New York, and brought here about two weeks ago. The colts were worth over one thousand dollars, and would readily have sold for more money .- Meadville Re-

-The Erie Dispatch gives the following interesting incident :

A few days since a German woman, a recent arrival here, had some transactions with a dealer in second-hand goods, and in part pay received a five dollar bill. It was green but not a regular greenback, and upon a subsequent examination of the face, it proved to be a Crawford county bill. These, some time since, were worth about thirty cents on the dollar, and it probably is worth less than that at present. The woman was advised as to the worthlessness of the bill and took it back, but the dealer denied it and professed to know nothing about it, and the woman could get no satisfaction. Yesterday, a goutleman whose visit boded business, appeared at the dealer's establishment, asked for a cent's worth of pins and threw down the $5 Crawford bill in payment. The dealer looked at it, then at the visitor's face, and without any parley drew a $5 greenback out of his pocket, picked up the Crawford bill and handed the greenback to his visitor. The latter didn't want to get any pins, and the dealer saved himself some little trouble by being so prompt in re-deeming the worthless scrip, as, but for that, he would have been arrested for fraud within fifteen minutes of the time. Honesty is the best policy.

-The Philadelphians are very de sirous of capturing the capital of Pennsylvania and locating it in Fre-mont Park, and they think they see their chance in the enlargement of the numbers in the two houses of the Leg-islature. A correspondent of the Philadelphia Age writes :

"The Constitutional Convention having determined by a very decisive vote, or several decisive votes, to increase the number of Senators to fifty. and the number of Representatives to one hundred and fifty-two, it is certain that if the new Constitution be adopted, these numbers will constitute our State Legislative bodies in future. And as this increase of members involves the building of a new State Capitol, these questions naturally follow: Where shall that building be erected? Ought the Convention to fix the future seat of Government, or rather to designate it, and let the people pass the matter in voting on the new Constitution? To the first of these questions I unbesitatingly answer— in Philadelphia. The second I ans-wer as clearly in the affirmative."

-The Democratic Primary election in this borough on Saturday last creat-ed considerable stir and the friends of the several candidates worked like beavers. Some bad blood was displayed during the course of the after-noon caused by the handing in to the judges, by a member of the ring, of a list of persons, who were required to pledge themselves to support the tick-et nominated. Among the list was the name of that democratic veteran, Col. W. T. Alexander, and to have his democracy disputed, very naturally aroused the wrath of the Col., and his friends. Some loud talk and plain language was the result .- Clarion Re-

-Says the Sharpsville Advertiser: There is a small hed of soft hematite ore in Lawrence county, owned by a farmer whose acres surround it. This farmer has repaired an old six-foot bosh charcoal furnace, and makes excellent iron on the spot, at a cost or thought to be of advantage, and and 608 Ninth St. Washington, D. TIMBER LANDS FOR SALE.

Over two thousand acres of fine Hemlock Timber Lands situated on Maple Creek, near Clarington, this county, are for sale at a bargain. Part of the lands are situated within four miles of Clarington, on the Clarion River, and would be a fine site for an extensive tannery and saw mills.
