Time of Trains

Table with columns for Train No., Class, and Time. Includes routes for Tionesta Station and River Division.

LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

—Mr. Jos. G. Dale and Miles W. Tate, Esq., are attending District Court in Erie, this week. —Mr. G. W. Dithridge is still detained in Pittsburgh, on business connected with the estate of Mr. Edward Dithridge, deceased.

—Messrs. J. T. Dale and J. E. Wenk returned from their Western trip the latter part of last week. They don't believe now that Du Luth is the centre of the world, but on the contrary believe if the Northern Pacific R. R. starts from another point Du Luth is a defunct village.

—C. D. Mabie, proprietor of the Holmes House, which was burned out last winter is putting up another large hotel just north of Blum & Reck's blacksmith and wagon shop.

—Monday's Derrick has a slanderous article reflecting somewhat on the dealers in boots and shoes, in this town. The gist of the story is that a man from some seaport up Oil Creek, came here with a pair of tight boots to go fishing.

—By reference to the "New Advertisements," it will be seen that Mr. G. G. Butterfield has purchased the Lawrence House, and will hereafter run that house in good shape.

—All the stonework on the creek bridge is completed, and the iron all on the ground. The contract for filling in the abutments will be let by the Commissioners on Saturday next.

—Rev. McPetridge, of Oil City, acted as Moderator of a meeting of the Presbyterian congregation of this place, on Monday evening, which meeting drafted a call to Rev. R. M. Brown, to act as Pastor of the Presbyterian Church.

—We saw a policeman from some frontier town, in our place, yesterday, and went up into the garret to get a look at him through a crack. He didn't seem to be after any one in town, so we came down and looked at him close.

—Dr. Winans started yesterday for East Brady, where the Democratic District Convention meets to put in nomination a candidate for Assembly.

—John Peterson, of Trunkeyville, went for us in a mild way, through the columns of the Forest Press, a short time ago, because we published the resolutions of the Democratic County Convention.

—The following, taken from the Republican, will show how the habituals do things up in Meadville:

—We have received the following invitation, to attend the "big talk" of the editors and publishers of this Congressional District.

—Dear Sir:—You are respectfully invited to be present at, and participate in a meeting of the Editors and Publishers of this Congressional District, at Brookville, Pa., on Thursday, the 24th inst.
