The Editorial Convention of the Twenty-Fifth Congressional District met at Brookville...

WHEREAS, The editors of this Congressional District have assembled together for the first time since the creation of our district...

1st. That we will hereafter, in the discussion of all questions which come before us in our capacity as editors, avoid the asperities of journalism...

2d. That we deem the amendment proposed by the Constitutional Convention, on the subject of libel, as insufficient to protect the press in a proper discharge of its duties to the public.

3d. That the Constitution should be so altered, that an editor may make a defense when prosecuted for libel, and the case decided on its merits by the Court, as under the Constitution in New York, Illinois and other States.

4th. That the act of the last Congress requiring postage to be paid on papers published in the county and exchanges, was uncalled for, improper and unnecessary, and should be repealed, and that the power of the press should be brought to bear on Congressmen to secure this result.

After a full and free discussion of the resolutions, they were unanimously adopted.

A motion that this Convention be organized in a permanent association, and meet annually hereafter, and that a permanent committee of three be appointed to make arrangement for the next meeting...

GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINES.

The following are selected from thousands of testimonials of similar character, as expressing the reasons for the preference of the Grover & Baker Machines over all others.

"I like the Grover & Baker Machine, in the first place, because if I had any other, I should still want a Grover & Baker; and having a Grover & Baker it answers the purpose of all the rest. It does a greater variety of work and is easier to learn than any other."—Mrs. J. C. Croly (Jenny June)

"I have had several years' experience with a Grover & Baker Machine, which has given me great satisfaction. I think the Grover & Baker Machine is more easily managed, and less liable to get out of order. I prefer the Grover & Baker decidedly."—Mrs. Dr. Watts, New York.

"I have had one in my family for some two years; and from what I know of its workings, and from the testimony of many of my friends who use the same, I can hardly see how anything could be more complete or give better satisfaction."—Mrs. Genl. J. J. Van Giesen, Tionesta, Pa.
