LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

-Rev. Brown filled the pulpit of the Presbyterian Church at Greenville on Sunday last.

-Jas. Fones, at the American Drug Store, has a fresh supply of lemons; just arrived. Those wishing to purchase should call early.

-M. Ittel, laudlord of the Tionesta House was awarded the contract of filling in the abutments of the creek bridge, and is at work on them with several hands and teams. His bid was 38 ets. per yard.

-Mr. Shaner, Democratic Candidate for Commissioner of Clarion county, recently became the father of triplets. It's useless for the Republican candidate to run against such a man as that.

-Miss Florence Irvin received the prize for reciting the largest number of verses from the bible in the Union Sunday School. The number recited we believe, was 247. S. J. Wolcott, Superintendent made the presentation in the highest style of the art. When speech.

PATTERSON—at his home on Ross Run, in Kingsley Twp., on the 3d inst., Al-fred Patterson, Esq., in the—year of his age.

The death of this prominent citizen of our county calls for more than a lots are all upon an easy slope, having raised, and from some cause which we mere passing notice. His exit from a beautiful commanding view of the the scenes of earth was sudden-his numerous friends were struck with astonishment at his sudden damise. This worthy, estimable man resided in Kingsley Twp. for the past 18 years. With propriety it might be said of him "he was beloved by all who knew him." As a husiness man he was honest as well as industrious and hospitable. As a Justice of the Peace, an office he hold for many years, he was prompt and efficient-his judgment discriminating and exact to a remarkable degree. He leaves a wife and large family, to whom, if he leaves not a large legacy of earthly goods, which perish, yet a better and imperishable legacy in his virtues and moral worth. COMMUNICATED.

-Lacy's new mill at Cobbtown. four miles up Coon creek from Lacytown, is progressing, and will be finish ed soon. L. L. Hackett, who is said to be an excellent millwright, is putting up the mill, which will be put to work as soon as finished. The mill formerly used there was run by water. -A camp meeting will be held near Lickingville, commencing to-morrow. We are not informed how long it will last, but suppose as long as converts are made. On Sunday Tionesta will probably send her delegation. From what we hear of previous camp meetings up there, we would judge they kept a good deal of bad order around the suburbs. There should be efficient police appointed to secure good order, that those who go there to raise a disturbance may get their just descris.

-Mrs. Clapp, wife of Rev. Ralph Clapp, deceased, and mother of E. E. Clapp, of President, has been visiting in town for a couple of weeks past. She is quite an aged lady, and is loved and esteemed wherever known, for her manifold good qualities. She came with her husband to President, in an early day, and has lived to see the wilderness blossom as the rose," and the county where she spent the best May she live in peace and happiness for many years to come.

-M. Carpenter, the photographic aviiat has gone to Lickingville to take pictures during Camp Meeting. He is merely out for a few weeks, his base of operations still being here. He will be able to take pictures of all kinds, he comes back he will at once crect a -A twelve-year old daughter of gallery on Elm St., probably north of will give him and his business a permanency in the eyes of the citizens of this vicinity which he has long felt need of.

-W. H. May of Louisville, son of H. H. May of this place, was in town yesterday, and made us a call. He reports business generally dull, but the lumber yard with which he is connected is doing a better business this season than ever before. He left for Titusville last evening, his visit being a business one.

-From the tenor of a rather obscurely written article in the Clarion Republican, we judge that Alexander, "ye local," has gone off to commit matrimony. If he harbors any such Intentions, we wish him joy, and advise him to procure a lot at Sligo, in case he should have to move his office . there.

-James Lambing, a gentleman who is well known to most of our citizens, having once resided here, and who for two or three years past, has been a veritable oil prince, in the lower disstrint, has been forced into bankruptey by his creditors. He had put down from fifteen to twenty dry holes just prevous to his closing up, and that's what busted him. He made lots of money, but like many another operator, he did not "know just where to stop.

-On Friday last, the creek being up to rafting stage, some attempts were made to run some of Dithridge's logs out. Frank Hackett was on one raft, which staved coming over Lacytown dam, but he kept on until he came to the bridge at the mouth, when the forward end struck some of the staging which had been erected previous to putting the iron on the piers, and knocked it down. To escape being crushed he was obliged to jump into the water, which he did. He then followed the raft, and was caught in some
