> MILES W. TATE, Chairman Co. Committee.

-The State Convention has been held, and candidates nominated. R. W. Mackey of Allegheny was nominated for State Treasurer on the first ballot. Our delegate, Mr. J. B. Agnew, who was not instructed on that office, was one of eighteen who voted for Samuel Henry for that office. We are glad this was the case, as Mackey had the reputation of being the "ring candidate," but the strength he developed in the convention, showed that if he was the "ring candidate," that the "ring" was composed of nearly the whole Republican vote of the State, as represented in the convention.

Hon. I. G. Gordon, the Republican nominee for Supreme Judge, had for opponents two gentleman whose friends were determined to leave no stone unturned to accomplish their nomination. But it was apparent to all that the West was entitled to the office, and on the tenth ballot Jupge Gordon was nominated, having re-

confidence, and is entitled by its promotion of the best interests and prosperity of the nation, to the carnest apport of the people, Resolved, That the administration of Governor Hartranft calls for our warmest approbation.

Resolved, That while enguestly in favor of constitutional reform and such revision of our State Constitution as will make it an effective instrument in preventing and punishing abuses that have crept into our system, we demand emphatically and especially that whatever is done or left undone shall be so placed before the people as to secure their separate and deisive expression thereon Resolved, That the reduction of the State debt from $41,000,000 to $26,-000,000 the repeal of all taxes on real estate, establishment of schools for the education and support of soldiers orphans, maintainance of our excellent and prosperous system of coma policy paying off our debt at the rate of $2,000,000 a year, together with the generally flourishing condi-tion of our prosperous old Common-wealth are our prosperous old Commonwealth, are evidences that the Republicans during their 12 years of con-trol in Pennsylvania, faithfully ad-ministered her affairs, and that her government may be safely left in their hands.

Resolved, That there should be rigid economy in the State and National Administration, and that the tax should be reduced in both as rapidly as consistent with good government, the maintenance of the public credit and the certain extinguishment of the State and national debt.

Resolved, That the public lands be long to the people and should be sacredly reserved for homes for actual settlars and we pronounce against all further grants of these lands to corporations.

Resolved, That adequate provisions should be made by law for the protection of persons engaged in mining and other hazardous forms of labor.

Resolved, That we condemn with out reserve voting for and receiving increased pay for services already ren dered, whether in State or Nation and demand that the provisions of the late act of Congress by which salaries were increased should promptly and unconditionally be repealed.

The tenth denounces corruption wherever found, and declares that none but good men chould receive party appointment or nomination.

Resolved, That the practice of loading an appropriation bill to the support of the Government with objec tionable legislation in the shape of amendments, towards the close of a session is a prolific source of fraud upceived a majority of all the votes cast. on the people and its reform is urgent-ly demanded; that as commerce and We can recommend this ticket to the Republicans of our County as one well mostly that a tariff so arranged well worthy their support. Arriving here he put up his team, and started out to take a look at the town about nine o'clock in the evening. He managed to crawl away on his hands and knees across the street into the grass and underbrush, where he was subsequently picked up and brought down town. He claims also that he was robbed of eighteen dollars and valuable papers. This is his version. O'Brien, we are informed, states that Wyant was intoxicated at the time, and had knocked down a woman by the name of Vic. Williams, and that he turned in to assist the woman, and knocked Wyant down. > THE NEW DOLLAR.-The new sllver dollar just issued from the United States mint, to be used for trade pur poses, and known as the "trade dollar," is making its appearance. It weighs seven and a half grains more than that of 1871, and thirty-six grains more than two balf dollars of that date. On the obverse of the new coin is a representation of Commerce seated upon a bale of cotton and grasping an upon a bale of cotton and grasping au olive branch of peace in her extended right hand. Upon a scroll, grasped by her left and trailing gracefully to the ground, is the word "Liberty," while beneath the whole and imme-diately above the date "1873," is the motto, "In God we trust." A sheaf of ripened wheat and a view, in the distance, of the sea, complete the pic-ture and the emblematical significence of the whole. The scated figure is of the whole. The seated figuro is somewhat smaller than the one on the original dollar. Thirteen stars, also somewhat smaller, surround the whole. The general characteristics of the reverse are the same as on the ordinary dollar, an eagle grasping in its talons the emblematical arrows and olive branch occupying the centre.

> An eye witness relates a thrilling incident that occurred at his boarding house the other morning in Lancaster. Two gentlemen boarders, at the breakfast table engaged in a discussion of "Cresarism," and soon began to punctuate their remarks by finging crocke-ry ware at each other's head, and brandishing knives and forks, and threatening to cause life-blood to flow, A panic ensued. The lantilady ran out of the house screaming murder, a young thing purporting to be niveteen years of age fainted dead away and had all the paint and enamel washed off her face, a timid youth hid in the cellar, the eyes of the potatoes bulged
