LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

—Rev. Reeser occupied the pulpit of the M. E. Church of this place for the last time as its regular minister on Sunday last. The Erie Conference meets at Brookville, next week, and there will probably be a change in this circuit.

—The name of S. D. Irwin, Esq., is announced in to-days paper as a candidate for District Attorney. The time is short and there are several offices waiting for applicants. Gentlemen brush up your patriotism, and suffer for the sake of your county.

—Mr. Daniel Walters is putting up a residence on the foundation of Judge Dale's house, near Proper & Reck's store. The frame is already up, and if it develops beauty as it progresses it will be, when finished, one of the most beautiful residences in town.

—Lawrence has purchased the lot situated between Dr. Blaine's property and the Superior Lumber Co. Store. There was talk of his starting a chop mill and feed store there, but whether that is now his intention we are not aware.

—Some of our citizens departed for the blackberry pickings on Whig Hill yesterday morning. No doubt they will get berries enough to last them until next picking. For those who enjoy having their hands scratched, and the skin burned off their hands it is nice business.

—Probably all those of our readers who were members of the 83d Pa. Reg't will remember H. S. Campbell, at one time Lieut.-Col. of that regiment. We are sorry to record that Col. Campbell died on the 5th inst., at Lincoln, Nebraska. He was Warden of the State Penitentiary at the time of his death.

—Dr. Blaine has purchased the office now occupied by Merrelliot as a law office, and will make some changes and additions thereto, and live there until next spring, when he will build a comfortable residence in the rear of the office. The location is a fine one, and with a few changes can be made a very comfortable place to live.

—On Wednesday last as several individuals from town were picking whortleberries on one of the hills across the river, a rattlesnake made a pass at Jimmie Hulings, and struck him on one of his boots, leaving the marks of its teeth in the leather. It is needless to say that the snake was dispatched in short order, but it was a close call for Jim.

Pianos and Organs.—The makes of Weber; Steck; Matushek; Haines; —Mason & Hamlin; Smith American; Estey, and several others. Foreign and domestic Sheet-Music, Music Books. All kinds of Musical Instruments, and merchandise of the best quality are constantly on hand at Jos. Steinbiger & Co.'s, Music Dealers, Oil City, Pa. Agents for the above named manufacturers for this section, and for all the music publishers in the country. Send for catalogues and price lists. 20 ft

Northwestern Pa. Insane Hospital.

During last winter a bill was passed providing for the erection of an insane hospital for the counties of Erie, Crawford, Mercer, Venango, Clarion, Warren, Elk, McKean, Jefferson and Forest, to be located in one of these counties. The bill has just been signed by the Governor, and has therefore become a law. The Commissioners appointed to select the location and superintend the construction of the buildings, are, Dr. Kirkbride, of the Pennsylvania Hospital of Philadelphia, Dr. Curwin of the State Insane Hospital of Harrisburg, and General Beaver, of Centre county. The location and the building contracts are subject to the approval of the Governor.

As soon as the bill was signed there were several suggestions by different papers as to the ground to be selected, but we have looked over the different claims, and have failed to discover any inducements which can compare with those presented by our own place. As remarked by the Press, Forest county is the geographical centre of the proposed district, and the county seat is more accessible from all parts of the district than any other town or city in it. And as the beauty and healthfulness of this place, we venture to say that there is not another location in the district to be compared with it. With very little expense or trouble, pure fresh water, the best in the world, could be brought down from any of the surrounding hills and carried through all parts of the buildings. In addition to these reasons, we have a more weighty one, which, although it may not have much to do in deciding the claims of this place to the hospital, will at least show the liberal spirit which actuates some of our land-owners about here. Mr. Sickles was informed that an asylum was to be built in the district, and immediately sent the following reply:

79 NASSAU ST., NEW YORK, }
Aug. 23d, 1873. }
W. W. MASON, Esq.,

Sir:—Your note of the 21st inst., reached me this morning. I shall be most happy to donate ten acres of land upon any part of my out-lands to the object named. I shall be pleased to hear that the commissioners have selected Tionesta as the site for the proposed institution. You can send a copy of this note to the commissioners, or make the communication of my offer as may suit you, with the assurance that my offer shall be fulfilled to the letter.

Very Respectfully,
GEO. G. SICKLES.
This offer we consider very liberal, notwithstanding the fact that if the asylum is built here Mr. Sickles will be benefitted thereby in the increased value of his land. The commissioners, we have no doubt are men who will conscientiously do the duty assigned them, and if this be the case we have no fears but Tionesta will be the place settled upon as the location of the new asylum.

—The Spectator man is paving the way for the Democratic nominee for Supreme Judge, by detracting from the merits of Hon. L. G. Gordon, for that position. Everybody who knows Judge Gordon, knows that no man more worthy, more honest, or better qualified could be chosen from either party. But things have come to such a pass that unless the Democratic papers vilify, slander and ridicule Republican candidates, we are apt to be suspicious that there is something wrong with them. For instance if the Spectator had told the truth about Judge Gordon, we should be afraid to support him, for fear he was both dishonest and incapable. It has come to in such a way that if an honest man seeks an office he is at once set down by opposition papers either as a thief or a fool, perhaps both. It's disgusting, but its the fact. But Judge Gordon can rest perfectly easy as far as this portion of the State is concerned, as he is generally known, and highly respected by all good men of both parties, and such invidious as the Spectator indulges in will probably raise him even above the high position he now occupies in the estimation of the people. He should send the editor of that paper a few greenbacks and have him keep on as he has started in; every one of those falsehoods are making votes for Gordon.

—The Militia of the 20th Division of Pa. will be reviewed by the Adjutant General of the State, in Meadville on the 18th and 19th of September.

—On Monday a preliminary trial of the man who was arrested on suspicion of being a horse-thief, came off before Justice Merrelliot. It appeared that the man who claimed the horse did not come forward to substantiate the story which caused the arrest of Rath, the supposed horse-thief, and as the evidence was not sufficient to hold him, he was discharged. Mr. Morgan, the gentleman who gave Rath in charge, was held for the costs. It's a mixed up case at best, and everybody except Morgan seems to have acted suspiciously in the premises. If any explanation of the case is ever arrived at, we shall present it to our readers at once.

LATER.—The real owner of the horse was in town this morning, and cleared up the mystery. His name is Stubble, and at Katon Furnree, Clarion county, his father fed his numerous flocks. The horse was stolen from him recently; the Jefferson county horse and thief were entirely different, both having been secured about the same time this chap was taken. The owner offers $50 reward for the horse, or $100 for the horse and thief. Bring him in again.

—The Petroleum Centre Record has the following item in regard to a couple of our Forest county chaps, which we publish with much more satisfaction than we would have published an obituary notice of the same individuals:

There came near being an accident at the Crawford & Thompson saw mill, on the Skinner farm, a day or two since. Mr. Jas. Haggerty had charge of the saw. He had run the frame through once sawing off the outside slab of the log, and had run it nearly through again, when by some means the sawed end of the plank swung around against the saw, which in the twinkling of an eye almost, tore the heavy plank off and sent it flying through the side of the building, in its course passing in dangerously close proximity to the heads of Kelse Crawford and Jim Haggerty, and lodging some distance away in the woods. Not much of an accident, but yet Kelse and Jim appear to think it was a pretty loud call for them. The machinery was but slightly injured.

Jim. was in town on Monday, but he is one of these chaps who don't court notoriety and didn't say any thing to us about his narrow escape. We are glad it was no worse, and that both gentlemen still retain their pristine beauty and excellent good shape.

—Mr. H. H. May and his granddaughter, May Kelly returned from Cape May, on Saturday last, and Mr. and Mrs. Kelly and the balance of their family returned yesterday morning. Mrs. May is at Mansfield, Ohio, visiting with her daughter there. We understand that all have enjoyed themselves highly while there, and they certainly look as if the trip had been beneficial to them.

—The Sixteenth Annual Exhibition of the Clarion County Agricultural Society will be held at Clarion, on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, September 23d, 24th, 25th and 26th. The premium list is extensive and liberal, and if the weather is favorable this exhibition will undoubtedly be the best ever given by the Society.

FOUR DOLLARS WORTH OF MUSIC FOR 30 CTS.—By sending for the September Number of Peters' Musical Monthly, price 30 cts., you will get Four Songs, a Sacred Quartet, a Four-hand Piece, and Four Instrumental Pieces, worth $4 in sheet form. Thirty cents is but a small outlay to test the merits of Peters' Magazine. Send for a copy, and our word for it, you will never regret the outlay. Address, J. L. Peters, 599 Broadway, New York.

MOUNTAIN GINGERBREAD.—Take half pound butter, quarter pound sugar, six eggs, yolks and white beaten separately; one tea-spoonful each of ground cinnamon, allspice and cloves, one table-spoonful ginger, three-quarters pint of molasses, four table-spoonfuls sweet milk, and one pound of flour, having in it one measure of Banner Baking Powder.

Each can of the Banner Baking Powder contains a small measure, to be used even full, according to printed directions. If you cannot obtain this really valuable article from your grocer, send twenty-five cents by mail, addressed to Banner Baking Powder, P. O. Lock Box, 317, Pittsburgh, Pa., and you will receive, postage paid, a quarter pound package together with a list of fifty valuable Recipes.
