MILES W. TATE, Chairman Co. Committee.

THE "GRANGES."

This new party sect, composed chiefly of farmers, obtains in some portions of the West. Their chief aim is to secure cheaper rates of transportation on railway lines. This is rather a subordinate division, there being the State Association, which is composed of clubs, an open, and Granges a secret organization.

They hold that independent political action is forced upon them, because railroads and reforms will not make equitable terms with them; and since legislation is necessary to accomplish this object, the law-makers must be men who are in sympathy with the people, instead of the paid servants of capital.

They nominate independent farmers' tickets and hope to be able to make some changes in both State and National offices next year, and eventually usher in a new and better era in politics.

The following items are from the Tidouite Journal:

Two children belonging to Mr. Chas. Tomsitt who resides on the Shaw lease one-half mile beyond Triumph, towards the Jason farm, narrowly escaped being burned to death on Tuesday. Mr. Tomsitt was at Tidouite at the time, and the mother was absent at a neighbor's. The children got hold of a kerosene can, and it is supposed began pouring the oil into the stove. A neighbor who was passing, heard cries, and running into the house found one of the children in flames, and the burning oil running about the floor. He wrapped the burning child in his coat, smothering the flames, and then put out the fire on the floor. Dr. Freeman who was visiting a patient near the scene of the accident, was immediately called, and dressed the wounds. The two children were five and seven years of age, and it is strange how one of them escaped the flames. The injured one is badly but not seriously burned.

Had the house burned it would have resulted in a large fire as adjoining the building was a grocery, a barn and several other buildings.

Mr. Chas. Dohse, head-sawyer, in Garrity's saw mill, on Maguire run, was seriously injured Thursday, by a circular saw. He was reaching down between the frame and saw, when the saw caught his shirt, and pulled him down upon it. It entered near the inner edge of his shoulder, cutting away nearly all of the blade, and came out near the center of his back, cutting the piece of flesh entirely off. The wound is as large as a man's two hands, and quite deep.

Dr. Day was immediately sent for and attended the sufferer. He describes the wound as being a fearful looking gash, but thinks there is a chance of his recovering.

J. H. Gillespie, who lives about four miles below Tidouite on the opposite side of the river, met with a sad accident on Saturday last. He was riding on a load of oats, which tipped over throwing him against a stone. He was severely hurt, and swooned several times. Mr. Gillespie is an old man and much enfeebled by the asthma. Dr. Bolard was called, and pronounced no bones broken, but that the shock might be dangerous.

Horace Black was arrested this morning charged with assault and battery with intent to kill. In a row last night, Black threw a large rock at Mack Ryan hitting him on the knee and injuring him, severely. Black is now in the lock-up, waiting for the return of the Justice from Warren.

ERIE CONFERENCE.

The thirty-eighth annual session of the Erie Methodist Episcopal Conference convened in the Court House, at Brookville, on Wednesday, and was fully organized. Bishop Jones was expected to preside, but on assembling at nine o'clock a letter was read announcing his inability to attend on account of sickness, and designated Bishop Gilbert Haven, of Boston, to act as President.

The usual standing committees were appointed, and all preliminary arrangements made for the satisfactory conduct of business during the remaining sessions of the Conference, which continued until Tuesday last.

George Emerick, aged twelve years and a son of John Emerick, living on the Roberts farm, met with a terrible accident recently. The boy was standing on a fence with a pitchfork in his hand and talking to his sister. From some cause or other he fell from the fence against the tines of the fork, one of which pierced the body, entering in the stomach and passing in the direction of the spinal column. Over four inches of iron was imbedded in his body, the other tine slipping over his side. The sister pulled out the fork. Dr. Barr was summoned and thought him dying, having no hopes of his recovery, as the tine had passed into his stomach. But he treated the case, and to his astonishment, he thinks he now sees signs of recovery.

John W. Foreman and Rebecca Snyder, in jail at Butler, charged with poisoning John Snyder, husband of the woman named, have signed their names to a paper, in which they say they are innocent of the charge, and trust in God as their helper and protector. In an address to the jury they say, "May it please God to choose such a one as will give our case a candid hearing and award us as such a verdict as we feel we have a claim to—of our innocence. He will through His Divine will, make it appear." In an appendix Foreman says that the report that he had ill-used his wife is untrue, but the reverse is true, and he winds up with the wish, "would to God that I had died when a child."

To THE CITIZENS OF PENNSYLVANIA.—Your attention is specially invited to the fact that the National Banks are now prepared to receive subscriptions to the Capital Stock of the Centennial Board of Finance. The funds realized from this source are to be employed in the erection of the buildings for the International Exhibition, and the expenses connected with the same. It is confidently believed that the Keystone State will be represented by the name of every citizen alive to patriotic commemoration of the one hundredth birth-day of the nation. The shares of stock are offered for $10 each, and subscribers will receive a handsomely steel engraved Certificate of Stock, suitable for framing and preservation as a national memorial.

Interest at the rate of six per cent. per annum will be paid on all payments of Centennial Stock from date of payment to January 1, 1876.

Subscribers who are not near a National Bank can remit a check or post-office order to the undersigned.

FREDK. FRALLEY, Treasurer, 904 Walnut St., Phila.
