LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

MAIL CHANGE. The mails from this point on the railroad will arrive and depart as usual, with the following additional mails:

All mails going east of Irvinetown, will be made up and sent north at 10:20 a. m.; this mail will close at 9:50, and no mail arrives for this point on that train. All mail matter from east of Irvinetown will arrive at 7:05 p. m. No way mail will be carried on that train. J. M. McKAY, P. M.

By request, Rev. H. Newell, of Franklin, Pa., will preach in the Presbyterian Church of this place on Sunday next. The subject of the morning sermon is not stated, but in the evening he will deliver a sermon, which he recently delivered in Franklin, and which was published by request, in the Spectator, of last week; the subject being "The Demoralization of the Country."

C. L. Hanna, of Hickory has our thanks for late files of Colorado papers.

Mrs. J. E. Blaine started to Cincinnati on Monday last, to visit her friends and the Exposition. She will probably be absent about two weeks.

A load or two of coal would prove very acceptable just now, and any one who is in the business and knows himself indebted to us will please take notice.

Dr. Fisher, Dentist, of Warren, will be in town during court week, at the Lawrence House, where he will be prepared to do any thing in the line of dentistry with neatness and dispatch.

J. E. Rupert, corresponding secretary of the fair to be held in Conneautville on the 8th, 9th and 10th of October, has our thanks for a complimentary ticket to the same.

The creek bridge was taken off the contractors' hands last week, by the commissioners. The filling in is all done, and it is worth while to go down there just for the purpose of crossing on the new bridge.

Somebody not having the fear of our muscle before his eyes has abstracted a shovel, a good one, too, from our coal house. If the aforesaid fearless individual will bring back the shovel, we will promise not to hurt him.

The Graphic Balloon did not ascend on the 10th, high winds being the excuse, but on the 12th it was regularly "busted" while being inflated. The managers propose to manufacture another and send the balloon to Europe or down the aeronauts.

Rev. O. B. Clark formerly chaplain of the 83d Regt. arrived at the place of re-union just one day after it had taken place, and was rather vexed about it. Looking around, however, during the day he saw a good many of his old comrades, and was mollified.

The following remarkably crushing item in regard to this paper is taken from that elephantine sheet, the Derrick, published at Oil City, by C. E. Bishop & Co: "The Tionesta Re-something-Reporter, Republican, Retraiter or something—says: 'For our part, we are in favor of letting the Derrick and railroad fight it out by themselves.' Very wise decision. This is a war of elephants and rats had better keep out; they might get 'tumped on.' We presume Colonel Phillips is very thankful the Tionesta chap does not decide to help the Derrick."

Let us take this item by sections and see how much sarcasm, the squint-eyed, bald-headed target for naval of floggers' whips has poked into it:

1st.—Affecting ignorance of the name of this paper, when the same issue has nearly all of an article taken from our issue of three weeks ago, in regard to the Assembly conference at Fryburgh. Not only are our very words taken, but our very italics, and the whole article put upon the public as a highly original and sarcastically cutting article. Not only this, but the Derrick has taken items from nearly every paper we have issued since its struggling birth; and it professes not to know our name! Thin! decidedly thin. Bishop, you sneak-thief, you should always endeavor to remember the names of those from whom you steal your highly original articles, else you may get yourself into trouble some day.

2d.—"Very wise decision."—We suggested that the Titusville and Petroleum Centre papers let the A. V. R. R. fight Bishop alone. And lo! the little whifflet canters off on its ear and barks agrily at our heels,—he don't want to be let alone; he wants people outside to know that he is big enough for other papers to take notice of, and is afraid our advice will be taken and he will sink into insignificance. No, sir; if he's let alone he's a dead duck. That's why he don't like our suggestion.

3d.—"This is a war of elephants."—i. e. the A. V. R. R. is one elephant, and Bishop, ye editor, ye blonde, ye damphool, is another elephant! which reminds us forcibly of one of Esop's Fables, in which the toad tried to swell himself up to the size of an ox and—busted. Now Bishop, you're no elephant,—you're a small puppy, and if you try much harder, and swell up much larger, reaching after the unattainable, you'll bust, and that soon.

4th.—Bishop in his great farce, where he appears as the "elephant," proposes to "tump onto" somebody. Now Bishop, just go around and "tump onto" anybody who is mouse enough to let you, but p-l-e-a-s-e don't try it on Lieut. Cushing, Charley Taylor, or us; or you will probably get jerked out of that elephant skin of yours, your back tanned, and be sent back braying to the Derrick stables.

Rev. J. Lusher, the new Methodist minister at this place, preached here on Sunday last, morning and evening. Rev. Reeser, the former minister has been placed on the superannuated list.

About one hundred of the survivors of the 83d Pa. Regt. met in Conneautville, on the 9th inst., and were entertained in good style, and enjoyed themselves profusely. The next reunion will take place either at Erie, Jamestown, N. Y., or Buffalo, and the 83d and the 4th N. Y. will jubilate together.

At Jenks' Jewelry Establishment, corner of Chestnut and Water Sts., Mendville, Pa., can be found all styles and prices of watches, jewelry, silver and plated ware, and everything else in the line. Everything in the store will be sold as cheap as can be purchased in any other establishment in Pennsylvania.

"Picking Cherries down the Lane" and "Happy Hours," are two new songs by the renowned Millard, both containing all the elements of popularity and both really excellent. They can be had at any music store, for the trifle of 40 cents each, or will be sent free of postage, on receipt of price, by the publishers, Lee & Walker, 922 Chestnut street, Philadelphia.

Pianos and Organs.—The makes of Weber; Steck; Matushek; Haines; Mason & Hamlin; Smith American; Estey, and several others. Foreign and domestic Sheet-Music, Music Books. Agents for the above named manufactures for this section, and for all the music publishers in the country. Send for catalogues and price lists.

On Wednesday, last with quite a large delegation of Odd Fellows from this place, we started for Lickingville to be present at the institution of a lodge at that place. On arriving there we found quite a number there from other lodges, in all upward of one hundred, assembled to start the new lodge on its way. D. D. G. M., R. Ruloffson, of Strattonville, had charge of the ceremonies, and with the assistance of some gentlemen from other lodges, among whom was D. D. G. M., J. G. Dale, of this place, the lodge was instituted in an impressive manner. The following are the names of the officers elected:

- N. G. A. W. Owens, V. G., J. S. Everhart, Sec'y., James Stanley. Asst. Sec'y., Conrad Daum. Treas., Amos Seizworth. Warden, D. R. Wilson, I. G., J. C. Seigworth. O. G., C. Miller.

The lodge, which is called the Yochama Lodge, No. 862, started with 20 members, and spent upward of $400 before starting, for furniture, regalia &c., all of which is gotten up in good style. The regalia is the finest we have ever seen in any lodge. It is confidently predicted that before the 1st of January next, the lodge will number upward of seventy-five members. After the ceremonies, the assembly gathered in the camp-meeting ground, where they listened to appropriate speeches from R. Ruloffson, Jos. Clary, D. D. G. M. of Mercer county, S. D. Irwin Esq., M. W. Tate Esq., and others. Taken altogether the day was one of substantial pleasure, and will long be remembered by all who had the happiness to be there.

F. E. Allison of Hickory has announced himself as a candidate for the Republican nomination for Assembly. Being the only candidate on the track of course he will be the nominee of Forest county. After that is done, Clarion may put up a Republican candidate, and a conference be held to decide who shall be the man to put Williams up salt river. Should the choice fall upon Mr. Allison, we have no doubt but he would represent this county and district as well as any one that could be suggested; but if it were deemed better that the Clarion man should run, Mr. Allison will not stand in the way of the good of the party. The whole question, after securing good men, will be—which of the two will carry the larger vote in both counties? And the answer to this question will probably point out the Republican candidate of the district. These questions, however will be fully canvassed and some definite plan of action decided upon before the October election. In the meantime, we would say to all Republicans of this county, vote for Allison at the primary election, and let him go forth with the assurance that the Republicans of Forest county will support him in all things that seem to be for the best interests of all concerned.

Court convenes next week, and all are looking forward to that time with hopes that a change, for the better in the money market, will take place, as a majority of notes given fall due at that time, and everybody has promised everybody else, that they will straighten up "that little bill" on court week. Added to this the fact that the return judges of the Republican primary meetings, assemble to count votes and decide who are to be the candidates of the party at the October elections. Boarding houses and hotels are laying in supplies of provisions to supply the inner man with strength to bear up against adverse decisions, small awards, &c., &c. After court week everybody will count their money and rejoice or mourn according to the footing up.

Gen. E. S. McCook, who served in the Union army during the war, was, on the 11th inst., assassinated by a banker in Yankton, Dakota. The murderer is in custody. The parties had an altercation early in the evening, and came to blows, when the banker was overcome. Afterward the parties met, by accident, and the banker shot McCook through the breast, causing his death the next day. The murdered man was a brave soldier, and enjoyed the confidence of all who were associated with him. He entered the army as a captain, and retired, at the close of the war, a brigadier-general. The news of his death will be received with sorrow by all who knew of his valor and services. At the time of his death he was Secretary of the Territory of Dakota.
