Time of Trains

Table with columns for Train No., Class, and Time. Includes South-1st Class, 2d Class, and North-1st Class, 2d Class.

LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

—Rev. J. Lusher will preach in the M. E. Church on Sunday next, morning and evening.

—Sabbath School closed for the season, on Sunday last. It will be reorganized again in the spring.

—The chestnuts are ripening and the boys are clubbing them. If the frost don't interfere a good crop may be expected this fall.

—Rev. Newell, of Franklin, preached on Sunday last, as announced, to good audiences. His discourse in the evening, on "The Demoralization of the country," was listened to attentively, and the truths were pressed home in a masterly manner.

—E. Klein, Jeweller, of Tidioute, publishes his card in today's issue. It will be seen that he is agent for the celebrated Elgin watches, than which no better are made. Hunt him up when you go to Tidioute, and you will get the worth of your money, every time you deal with him.

—A red fox was seen on the hill on west side of Tionesta on Sunday last. And now we suppose there will be lots of hounds out chasing that fox. It will not do, however, for any deer to get in the way of the hounds when they are after the fox, or they are liable to be bitten.

—Wm. Blum has bought out the interest of J. D. W. Reck in the blacksmith and wagon shop on the corner of Elm and Church Sts., and will hereafter carry on the business himself. Mr. Blum has the confidence of the community, and will probably have all the work he can manage.

—It will be seen by reference to our advertising columns that M. Einstein has bought out the store and goods of Proper & Reck, and will continue business at the old stand. Of course all are pleased that Einstein has concluded to stay with us, and we believe he's done a good thing for himself in doing so.

—At a dance once given in a settlement not a thousand miles from this place, a rustic was introduced to a lady, by a mutual friend. The gorgeousness of her attire struck him forcibly, and when introduced he looked straight at the lady and ejaculated, "Wall, I'll swan!" It's needless to say that the lady did not recognize him thereafter.

Pianos and Organs.—The makes of Weber; Steck; Matushek; Haines; Mason & Hamlin; Smith American; Estey, and several others. Foreign and domestic Sheet-Music, Music Books. All kinds of Musical Instruments, and merchandise of the best quality are constantly on hand at Jos. Steinberger & Co.'s, Music Dealers, Oil City, Pa. Agents for the above named manufactures for this section, and for all the music publishers in the country. Send for catalogues and price lists.

ELECTION RETURNS.

The Republican County Convention, which met yesterday was called to order by the chairman of the County Committee, and Jas. Green elected Sec'y. The return judges then presented their returns which are as follows:

Table of election returns for Assembly, County Commissioner, Auditor, Jury Commissioner, Coroner, and District Attorney. Lists names and vote counts.

On motion Miles W. Tate Esq., was re-elected Chairman of the County Committee for the ensuing year.

The Legislative Conference selected were Jas. Green, Hon. A. Cook and J. B. Agnew. On motion adjourned. Jas. Green, Sec'y.

The following named gentlemen are members of the county committee and chairmen of the different township's, for the ensuing year:

S. J. Wolcott, Tionesta Bor. Jno. Huddleston, Tionesta Twp. P. Connelly, Harmony Twp. James Green, Hickory Twp. Wm. A. Dusenbury, Kingsley Twp. Lewis Arner, Green Twp. Hon. W. R. Coon, Barnett Twp. John Merrellott, Jenks Twp. Robert D. Black, Howe Twp.

It is the duty of each chairman above named, to select their committee in each township, and organize immediately for the fall campaign. The committee will consist of five members. Let each chairman organize his committee immediately, and go actively to work without delay.

M. W. Tate, Chairman.

—A sad accident occurred in the Berlin settlement, six or seven miles from Clarion, on Sunday last, by which George Peiffer, a young man of that place, lost his life. It appears that Peiffer, with several other young men, were sitting on a log in the grove, and one of the party, named Swatzfager, had a gun lying on his arm, and was working with the lock, when the gun was accidentally discharged, the contents lodging in Peiffer's neck. The wounded man was caught by his brother, in the act of falling. He said, "I'm shot—I must die," and immediately expired. The deceased was a nephew of Judge Cook, from whom we got the facts. The occurrence has cast a gloom over the entire community, and much sympathy is expressed for the parents and relatives of the deceased. This is only one of many accidents, constantly occurring from the careless use of fire arms, and should be a lesson to all who know the circumstances.

—On Saturday last, while at Tidioute, we walked down to the river where the new bridge is being constructed, and just to satisfy our own mind, we tried the cement, and found that, after digging through a thin crust, we could run our knife into the cement the full length of the blade, without any trouble. Of course we felt better, because the cement there presents the same characteristics as that in the stonework of our own bridge. So if one is good the other must be; and if our bridge falls on that account, so! Tidioute's will share the same fate. It does not look reasonable, however that all the builders and contractors on the river should be swindled with poor cement, and we verily believe that it is all good, and take much comfort in our belief.

—The Berger Family and Sol. Smith Russell gave an entertainment in Tidioute, on Friday and Saturday evenings of last week. It was our good fortune to be present at one of these entertainments, and we were very highly pleased with the whole performance. Russell, himself, is as good as a dozen common concerts, and his efforts were duly appreciated by the audience. Geo. H. Ahrens, Jr., the gentlemanly manager of Grandin's Opera House, looks out for the best entertainments going, and Tidioute has a chance to enjoy all of them. At any time when a car load of 50 to 60 can be made up here, a special train will carry them to Tidioute and back, at reduced fare, the same evening. This will give our citizens a chance to enjoy the really first-class entertainment nearly as well as if we had an opera house of our own.

COURT PROCEEDINGS.

Sept. 22, 1873. Court called at 10 o'clock a. m., by Hon. Wm. P. Jenks, President Judge, Hons. Jno. A. Proper and A. Cook being present.

Constables called and sworn and returns received. Trial list called. Argument list called. Roll of Attorneys called. Grand Jury called and charged. Motions heard, and court adjourned to meet on Tuesday, the 23d, at 8 o'clock a. m.

Tuesday, Sept. 23. Court met pursuant to adjournment, and trial of cases taken up. J. W. Myers, for use, vs. Geo. W. Rose. Verdict for the plaintiff in the sum of two hundred and four dollars. Jas. Rafferty vs. Thomas Porter. Verdict for plaintiff in $97.00 and interest.

Foster Farm Oil Co. vs. Owston & Sowers. Verdict for plaintiff in $3,196. This last is a certified case from Venango county.

The following are the findings of the Grand Jury: Com. vs. S. C. Wright. Larceny. True bill.

Com. vs. Wm. Gallagher. Assault. Not a true bill, and prosecutor, J. R. Jones, to pay costs.

The Grand Jury recommend that better gates be put up at the entrances to the court house yard, in place of those now used, which, in the opinion of the Grand Jury are a nuisance. The Grand Jury was then discharged.

The balance of proceedings of this court will be published next week.

—Robert Black, Esq., of Brookton, this county, called on us yesterday, and informs us that the tannery at that place is turning out 300 sides of leather per day, averaging 20 lbs. to a side. There are seventy-three men employed on the tannery, and they poll fifty votes. They support a good school there, sending twenty-five scholars. 'Squire Black does the justice business up there, and the inhabitants don't seem to need very many fines and imprisonments. Sheffield is their nearest railroad station, and also their post-office. The hard times have not reached there as yet, and the citizens live in hopes they never will.

—The last pier of the river bridge is built and the trestle work is up ready for putting on the iron as soon as it comes to hand. The stone masons are now at work on the abutment. Foot passengers who are steady of nerve and bold of heart, can now cross on the trestle work and that part of the bridge which is complete. The iron for the last arch is expected soon, perhaps to-day.

—Proposals for carrying the mail to and from the depot will be received forthwith, at the Post-Office. The lowest responsible bidder will get the job. It occurs to us that there are plenty of chaps who would do the business well, and to whom the pay would not come amiss. Send in your bids, at once.

—Fred. Percival, General agent for the Northwestern Life Insurance Co., is in town, and will insure a man before he knows what he is about. We've seen him try it, and know whereof we speak.

—Harper's Magazine for October has the following contents:

A Lady's Enterprise, with fifteen illustrations; L'Envoi and Song; General Sherman in Europe and the East, with seventeen illustrations; The Lordship of Corfu; The Hampton Normal and Agricultural Institute, with twelve illustrations; Memnon; "Dat Tadeus," with one illustration; Who was Right?; Our Girls; The World and I; The Home of Paul and Virginia, with five illustrations; In a Tobacco Factory, with ten illustrations; Lottery; Detective Pinkerton; Hero Worship; A Simpleton—A Story of the Day; The Republican Movement in Europe (tenth paper); Semper Fidelis; A Loss to the Profession; Recollections of an Old Stager; The Judicial Record of the late Chief-Justice; Editor's Easy Chair; Editor's Literary Record; Editor's Scientific Record; Editor's Historical Record; Editor's Drawer, with four illustrations. Harper Bros., New York.

—New invoice, boots and shoes, mens', boys' and youths' boots, womens' shoes and gaiters, misses and childrens' shoes. Stock full and complete; come and see before purchasing elsewhere; we try to please all.
