-Some chap captured Dithridge's large boat yesterday morning, loaded it with butternuts, and started down the river. The constabulary fores are after them, and if they are captured they will learn that the way of small transgressors is hard.

-- C. L. Hanna, informs us that some native dogs killed his prairie dogs a few days ago. TIONESTA'S IMPROVEMENTS IN

There is a romantic emminence near Tionesta, from which can be seen with one sweep of the eye, the whole beautiful village, for its entire length, nearly two miles.

Standing here it occurred to us that a sketch of the improvements so plainly dotting the village below would be both interesting and instructive; and, lest the review should be too tedious, it shall be confined exclusively to the last eighteen months:

To our left, and not far from Jacob Shriver's trout pond, is Charley Hinton's new purchase, upon which he has erected a cottage. This is the pioneer improvement of the town in this direction, being northward from the Court House.

Just below is the small dwelling of Mrs. Robb, widow of Daniel Robb, former County Surveyor.

Next is Col. P. D. Thomas' large brick manufactory, for home use and Then coming down Elm street on its east side, is the fine two-story frame dwelling of Jacob S. Hood, for many years a citizen of the county, and who has plenty in "barn and in store" for the rainy days of life.

On the same side of the street, and nearly opposite Lawyer Tate's, is Lawyer Irwin's home, fully completed and neatly adorned.

On the other side is the two-story frame erected by John Wes. Stroup, and now owned by Sheriff Van Giesen.

On the adjoining lot, James Woodington a former resident of Lycoming county, has laid the foundation for a new frame.

At northeast corner of Elm and Helen streets is the fine transformation of T. B. Cobb, one of the most extensive and energetic lumbermen in Western Pennsylvania. Part of this magnificent structure was formerly known as the "Old Brown House," where the first courts of Forest county were held.

Just above, Col. Thomas is building a frame for a tenement house. One the west side of Elm street a the corner of Elm and Helen, Jacob M. Kepler's two and a half story looms up. Jake is a live Democrat, and used to live in Phillipsburgh, Centre county, and is now the fortunate possessor of a two hundred barrel well and a two months old boy.

Opposite the Court House gounds is a small frame owned by William Hep-

Just below, the neat dwelling of Bill Harlan, newly painted and sided, with the historical flag staff in front, from which on all election days and fourths of July the "standard shect" is given to the breeze by the patriotic William. Perhaps the influence of Those who wish to see it, can leave the old wigwam, which stood on this Further down and on the same side -Our borough schools commenced of Elm street, the neat new dwelling on Monday, the upper school being in of Mrs. C. D. Mabie is seen, whose charge of Thos. McLean, a teacher of husband owned to Holmes House, > Nearly opposite is Wm. Smearbaugh's frame, now occupied temporarily as a dwelling by William Law rence and his family.

> To the right and farther down is the Brick Bank building of May, Park & Co., which, although a young enterprise is a solid and substantial

> Opposite this again is the large frame block of Bonner & Agnew, in which is the post office, drug store, and so forth. Bringing the glass to our eye, we see "Jim," the post master, prompt to a minute as usual, with mail bags in hand, sighting for the ferry > and bound to make the "up train." Following still down Elm street. the house formerly owned by A. H. Steele, at one time Cashier of the Tionesta Savings Bank, and nowed by Geo. W. Robinson, of the firm of Robinson & Bonner, has been treated to an additional story, and a new coat of paint, and now presents a very attractive appearance.

The Lawrence House, owned by G. Weber; Steck; Matushek; Haines; G. Butterfield is the largest hotel in town, and was erected by Wm. Law-

Just opposite, Dr. Blaine is refitting what used to be Ed. Lathy's office, for ments, and merchandise of the best his abode; putting on additions and otherwise improving the lot which he now owns.

On the same side of the street Wm. named manufactures for this section, Lawrence is putting up a brand-new and for all the music publishers in the two story frame, for stores below and $131.17. country. Send for catalogues and offices above, which is fast approach-20 if ing completion. In the rear of his store he is creeting a chop mill, to be run by steam power.

Henry Swaggart, the Butcher, has refitted and modernized the old meat market, and the hungry population have steak and roast regularly for the first time in the history of Tionesta.

Nearly opposite the brick church John Reck, one of the solid men of the place, has laid the foundation for his mansion on earth, which is to be a two story frame worth from $3,000 to $4,000.

In the same enclosure upon the foundation of Judge Dale's former residence, Dan. Walters, Judge Proper's son-in-law, has creeted a handsome frame, two and a half stories, and mansard roof.

Then appear the new additions of their homes.

And still beyond, over Judge Proper's and H. H. May's comfortable to the breeze.

Just across the Tionesta Creek from this looms up the mammoth mill farm, with its slate roof, and glass globe sixty feet in air, reflecting the upward slant of the sitting sun.

Just above is the iron bridge, erected by the county, spanning Tionesta creek, a thing of beauty.

On this side, J. N. Teitsworth's new mansion.

Then Samuel Haslet's, on the hill, commanding the view of the river, for miles, and as neat a home as any man wants in which to dream away the coming years of life.

Al. Partridge's addition to his already large dwelling.

Samuel Clark's new barn, just in the rear of Lawrence's mill.

Eli Holeman's frame, on Race

Finally George S. Hunter's new bridge accross the Allegheny River, gradually rising from the ruin, wrought by last spring's ice and flood. George has plenty of pluck and money, and has fairly earned his reputation as a go-ahead man of business. His bridge enterprise will be finished before cold weather comes and will have much to do with the material growth and increase of the county.

And all this within eighteen months last past. What the next eighteen months may bring forth by way of 500,000, which, in these times, is a developments and buildings can be sum of money not to be sneezed at. pretty fairly estimated from this hasty glance. However, we understand that lected, we are in duty bound to consome fifteen or eighteen dwellings alone, are already under contract, or in contemplation, some of brick, and Those who worked to get the buildings a new block somewhere opposite located here, deserve the thanks of our Ttate's office, for stores, offices, and a people just the same as though their Masonic Hall, is to be erected in the efforts had been successful. spring. Tionesta is bound to compete in size, as she already excels in beauty, any of her sister towns along the river. She is surrounded by a fine lowing described personal property of agricultural district. The county is Alfred Patterson, deceased will be sold rich in minerals and lumber. Part is at Public Auction, on October 15th, yet heavily timbered with pine, hem- 2873: lock, walnut, and cherry &c; when cleared it will exhibit some of the finest rolling lands in the State. Roads are surveyed that lead from Tionesta 5 pairs log bobs; 1 pair road sleds; 1 to all parts of the county, at easy grades. The tide of population is beginning to flow in, attracted by the cheapness of lots in comparison with the surrounding towns, and the healthfulness of the climate. And general ous to mention. business is daily on the increase.

-Our readers will please notice that the election will be held in Howe twp. at Brookston Hall, Brookston tannery.

-The Postmaster of Pittsburgh has proven a defaulter in the sum of $33,-000. He was arrested and gave bail in $60,000.

-On Monday morning, very early a young man by the name of Bell was brought before Justice Mercilliott, by Constable Haslet, on a charge of horse stealing. It seems Bell was working for a man by the name of Altman, at Millerstown; this Mr. Altman was formerly from Shamburg, and on Saturday last sent Bell to that place after his cow, furnishing him the repairing of fine Watches. Orwith a horse and buggy. As Bell was ders by mail promptly attended to. getting ready to start he mentioned 39-1y. Charley Randall and Wm. Roberts to an overcoat, and took Altman's against his wife's protestations, while he was away, using language Mrs. Altman considered ungentlemacly, and when homes, is Capt. Knox's steam lumber her husband returned she told him manufactory, giving its sheets of smoke about it, which started his ire and suspicions that Bell was not going to return, and early Sunday morning he started for Shamburg, but on arriving of George Dithridge, on the Shreve there could find no traces of Bell, horse, buggy or overcoat. Now he was sure in his suspicions, and after considerable hard work and sharp practice as a detective, he found Bell about six miles from Shamburg spark ing his girl.

After getting a Warrant, and our Constable they went to the house where Bell was, and proceeded to arrest him, bringing to Bell's mind the old adage "There is many a slip," &c. On Bell being brought to Alt man's presence he explained that as he was not expected to start back from Shamburg until Monday morning, he thought he would drive over and see his girl, thereby having a pleasant time, and, as he told Altman, save his horse feed, these hard times. On being brought before Justice Mcreilliott he was discharged at once.

-By the Courier of yesterday, we see that the insune hospital has been located at Warren. The site is located on the Conewango Creek and consists of three hundred and thirty acres, for which the consideration was $33,000. So are our hopes, along with those of Titusville, Meadville, Franklin and Titusville, Meadville, Franklin and Erie, blown to the four winds of heavens. It is said that the cost of the buildings will not be less than $1,500,000, which, in these times, is a sum of money not to be sneezed at.
