ELECTION RETURNS.

-We have delayed this issue of our paper one day in hopes that we would have complete returns from our county, but have not succeeded entirely, and as we shall publish a tabular statement next week, we shall only give the result of the townships we have got, without the vote. The dishave got, without the vote. The discussed of charging a lady four dollars tricts heard from up to the hour of for board and only booking two dolgoing to press are, Tionesta boro, Tio- lars as the amount received. Comnesta twp., Hickory, Harmony and platet was made before Justice Strouse, Jenks;

The complete returns will probably elect the whole Republican ticket, with the exception of Coroner by nearly, if not quite 100 majority. Ittel will probably have 35 to 45 majority. So much is done, and the Republicans of this county have done well. Hurrah for our side.

The State Election.

The news from all portions of the State are as yet imperfect, but we have enough to know that the Republicans made such loud boasts of carrying the State. By the next Presidential election we confidently expect that the Democratic party will be a thing of clue to the party can be obtaine 1. the past. Most joyfully do we announce that Judge Gordon is now a Supreme Judge, and will answer for his honest bearing and Judicial fairness. As to Mr. Mackey, much has been said against him, but he has suregood work. All honor to the party who put these men in their high positions.

To the Clarion Jacksonian.

We are very sorry to hear of the continued absence of Porter, and loope be may turn up some where soon. We believe some of our citizens are interested in his welfare:

About the first of January last, Prof. Andrew Jackson Cameron Technical Porter, came to Clarion, and with the money formet.

Sprankle's Mills.

Sprankle's Mill

Prof. Andrew Jackson Cameron Te-cumseh Porter, came to Ciarion, and with the same. It is confidently bewith the money fornished him by certain parties, started a paper called the Jackson Democrat, afterwards changed to the Jacksonian. Some time after, J. of the one hundredth birth-day of the B. Watson, was announced as Porter's nation. The shares of stock are offer partner, and still louder professions of purer Democracy were made, and gasconade about "new departures" etc. Watson managed the business at home, and Porter traveled round extensively. Livery stables were patronized liberally, and money was borrowed promisenously. Responsible names were secured as endorsers on notes, and the banks discounted them readily. The Prof. as he introduced bimself habitually, attended institutes and lectured laboriously. Other young men felt rather cast in the shade that they had to work hard for a living, while the bachelor editor sported and

-Make money fixed and bent money freely.

But all things have an end, and all abough it whs announced with a great four was about to settle down, and rapid selling Sewing Machine, and arried and was about to settle down, and rapid selling Sewing Machine, and Patent Button Hole Worker, ever used saken another notion. In fact for four weeks Prof. Porter has not been seen in this section, though searched for diligourly by nersons who have fivery bills, bard bills, clothing bills, and numerous other bills, as well as by bankers, and endorsers on bank paper. His sudden taking off is mourned to the amount of over $44,000.

The surviving partner is in for a large amount, and a few others who were an obank paper. His sudden taking off is mourned to the amount of over $44,000.

The surviving partner is in for a large amount, and a few others who were credulous enough to think such an interior control of the control type for the paper are left in the lurch, and scores of others for various amounts. It may be that the big Indian showman has been to some extent made a scape goat, but whether the Jacksonian was a Greeley paper or not, the editor has taken Greeley's advice and "gone west."

-The following items are from the Titusville Herald of the 11th:

The proprietor of the Douglass House and his bar-tender have had a little falling out. Hall, the bar-tend-er, having lent the landlord a little money, paid himself out of the scrip hand over the counter, much against the wishes of second party. To fur-ther complicate matters, Hall was acand Officer Miller arrested the man, who will be brought up for trial today.

Mr. William McQuade dropped a pocket-book vesterday while at work on Swede Hill, and a little girl found it. Mrs. Joseph Grosberger, hearing what had been discovered, claimed the property as her own and took it. When McQuade missed his money he at once informed the police, and officer Miller succeeded in getting a clue to its whereabouts. The woman, however, denied any knowledge of the book when asked for it by officer Miller, but finally said her husband had it in his possession. He in turn denied having the pocket-book, but produced it on being confronted with a warrant. One hundred and fifty dollars remained inside, but $16.50 more which should have been there was gone. Grosberger was arrested and brought before Justice Strouse, who put him under $300 bonds to appear for trial this morning at 10 o'clock.

-The following items are from the New Bethlehem Press:

A set of thieves have been infesting the towns of Putneyville and Eddy-ville lately. On Tuesday night last, a horse was stolen from the stable of Jas McQuown in Putneyville; the horse was not his, however, but was one that was only borrowed for a short time, and was blind of both eyes, and have carried the election by from 530,000 to 35,000 majority. Thus again that belonged to Mr. Taylor McQuown. are the Democrats floored, when they instead of the one they had taken. On the evening previous, the same set of rascals, it is supposed, robbed the spring house of Mr. Daniel Beck, of Eddyville of all its contents. No

A serious accident, which may re sult fatally, occurred on Tuesday last near Sprankte's Mills, Jefferson county, Pa., the particulars of which are as follows: A man named William Hannah while engaged in picking apples, on the place of John M. Lingin ly reduced the State debt, and will fel er, fell from the tree and striking have a chance to continue in the same on his head fractured his skull and dislocated both collar bones beside injurning his jaw and biting his tongue quite severely. Dr. McCormick, was called in to reduce the fractures and otherwise relieve the injured man, and pronouncing it a serious case, expressed a fear that the patient will not survive his injuries.
