-Geo.' Hunner's grist mill was started up last Monday, and has already ground out over seventy acres fof first-class flapjacks.

-Our town at present writing is comparatively quiet, but the meditation thus forced upon the people will. bring forth its fruit in good time.

-Wm, Strauchon, of Red Hot Mills called upon us recently. Business at these mills, he reports, is quite lively. A little more snow and the business would increase materally.

ror of truth, that immaculate reprecounty, gets off the following in last week's paper:

"For years this State has been democratic if there had been fair elections and an honest count of the votes."

Now hold up, Brown! The elections are all over now, the new constitution is adopted, and we can see no earthly use of your going on in that manner. Suppose for instance that the majority of your subscribers were so ignorant as to believe this, would you not be doing them a positive injury by making them swallow such a statement as this? It is really hard to sit still and read your cold-blooded misstatements, to call them nothing harsher, week after week. We don't want to be hard on you, but indeed you know better than this. Do you go on the principle that because a man is a Demccrat, and subscribes for your paper that he is necessarily ignorant?-and because you presume him bursting with Iguerance, du you consider it your sacred duty to see that he gets no light nor truth from you? Shame! Brown, Do, for the sake of humanity, if for nothing better, give your readers an insight into the truth sometimes. Depocd upon it, your readers are not all as iguorant as you suppose, and they will rise up and call you-anything but blessed, You have a vast field of usefulness in your county, and be very careful from you abuse your opportunities, 1410

-Congress has agonized for a long time over the salary bill ; those whose desire for lucre is greater than their lust for power are kicking against any reduction, while others, from a sense of wrath of their constituents at home, are crying for a reduction. Probably there are somo great minds who are advocating a reduction on principle. To them all honor. Congressmen should be extremely careful how they vote on the question, or they will -The Derrick picks us up again, but find they have lost in votes much more our part, we cannot believe that any considerable part of these who advocare the larger salary, will ever show their faces in Washington again as members of Congress. It is entirely a non-party question, and no one party can claim either the honor or the infamy of the bill as it will finally pass -Faith! noble word! Still nobles the idea it seeks to represent. Faith has been for some years the fundamental principle of Protestantism ; in fact the endless chain upon .which all, re ligion is fastened. Faith ! It has been used by theolgical students and young men of a serious turn of mind, as the theme for eloqueut discourses to faith ful listeners. Preachers on exchange have that faithful sermon at hand. There is no discount on faith. It is a splendid thing to have in a family.

'l is another name for trust, and therefore the major portion of this community lives on faith. Faith, we believe

-H seenis as if the unhappiest sea--The Clarion Democrat, that mirson of the varied year has come at sentative of the unterrified of that last, in all its magnificence of cold purity and pitilessness. The time when human life with its wealth of joys and luxories and human life with multitudes of pains and miseries are brought like two piccures into the clear impartial light reflected from ice and snow as an awfol contrast in comparison with which death and life appear as twins. There are no joys more gay than winter's; there are no fetes Sewing Machines, Sewing Machines. and festivals half so spendid with wealth and beauty. There are no suf ferings so terrible as winter's; no miseries half so full of an uish and vain prayers. In summer the light and the warmth and the wild food on the hillsides, and at night the bed of flowerdecked moss, is for the poor, and they envy not the wealthy in palaces or on silken sheeted down. But winter that has come, alas! it breeds theft and ernelty and murder, done for she sake of life. Then let us cease praying for the good old fashioned winter and hope for an early spring.

-As dense throngs of eager humanity, homeless and houseless, driven ruthlessly from Oil City and Tylersburg, rush through our street in search of shelter, we deem it a humane duty to point them to the two story frame building just over the bridge, as you enter the town by German avenue. It, is wrong to allow so roomy a structure to pass its life uselessly. It was formerly the grocery and hardware depot of Fisher. For some years it has been out of use and repair, but it is still sound enough for a good many purposes. A boy here remarks that it would make a good school house, if the present one should be blown over, or should fall to pieces." It might do to hold elections in. At present it is a useless ornament and we thought perhaps it would be charity to point it out to those of a thoughtful mind looking for vacant architec. ture.

-The Governor's Message having been read after our forms were closed last week, and being of considerable length, wetwere not able to publish it. As it will be "old news" by this time, we merely publish a brief synopsis of it. It is admitted, however by all parties, that the message is an able and sensible documents Governor Hartranft is becoming more popular with the people with each succeeding year. -Persons suffering from stoves that will not draw, and will emoke and be contrary generally, are advised by one who knows to get another, and if this still refuses to be genial, take down the chimney and build a patent flue.
