LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

—During the month of February the national debt was reduced $2,520, 047.

—The dance at Lawrence's Hall on Wednesday evening last was well attended, we understand, and passed off very pleasantly.

—The Mercantile Appraiser's List appears in this issue. All interested should study it, to see that they are properly classed.

—Prof. Kraus, music teacher, has given up his music class in this place, and we understand, will teach in Tidioute the coming summer. He understands the business.

—Harry Mabie still continues on the sick list, although we believe he is improving slowly. He has had a long and tedious illness, and we hope he will soon be as well as ever.

—Judge Dale has been quite sick during about a week past, but we are glad to know that he is rapidly improving, and will doubtless soon be about again.

—In our report of the township officers elected at the recent election we neglected to state that Geo. Hunter, the bridge man, had been elected a Justice of the Peace.

—J. Bonner arrived in town yesterday, accompanied by his son Charles, who has been attending school at Jamestown for the past three months.
Charles has come to stay, at least for a few months.

—Judge Propper is talking of putting up a nice building between Walter's new house and the Rural House, during the coming summer. The structure will be built over Council Run, and will be a vast improvement to that particular part of the town.

—M. Carpenter, the photographic artist, is in town this morning. He has been for some time at Lickingville, taking pictures and superintending the construction of a movable gallery, which will, without doubt soon make its appearance in town.

—The weather is somewhat moist this morning, it having rained all night, and continuing by spurts this morning. We would not be surprised if we should have a first-class flood in the course of a few days. If the rise comes now, our lumbermen will undoubtedly start their lumber to market as soon as the water gets to the right stage.

—A man named James Brown, who has been for some time in the employ of Mr. Bond, at Bear Creek, met with an accident on Thursday last which may yet prove serious. He was hauling boards, and sitting on the load, when the sled went into a rut, throwing him off between the sled and an embankment, where he was fearfully crushed. Dr. Blaine was called, and found the patient's spine injured, and for a long time had not much hopes of his recovery. He is improving, however, and the Dr. now thinks he will soon be all right again.

OBITUARY.

HOLEMAN.—Died in Tionesta, at the residence of J. G. Dale Esq., Feb.
26, 1874, Alexander Holeman, in the 84th year of his age.

Judge Holeman was born in Lyecoming Co., Pa., and when eight years old came with his parents to the place known as Holeman's Ferry, three miles below this place. He remained on the farm where his father settled until about eighteen months before his death, when he came and resided with his daughter Mrs. J. G. Dale, remaining there until he died. At the time of his settlement at the ferry, the nearest white inhabitants, with one exception, were at Franklin and Titusville.
The exception was Mr. McCray's family, at Eagle Rock. Hence he witnessed the dawn of civilization here, and was personally identified with the rise, progress and improvements of this section. When he came, the smoke of the Indian wigwam was rising among the hills, and the children of the red men were his playmates. "He saw their heartstones become desolate and the white man's cabin rise beneath the trees." In every department of life he made the most of the few opportunities and meagre means within his reach, and, for his earnest endeavors, he had the satisfaction of feeling he had gained the confidence and respect of the community. He served three months in the war of 1812, and subsequently held a captain's commission in the militia. He was County Auditor, Commissioner, and for several years Justice of the Peace, in Venango county. In 1841 he was elected to the State Legislature, and while there he had few equals, and no superiors in influence. The passage of what was called the Relief Bill, depended in a large degree upon his personal efforts in its favor. Some of his repartees on that occasion were so keen, caustic and original, as to be long remembered especially by the opposers of the bill. Subsequent history has demonstrated the wisdom of those who staked their all upon its passage. He also served one term as Associate Judge of Venango county. His convictions of right were higher and stronger than party ties or party interests. He died of no disease; the machinery was simply worn out. He had lived more than the measure of years accorded to man, and was ready and willing to go when he was called.
He died like an infant going to sleep, without pain. His funeral was largely attended; the services being conducted by Rev. O. B. Clark, who was very well acquainted with the deceased in life, and his appropriate remarks on the occasion were listened to by a large and interested congregation. After the services, the procession moved down the river, to the place where nearly all Mr. Holeman's life had been passed, and he was buried beside his wife, who died some five years before he was called away. May his last rest be as peaceful as his life was useful, and may we all imitate his virtues.

—The Judicial Apportionment Bill as passed, puts this county with Warren and Elk as a district. This will necessitate the appointing of a Judge for this district until the next election at which time one will be elected. The bill passed so recently that we have not heard how many available candidates for the position of President Judge there are in the district. We have no fears, however, but there will be candidates enough, and among them all we doubt not, will be found those abundantly qualified for the position.
We will now have time to worry over the new Senatorial district to be formed this winter.

—Congress seems to be dead set against restoring to weekly papers the privilege of circulating in the county where published, free of postage. All this because some of the papers cried out against the abuse of the franking privilege by members of Congress.
The proportion against the restoration of newspaper privileges was about three-fifths of the whole body. There is a way of punishing these Congressmen who vote, not as their conscience but as their spite dictates, and that is to leave them to vegetate at home.
For our part, we fully intend, never to support a man for that or any other office of trust, who has voted against restoring to papers their former privileges.

—In several of our exchanges, among the officers of the Reno Oil Co., we notice the name of Capt. Brinton.
Now we beg leave to state that Mr.
Brinton was Lieut. Col. of the regiment in which we had the honor to be high private, and he was afterward transferred to Gen. Halleck's Staff with the full rank of Colonel. In these days, when nearly every man in the country is dubbed "Captain," "Major" or "Colonel," whether he ever saw a military organization or not we think it only just that those who won their honors on the field of battle, should have credit at least for the commissions they held.

—Only one Democratic paper on our exchange list lets the public know that Dimmick the Legislative black-mailer was a democrat of the first water, and that paper states that he was not a true democrat! If he had been a Republican, how would these immaculate sheets have howled about "radical villainy," "more stealing among radical office holders," &c. Now, however, the blackmailer, the first to try those little games, turns out to be a democrat, and in Democratic papers he is merely "the member from Wayne county." It is useless to enlarge on this kind of criticism.

—When it comes Sunday, it would seem more christian-like if those dogs that hold revival meetings and general gatherings upon the corners of our streets, would be killed, kicked, exterminated, shot, drowned, or even fed—put out of misery somehow.
Judging by the restrained sorrow and pain that filled their voices, one might judge that no animals ever experience such keen anguish and misery as tears the insides of these dogs. The nights of the week-days are not rendered so disagreeable because the bustle in a measure drowns out the canine din.
But when the peaceful Sabbath moonlit nights come, then we ask again, in the name of humanity, in the name of peace, in the name of all things pleasant and harmonious, feed or demolish those sick, suffering dogs.

—Persons elected to the office of Justice of the Peace, and who desire to obtain a commission, must file in the Prothonotary's office, within 30 days after their election, written notice of their acceptance of the office.
Where they are elected to fill a vacancy, they must inform the Prothonotary how such vacancy occurred; whether by death, removal or otherwise. Attention to this will prevent the delay and trouble that often occur in the issuing of commissions.

—It is understood that Mr. Jos.
Grove will put down a well on the side hill above the jail, commencing in the course of a few weeks. It is to be hoped that his efforts will be crowned with success; or in other words, that he will get a well that will flow enough oil to pay him liberally for his trouble.
Should the well prove a success our town will have use for all the hotels and boarding houses in it.

—We are very sorry to have to report that Mr. S. J. Wolcott has made up his mind to leave Tionesta for "other fields and pastures new" in the course of a few weeks. It is his intention to move to Chautauque county, N. Y., where he has a large farm, which will, no doubt, fully occupy his attention. By his departure Tionesta loses a member of the School Board, a Councilman and a first-class citizen.
May his lines be cast in pleasant places.

—Mr. Frick, collector of the Schuylkill Navigation Co., at Fairmount Locks, Philadelphia, was in town a week ago Friday, on a visit to the families of Col. Thomas, and S. D. Irwin, Esq. He is a fixture in his position with the Navigation Co., having been in his present place about fifteen years.
His time is so fully occupied that his visits are necessarily short. We hope he will find it convenient to come up again during the summer.

—Quarterly meeting on Saturday and Sunday last, was well attended, but as the Presiding Elder was sick, Rev. Barton, who formerly had charge of this circuit, conducted the meeting in his stead. Although all sympathized with the Presiding Elder in his sickness, they were glad to see Rev.
Barton again. It is rumored that Rev. Burton will be the next Presiding Elder in this district.

—W. W. Mason, Esq., who has been practicing law in Tionesta ever since it became a county seat, has concluded to "change his base," and, after looking about a little, has made up his mind to locate in Sharon, Mercer Co.
Mr. Mason leaves a good practice here, and all are sorry to see him go. Should his new home not suit him we hope he will again take up his residence among us.

—The re-union of the 19th Penn'a Reserves will be held at Mercer on Tuesday, the 19th of May next. At the last meeting of the regiment, Col.
J. S. McCalmont, of Franklin, was selected as orator of the day for the coming re-union, with Col. J. B. Knox, of Clarion, as alternate, and Gen. A.
J. Warner, of Marietta, Ohio, historian.

—Chas. Randall informs us that he intends to put twenty-six feet more of the same size, to the main part of the Rural House, in the course of a few weeks. When this is done there will be an abundance of room for boarders in this place. Improvement seems to be the order of the day.

—Quite a number of our citizens attended Jno. B. Gough's lecture in Oil City, on Thursday last. The subject treated upon was "Now and Then." All with whom we have talked express themselves highly delighted with the lecture.

—Among the many candidates for the position of U. S. District Attorney, left vacant by the death of Hon. H.
B. Swoope, we see the name of Hon.
Henry Southard, of Erie, formerly of Ridgway, is favorably mentioned by some of the papers of the northwestern part of the State.

—The woman's temperance crusade movement is gaining strength with each day. Bargo down before them as fast as they tackle them. No move in that direction has yet been made in this part of the State. Whether or not the effects of the movement will prove lasting time alone will tell.

—Geo. Dimond, of Oil City is the patentee of a raftman's stove, which is also a good packing box after the trip is made. It must be seen to be appreciated. The stove is now on exhibition at the Tionesta House. Mr. Dimond is taking a number of orders for them.

—A bill has been introduced into the House granting licenses to hotel keepers. It fixes the rate at $200 where the sales amount to $10,000, and $100 where they amount to $5,000 all other licenses $50. This bill or one very similar to it will likely become a law.

—B. J. Reid, Esq., well-known to many of our readers as a lawyer of fine abilities, who has been practicing in Titusville for the past two or three years, is about to move to Erie. He will, in all probability, accumulate a good practice in a very short time.

—Col. Thomas, of this place was at Harrisburg last week at the re-union of the old members of the Legislature, he having represented Chester county, we believe, in that body some years ago.
No doubt it was a pleasant occasion.

—Protracted meetings are being held at the M. C. Church in this place at present. Rev. Lusher, we understand, has been instrumental in the conversion of something over thirty individuals in his circuit this winter.
