Time of Trains At TIONESTA STATION, on and after November 17, 1873 :

SOUTH-IST CLASS. - 11:02 a. m., 3:26 p. m. Train 60 NORTH-IST CLASS. 3:36 p. m. 2D CLASS.

On the River Division i. e. from Oil City to Irvineten, up the river is North; down the river, south.

LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

-J. W. Stroup has moved into the house formerly occupied by Rowland Cobb. The house formerly occupied by Stroup we believe is still vacant.

-At the M. E. Church on Sunday last, four young ladies, all new converte at the meetings now going on, were baptized by Rev. Wm. Grove, of Oil City.

-It will be seen by reference to the Sheriff's sale published in this issue that the date of the sale has been changed from the 31st of March to the 6th of April.

-There is a rumor that the Danforth House, of Pithole, is to be moved to Tionesta and put on the foundation of the old Holmes House. We scarcely credit the story.

-Quite a quantity of ice was put ·up by those having ice-houses in town, on Saturday and Monday last. The ice is not of a very good quality, but still is a great deal better than none.

-Notwithstanding the bad roads, some of the denizens of the coal country about Lickingville bring in some very respectable loads of coal, which they sell at twenty cents a bushel.

-W. W. Bloss, formerly of the Titusville Herald, later of the Press land, died there on Thursday afterthas gone to Kansas, where he will noon last. Mr. Leonard was a membusiness. He is a ready and excellent writer.

-Geo. Sawyer has been putting in the winter building doors, at D. S. enough on hand to supply the whole who had more friends than Mr. Leoncounty for a year to come.

-Thirty-seven on thirty-eight creek pieces, each containing an average of perhaps 100,000 feet of lumber, are already rafted in the creek at Lacytown, ready to be run out on the first water. The rafting in will be all tinished this week, and will probably make the number of creek pieces just wait until our lumber is run out amount to at least fifty. Look out for and the agricultural resources of Forlively times when the water comes up.

-The new postage law brings a considerable revenue from the New York advertising agencies. Geo. P. Rowell & Co's quarterly bills upon newspapers received exceed $430; those of S. M. Pettengill & Co. are above $350. while the agencies of W. J. Carlton, Bates & Locke, W. W. Sharpe and others most prominent, pay from onefourth to one-eighth of the above

-Because the Derrick saw fit to make a few remarks on an article contained in this paper of two weeks ago, on the restoration to papers of their former postal privileges, the Tidioute Journal must needs follow suit; in othor words, the Derrick pipes and the Journal dances; the Derrick mourns and the Journal laments. The Needle of the Journal must be a zephyr needle, because it has no point whatever. "be original or nothing," to that paper. not original, and it is nothing.

-A remarkable row, reminding one of the feuds among the Scots in elden times, or those of the Southern chivalry of more modern times, occurred at Centreville, on Saturday last. It seems that two families named Stuck and Deitrich, who live on adjoining farms, both farms extending into the village, have been on bad terms for a number of years. On Friday night a singing school was held in Centreville, on which occasion Ellis Deitrich was attending door. Old Mr. Stuck came to the door of the house where the singing school was held, and wanted to get in. Deitrich demanded his ticket. Stuck said he hadn't any. Deitrich then demanded fifteen cents. Stuck refused to pay it, and crowded in past Deitrich, who knocked him down and dragged him out. War was at once declared, and both families armed for the fight. The male members of the two families met in Centreville on Saturday, and at once peeled for the fray. The result was one of the Stucks was severely stabbed in the back; ofe of the Deitrichs was shot through one of his ears, and one of his wrists; another of the Deitrichs was hit on the head with a four pound weight, from the effects of which he will probably die. It is not supposed that the affair will rest here. The courts will probably be called in to decide upon the merits of the case, and it is to be hoped will permanently settle the difficulty.

If we are rightly informed these same families had about the same kind of a fight some eight or nine years ago, in which even the women were implicated. Such doings savor more of border-ruffianism than of the civilization which should exist in this old settled country.

-The temperance men of Tidioute are having a hitch with the hotel keepers of that place. They have no license there, and it appears that nearly last week in favor of enforcing the law, in which Dr. Shugert took an active part. Mr. Wiggins, of the European Hotel said he liked to hear temperance talked by temperance men, but not by a man who had taken drinks over his bar, and that lately. The name of the person was demanded, and Mr. Wiggins said it was Dr. Shugert. Dr. Shugert rose to explain, and said he had taken drinks over Mr. Wiggins' bar, but that the question now was whether the law should be enforced or not. Still he would pledge himself to entirely forego the use of the beverage if Mr. W. would do the same. This is talking to the point. It is supposed that both parties have since taken the pledge.

-Charley Leonard, of whom we spoke last week as being sick in Cleveagain try his hand at the newspaper ber of the 124th Ohio, during the war, and was wounded several times, severely at Chickamauga, where a ball passed through his lungs, from which he has suffered ever since, and which was Knox's mill. He informed us, private- the final cause of his death. We know ly, the other day that he had doors of no journalist in the Oil Regions ard. He will be sincerely mourned wherever he was known.

-Granges are being started in the counties around us, and it is predicted that before next winter they will be as numerous in this State as they are throughout the West. The time for granges in this county is not yet ripe; est are developed, then, if the organization is still alive, we will probably the "old heads" are chary of expressing have a dozen or two of them within an opinion at all, but their silence inthe county lines.

-The New Hampshire election has resulted in the auccess of the Democrats by a plurality vote. A prohibition ticket was put up, and did just what those movements very generally do,-accomplished the defeat of the very party that would have given encouragement to the temperance cause. The Republican loss was almost exactly equal to the prohibition vote.

-Smith Foreman is busily at work preparing the store room of the new Lawrence building for occupation by the Superior Lumber Co. Store, which ty-five aspirants there certainly must will probably move into it in the have been something better than was course of a week or two.

—C. A. Bandall, at the Rural versed yesterday in relation to the House, is agent of the Clarion and prospective U. S. District Attorney's We would repeat the old admonition Tionesta stage line. Persons desiring to go by that line can secure seats by but it is entirely unnecessary; it is applying to him. The stage always though the assertions in this direction stops at the Lural House.

Rell of Honor.

The following are the names of those scholars in attendance at the upper room of the Union School, in Tionesta, whose attendance, deportment and progress, during the last six weeks, have each been marked 100. This mark denotes the highest proficiency in studies, punctual attendance and good deportment:

Misses Kate Cobb, Nettie Hunter, Anna Hulings, Emma Davis, Sally Knox, Emma Sloan, Belle Shoup, Cora Knox, Anna Sawyer, Maria

Others stand equally well in pro portion to attendance. Where all have done so well it is hard to discriminste. The average percentage of attendance, from the commencement, of each pupil is 92 per cent.

O. B. CLARK, Teacher. -At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Pennsylvania Petroleum Railroad, held at the McHenry House, Wednesday, March 11, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

J. H. Devereux, President, Cleveland; A. H. Steele, Vice President, Titusville; R. E. O'Brien, Director, Meadville; A. H. Steele, Director, number, and the stories may be a lit-Titusville; J. A. Dale, Director, Tio- tle better, but it is hard to improve on Erie; R. D. Benson, Director, Erie; Thos. Warnock, Director, Meadville; F. H. Gibbs, Director, Titusville.

-Mr. Wolcott and family leave for their farm in Chautauqua county, N. Y., this week. Mr. W. Davis, head sawver on Dithridge's mill will occupy the house soon after it is vacated by Mr. Wolcott's family.

-In all probability one, if not two select schools will be started in town about the first of April. The tax for all the hotels have been selling the school purposes in this borough will forbidden article. A meeting was held only supply school for about five months in a year, hence the necessity for subscription schools.

-For a small town we have an unusual number of large men here, there to approach, but it's dangerous to stir them up too much. -

-There are a number of able-bodied men about town, waiting for a fresh, when they intend to take a "steerage" passage down the river on rafts. Contrary to the usual custom, these passengers are boarded and paid something for their trouble, instead of having to pay fare.

Trout Fishing cannot be lawfully indulged in before the 1st April. For fine can be imposed.

-Information was received in Pittsburgh on Saturday last that McCormick, Speaker of the House of Representatives, was decided upon as the successor of H. Bucher Swoope in the position of U. S. District Attorney for the Western District of the State. The nomination had not yet been made, but it was supposed would be in the course of a day or two. There were in all some twenty-five condidates for

The following on the subject is taken from the Pittsburgh Gazette :

The appointment, or selection of Hon, H. H. McCormick for the vacant United States District Attorneyship is still a subject of conversation among the members of the legal fraternity. The general feeling manifested is one of genuine dissatisfaction, if it does not amount to positive disgust. Some of dicates the drift of their thoughts. Those who do speak of the appointment are rather more free than complimentary.

There is no concealing the fact that the gentleman is not looked upon by his brethren as a shining luminary of our local legal firmament, and some even go so far as to hardly grant him a place among the smallest of the twinkling little stars.

It is generally conceded that it would have been a very difficult matter to secure an appointee who could adorn the office with such splendid talents as those for which the late incumbent was peculiarly distinguished. But the lawyers say that out of twen-chosen or it was a poor lot of timber. Some of those with whom we conlegal experience expressed a belief that he had never been admitted to practice in the United States Courts, were not of a positive character. If 38 if he has had any experience there the record is chiefly characteristic for its brevity, and in that respect, bears a similarity to his experience in the County Courts:

If the opinion of lawyers is of any weight, the prospective incumbent of the "vacant chair" in the Custom House, is not flatteringly endorsed as the fittest man for the high position.

-We believe the day is not far distant when the enlightened public opinion of the country will demand uni varsal education applicable to and enforced in every section of the Republic. Our perpetuity and safety as a Government depends on the intelligence of our people. The higher the standard of intelligence the safer and more permanent will be our institutions. In his Farewell Address Washington left us his views on the subject. He said : "Promote, as an object of primary importance, institutions for the general diffusion of knowledge. In proportion as the structure of a government gives force to public opinion it is essential that public opinion should be enlightened." The party that follows this advice will not lack the earnest support of the people.

-The April number of Ballou's Magazine is issued, and is fully equal to any that has appeared. Perhaps there may be a little more variety in this nesta; J. W. Hammond, Director, any one number of Ballou's, for it is edited with such care that all tastes are suited. The boys find a sea story in each number, the men a tale of adventure, and the ladies poetry and delightful love stories. In addition to all of this there are illustrations of popular subjects, and yet the price is only $1.50 per year, or 15 cents a single number, and each subscriber who sends a year's subscription receives a pretty little Chromo of considerable value as an ornament. Published by Thomes & Talbot, 36 Bromfield St., Boston, and for sale at every periodical depot in the country.
