. LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

-Rev. Lusher will preach in the M. E. Church, in this place, on Sunday evening next, at the usual hour.

-The Town Conneil meets once a month this year, regularly, and oftener if it is found necessary. We believe constitution, hence the above heavy no important business has been transncted as yet.

-Rev. Clark's School commenced on Monday last, with quite a good attendance of scholars. Miss Arner's school will commence in the lower room, on Monday next. She teaches matter.

at work for some days auditing the awakened from sound sleep by the borough accounts. The job is not quite distressing cries made by what was finished yet, but the voters will have supposed, at first, to be wild goese. a chance to see how things stand when They flew around, over the town makthe sattlement is finished,

-The Central House has put up a I large and handsome sign, representing two sides of a triangle, the lettering on which is so plain that "the way fairing man, though a fool, need not err therein." The painting was done, we believe, in Tidioute.

-The trustees of the Odd Fellows' Home Association held a meeting in Meadville a few days since. The Home will be dedicated on the 9th of June. James. B. Nicholson, Hon. Schuyler Colfax and P. G. Farnsworth, of Tennessee, are expected to be pres. its grub, and consent to be gazed upon -The Treasurer's Sales will probably appear next week, as we understand they are all made out and ready for the printer. Probably more than the usual number of tracts will be ad- Impression is, however, that that body vertised, on account of the recent panie, from which the people of this section have not yet fully recovered.

-The office of the Argus and Radical at Beaver, was burned on Thursday ented, belonging to M. S. Quay, Secretary of the Commonwealth. The

-A decided opposition being manifested throughout the Western District of this State to the appointment of Mr. McCormick to the position of U. bers of the Forest Republican, and S. District Attorney, the name of our files are incomplete without them : David Reed, Esq., of Pittsburgh was sent in in his stead. Mr. Reed is very highly spoken of by the press of his city.

-On Wednesday last Mr. Rutan offered an act in the Senate, providing for the appointment of a commission to report to the Legislature a uniform system of School books for use throughout the State. This is a step in the right direction. There is scarcely a school district in the Commonwealth which has not been bored more or less in regard to suggested changes of books, and hardly one but has been

-Several of our country exchanges, and especially the Raftman's Journal and Times, of Clearfield, make honorable and deserved mention of Hon. John Patton, of Clearfield county, as a candidate for Lieutenant Governor. General Patton represented the old Nineteenth District in 1861-2, in Congress. He changed the party majority, carrying the district by a majority of 1,600 over Colonel J. R. Kerr, Clearfield then for the first time, and the last, we believe in its history, giving a Republican majority. The General was very sure of a renomination, which, however, he declined, He is at present President of the First National Bank at Curwinsville. He is a gentleman of popular manners, widely known and greatly esteemed. If nominated, he would strengthen the tickg', and if elected, would adorn the position .- Pittsburgh Gazette.

-After quoting the bills of several papers, among which is that of the FOREST REPUBLICAN, for printing the new constitution, the Tidioute Journal gets off the following remarkably smart commente:

Our wise and beneficent law makers at Harrisburg are puzzled and disgusted with the publishers and hardly know what to do. Of course the REPUBLICAN'S claim is very modest, only being five or six times its advertised rates. Besides all this a good many of the papers bought expensive supplements containing the constitua thousand sheets. Its hard luck to get only from $600 to $1000 for folding cours sheets, printed in Harrisburg, into an edition of 500 or a 1000. And all these papers blowed about back-pay grab. Bah!

This document was printed in the columns of this paper, and our bill corresponds with our regular rates. The Journal wasn't considered of enough account to publish the new blow at all those who did publish it. If the editor of that paper would fill its columns with the last word of the above extract, he would, beside showing his species, tell less bare-faced falsehoods, and have more original fied that there was oil in that locality

The Borough Auditors have been 4 o'clock, nearly all our citizens were ing a terrible fuss, having lost their bearings. A fire was built back of John Hulings' house, and the birds gravitated toward the light, one of them coming so near that it was captured. The rest would probably have shared the same fate, but the noise made by the capture of the first one scared the rest away. But imagine the surprise of the captors when they found that instead of a wild goose, they had bagged a beautiful swap. It is now in durance vile, just back of the Central House, and seems to eat with philosophical indifference. It is viewed by admiring crowds every day.

Resolutions are occasionally offerearly adjournment. The prevailing canuot get away from the Capital previous to the 1st of May. Very few bills have been finally disposed of, but a number of general impriance are under way. Under the New Constitumorning of last week, together with tion legislation moves very slowly, fluid. a fine brick block, in which it was lo- owing, perhaps to the fact that it is a new harness to all, and they have not yet learned just how to pull in it. It office was owned by a stock company is auticipated that the "rush" of legand was a valuable institution. It islation is yet to come. If it does, will be started up again immediately. and the legislature wants to get through with it, there is no use of talking of adjournment at this early day.

is wrong, but the date of the paper is mistake as to the number of creek Sept. 13, 1870.

Vol. 4, No. 26.

These papers are very necessary to us, and if any of our subscribers have them, or any of them, and will bring or send them in, they will confer a great favor upon us, and will be liberally paid for their trouble.

-The women's praying movement met with a check in Cleveland, on following complimentary notice of Thursday last, but such a check as of our citizens from the Warren should make man blush for his kind. Ledger : Two bands of women, one on the West Side, and one in Cleveland proper, were visiting saloons, praying for the proprietors and pleading with them to disist from the sale of liquors. The band on the West Side was surrounded by a drunken mob, and the kneeling women nearly trampled into the earths Two of them were severely kicked. A citizen who tried to protect them was nearly killed. A policeman, also, who tried to keep the peace, had his head laid open to the skull in several places. The ladies were only saved by flight.

In Cleveland the scene was hardly less disgraceful, although none of the woman sustained bodily injury, but they were grossly insulted by the mob, and epithets of the most obscene nature heaped upon them. This brutish behaviour of the liquur men and their vassals, will do more to help the temperance cause in Cleveland, than all the laws ever framed for the suppressioh of the traffic.

-We are informed that about 25 Alleghenies left the mouth of the creek during the late rise. Raftsmen were as numerous as ever, there being enough to have put at least a double crew on each raft that pulled out. The general wages paid were about eighteen dollars for the trip to Pittsburgh. The weather has been cold since Sunday, and the water has fallen rapidly, so there will probably be no more lumber run until the June flood, always provided that we have one. It is the universal wish of the people of this country that the lumber may bring large cash returns; then we may realize that the panic is over.

-S. J. Wolcott, just previous to his departure, informed us that it was likely that he and Mr. Grove would put down another well on the hill opposite Trunkeyville during the coming season. They were pretty well satisand didn't like to give it up until they found it. Their last venture up there produced about five barrels a day, but as oil was low they did not pump it. If their next well is a success they will open out a new territory within our county; "a consummation devoutly to be wished."

-We have received a copy of "Home Life in the Bible," which is advertised in another column, and must confess it exceeds our expectations. It is profusely illustrated with steel engravings, and printed with large clear type on beautifully tinted paper. The contents, as far as we have been able to examine them are excellent. The publishers desire agents in all parts of the country. Here is a chance for some enterprising young man or woman.

-Messrs. Mason and Wolcott both rather sooner than he anticipated, on account of a press of legal business in his new place. He will visit our Courts ed in the Legislature looking to an for perhaps a year to come to settle up the business on his hands when he left. Mr. Wolcott goes to his farm, there to "raise" butter of a superior quality for the markets. He is not yet entirely cured of the oil fever, and in all probability will spend the greater part of next summer boring for the

-The present is, to a very large extent, Conference time among the ministers of the M. E. Church. The Pittsburgh Conference is in session at Blairsville, presided over by Bishop Foster; the Central Pennsylvania Conference is in session at Altoona, in charge of Bishop Scott; the Philadelphia Conference is in progress at Easton, Bishop Wiley presiding; the New Jersey Conference is holding its session at Camden, in charge of Bishop Ames, and other Conferences are in progress.

- In an item on the rafting at La-This paper is marked vol. 4, which bytown last week, we made a great pleces which had been put in there. The number was stated to be nearly fifty, while the facts are that it was nearly one hundred and fifty pieces. Also, instead of there being 100,000 feet in a piece, as we were informed there are only about 30,000, so the aggregate number of feet was not far wrong after all.

Mr. W. A. Greavee, the Artist, has lately produced some elegant portraits of several of our town's people, among whom are Mr. and Mrs. Judge L. D. Wetmore, Mrs. Weatherby, and Mrs. Scott, mother of E. W. Scott, formerly of the Scott House. The three former faces are familiar to our people, and so life-like and natural do they appear on canvas that they almot seem to address you in the pleasant manuer so peculiar to the originals. We cannot do Mr. Greaves justice in a notice, but get him to do some work for you, and the work itself will speak more to the point than we can. Mr. Greaves is one of the rising geniuses of the day, and his name as time advances will be found high up on the scroll of fame. Portrait painting is his specialty, but he also does some fine landscape work.

-James Brown, of whom we spoke some weeks ago, as having been badly crushed, while hauling boards at Bear Creek, has since taken a bad cold, which has rendered his recovery extremely doubtful. There is a slight chance that he may recover, but it is very slight.

P. S .- Since the above was in type we learn that he died at 2 c'clock yesterday morning.

-The flood extended to Clarion river where we learn they had a good rise, on which a large amount of lumber went out from Clarington and Cooksburg, and some from above. This has been a flood to make the hearts of the lumbermen sing for joy. May they all get their lumber to market in good shape.

-Mr. Cerpenter, the picture man has again made his appearance in our midst, bringing his gallery with him. He has "set 'er up" alongside our office on the south side, and is prepared to take any thing from a small gem to a creek piece. Photographs of all sizes made to pattern, and satisfaction

-During the late rise in the creek Sel. Whitman came down with a raft of logs, and couldn't exactly make up his mind which span of the bridge to run under. He finally split the difference and the raft by running on a pier. He only lost a few logs, he in-

-Mr. G. Jamieson has purchased the real estate formerly owned by Mason, consisting of two lots and his office, and his residence and lot. The price we believe was $3,000.

-Jas. Huling has removed his barber shop to Smearbaugh's building. just north of Tate's Law Office, where he is always to be found on Wednesday, Friday and Saturday evenings.

THE REPUBLIC.-This Magazine for March contains an extraordinary amount of valuble and instructive matter. The most important articles are: "The Expenditures of the Government for the Past Year," and "The Growth of the Country and its Lesleft town last week, Mr. Mason going sons," either of which is, to the polical student, the statesman, and the philanthropist, worth more than the Annual Subscription price of the Magazine. The Platform of the Granges, The Postal Telegraph, Letter from Secretary Delano on Indian Affairs, Postage on Public Documents, The Railroads, and numerous other articles add greatly to the value and interest of the publication. The Appendix contains the instructive speech of Gen. James A. Garfield on Government Expenditures, which should be read by every citizen, and also the able speeches of Hon. S. W. Kellog, of Connecticut, and Hon. G. L. Fort, of Illinois,on the Finances. The Republic Magazine is Published at Washington, D. C., at $2 per year, and should be subscribed for by every person desiring an accurate and thorough knowledge of public affairs.
