and papors are publithed anywlers Our thanks are due to thoose who have ninden us by their encouragement and nupport, and it is our desire to better merit their patronage with each succoeding year. Although we are al. ways to be found on the Republican ways to be found on the Repubican ride of the house, we are not of those who condemn all measures that do not originato wilh our party. Our paper secounts of Democratio dishonety and Republican purity, but wo are in weekly receip of democratic exchangee that make it their businees to ferret out and thow up every instance in which a Republican official has proved which a Repubinand unfaithful to his trust; the renson This is not practied more amoug republi. ean jourasts, iv, we preaume, beenuse there are onone of them largo enough to constain the namee of all the demo. oratic dofiulters, As for as houesty, neither party cana lay claim to a great. neither party can lay claim to a great. er portion than the other. Fraudanre conatantly practiced, and one party io represented angtrongly as the other eyes to the fact that bad men of our party have been, and an ceanatiy "doing those things that ought not thinge which ought to be done.". But If thin is the case, where are the Democracy? pointing out the etright puthe which they refuse to follow, and tand ing niways and forever in the way or is in rorealed always furnibhing their full quota of the swiodiers. No, it it not that the Republican ppoty is ail bonent, or that the Demperatic party is all dishonest, that this paper alway edvocated Republican principle; ; It ie becauno of the good work the party has done, and is doiug, alwaynateading the yain of any truly great reform, and almays legiolating for the poor mann makiag his patho as casy an leginla tion cad ever make it. Is there an abuee) tho Republican party is a ways firt to preseribe s remed away. Is there any way by condition of the poor of all races an ougues car be bettered? the Republican party gitudes it out and makes a law, while demiocrato are devising ail manner of plans to clog the wheele logistation. Is the credit of the Unio assailed? there, qluays in front, is the Republican party, prockiming by it acts that the public credit must be accs that the public eredit must be suasinined at all harards. When the democracy wanted to "repudiate" the Ropublican party said, "Every dollar of the indebtedness shall be pnid coutracted." What is the esult? the bouds of the Governmeet, because of Republican legielation, are on an pa With gold, and will bo until the gov-oroment takes them up. For these and for many other rensons which pare forbids us to mention is this paa ty, anJ will be while that party bold he proud position it now occupice.
