LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

- The Literary Society meets at the residence of A. B. Kelly Esq., this evening.

-The Central House has had a street lamp erected in front. A very good idea for these dark nights.

-G. W. Sawyer has been sick for the past week, with neuralgia, and other painful, though not dangerous ailings. He is improving rapidly.

-Whit. Davis moved into his new house, on Monday morning last, and W. P. Mercilliott, Esq., moved into the Mason House on Monday afternoon.

-- The roads are again in rather bad condition, owing to the melting of the heavy snow of last week. Those who have no coal will have to borrow until the roads get better.

-The borough council met on Saturday evening last, but, we are informod by the Secretary, nothing definite was done. The committee on Streets, we believe, was continued.

-Jas. Thompson last week caught a twelve pound pike in the creek at Lacytown. He had caught two or three previously, but none so large. He used a spoon hook.

-Mr. Dithridge's new planing mill arrived at the depot one day last week, and was taken over to the mills shortlors of the Lawrence House in Tionesta, on Wednesday, the 22d day of April inst., for the benefit of the young and popular Pastor of the M. E. Church, Rev. John Lusher. We hope our citizens here and in the surrounding townships, will make it a point to attend and help consume the good things of which there will be a liberal supply provided, leaving their eash and contributions with the usual freedom of our people ou such occasions. The irrepressible Morris Einstein is Treasurer of the concern, and will be happy to receive the contributions of any who may necessarily be detained at home on that evening. If you cannot come, do the next best thing and send in a liberal donation ; but come if you can.

-The Pottsville papers have been boasting somewhat of a watch in the possession of one of their citizens, and severing the cords. An attempt which (the watch) has attained the venerable age of over a hundred years. That is a pretty old watch for that place, but we were shown a watch on Saturday evening last, beside which the Pottsville watch is of recent manufacture. Our old watch is now in of H. H. May of this place. It was manufactured in London by T. Gardner, in the year of our Lord 1665, and was brought over in the Mayflower by a Pilgrim named White. From him t descended to his son Perigrim White, who was the first white child born in New England. The watch decended from generation to generation among the Whites until the family name ran out by reason of no male children being born to the last White, who, we believe, was the Grandfather of H. H. May on his mother's side. Benj. May, now of Norristown, carried the watch for a number of years, until about 1865, when he handed it over to his nephew, Benj. White May, as the next heir to the old heirloom. The watch is of silver, enclosed in an outer detachable case of the same metal; in circumference it is between the sizes of a gentleman's and a lady's watch of the present day. It is about one-half thicker than a gentleman's watch of modern manufacture; has a ailver face with Roman numerals to mark the hours, and figures ranged round the outside to mark the minutes. When set going it ticked very much louder than any watch we ever heard, and Mr. May, of Norristown, says, it, it kept excellent time. If any of our cotemporaries know of an older watch now in the possession of any from them. This watch, in all probability, will be a feature of the Center- us. nial Exhibition to be held in Philadelphia in 1876.

-At the Literary Scelety, which met at the residence of S. D. Irwin, Esq., on Wednesday evening last, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Cone, of Oil City, were present, and contributed materially to the entertainment of the evening. Both, on invitations of the society, read selections, which were well received. Mr. Cone, by request, gave a short account of his trip to Vienna the treatment of public questions. as a Commissioner to the Exposition. His account was very interesting, and was listened to with pleasure by -all the members of the society. When- It is full of wholesome advice and valever they can make it convenient, the Tionesta Literary Society will be glad Drifting ?" contains many plain facts to have the presence and assistance of Mr. and Mrs. Cone.

-There was one of those same kind of outting and slashing scrapes took place at Lickingville one day the fore part of last week. A young Walters, who lives near Newmanville, stabbed Dabner Host some four or five times, one blow cutting his arm to the bone was made on Monday last to arrest Walters, and the house in which he was hiding was surrounded, but he jumned from a window, and by superior speed distanced his pursuers, and we"believe is still at large. All orderloving citizens should do their utmost the possession of Benj. W. May, a son to have the law meted out to characters of this kind.

> -The Tionesta Union Sunday School was organized on Sunday last, at the M. E. Church, by the election of the following officers :

Superintendeat, Miles W. Tate. Ass't Supt., W. R. Dunn. Secretary, P. M. Clark. Treasurer, G. W. Robinson. Librarian, S. D. Irwin, Ass't Librarian, Samuel Riddle. The teachers of the bible classes are, los. Grove and S. D. Irwin, Esq. The school will meet hereafter at 9:30 A. M., at the M. E. Church. All are invited to attend.

-The Post Office has been moved from the Bonner & Agnew Block to the Acomb building, formerly occupied by the Superior Lumber Co Store. The change was made, we believe, to give the Central House more room. Mr. Myers, the watchmaker, is to move into the Acomb building in the course of a few days, and, when Davis' building is put upon its foundation, Fones' Drug Store will occupy the lower part of it. Then the Central House will occupy the whole building.

-Ten inches of snow covered the spring landscape of our place on Frithat up to the time he quit carrying day morning of last week, and the amount of work that was done shaveling off side walks, on that morning, was more than was required during citizen of their bailiwicks, let us hear the whole of the past winter. There is "shoddy" in glass, as well as in in woolen fibrics. Consumers of kero-sene are sometimes almost discouraged, so frequently do chimneys break, without any apparent cause, rendering the cost of chimneys about equal to that of oil. Cheap-ness being the order of the day, a great many manufacturies make chimneys from silicate of lime, instead of from lead. The initiated may teil the different qualities of glass by ringing them; the vibrations of the lead glass have a clear, ringing, bell-like sound, possessing the requisite strength to withstand expansion and con-traction, as well as the general pressure of use, and will outlast half a-dozen of the lime glass chimneys. Fiftaen cents in-vested in one of the lead chimneys is money well spent, even though it injures the "trade" in this chapter kind, which it most assuredly ought to, and doubless will.
