

The Democrats in the Senate have begun their obstructive measures by refusing to vote for the nominees for Judges in the new districts formed under the new Constitution.

It is evident that the publishers do not entirely like Senator Rutan's bill in favor of a uniform system of text books.

The following items are taken from the Clearfield Journal: On Friday, April 10th, Mr. James Stirk, while engaged in sawing pickets, on Mr. J. L. M'Pherson's mill, on Montgomery creek, had his left thigh bone broken by a slab which was caught by the saw and thrown backwards with sufficient force to inflict the injury sustained.

On Tuesday, April 7th, a little son of Mrs. T. H. Spence, of Goshen township, met with a serious accident, under the following circumstances: He was riding on a wagon, when, by some means, he was thrown off the seat.

The Petersburg Progress says: On Saturday night after the theatre was out, Mr. Iseman, with a lady traveling along the road between Petersburg and Foxburg in a buckboard, when he overtook four drunken rascals, one of whom attempted to get on behind.

James Clulow, of Frenchcreek township, met with a serious accident on Monday afternoon last. He was duck-shooting at a mill-dam on his farm, and while lifting his gun to shoot, one of the barrels was prematurely discharged.

The Thirty-third ballot was taken in the Massachusetts Legislature last Friday which resulted in Gov. W. B. Washburne being chosen as Sumner's successor by the following vote: Whole number of votes 262; necessary to a choice, 134.

The Petersburg Progress says: Mrs. Sipler, of this town, has in her possession a bible which is two hundred and sixty-three years old, having been printed in the year 1811, nine years before the landing of the Pilgrims on Plymouth Rock.
