LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

-Rev. Lusher will preach in the M. E. Church, next Sabbath evening. -S. J. Wolcott, a former townsman is at present in town on a visit. He is welcomed back by a large circle of in quantities from the river just now. When properly scored and cooked the him, as he has conducted business sucker does not make a bad dish.

-A large amount of logs have come down the creek for the Superior Mills during this freshet. It is probable same time accommodate customers in of a few days.

-Wm. and Frank Reck, who have spent the last two and a half years at Ross Run, have moved back to town, and, we believe, are boarding with John Reck. J. D. W. Reck has moved into Acomb's building.

-A goodly number of our towns smen are at present down the river. having goue in various capacities, including those of pilots, hands, cooks, c. May they their pockets filled with currency.

-D. D. Williams, the Conneautville enshier, is now in jail at Eric. His bondsmen bave refused to continue as sureties. No one but his wife and The trial will come off at Pittsburgh streak of bad luck that day. in July.

-Everybody had fondly hoped that our cold weather was over, but vesterday was a day that even "Old Prob." had not calculated upon. The weather was cold enough to necessitate the wearing of overcoats, and snow fell occasionally.

-W. W. Mason, Esq., formerly of this place, but who recently moved to Sharon, Mercer Co., has formed a copartnership in the law business with J. N. McClure, Esq. Mr. Mason is a native of Mercer county, and will undoubtedly have a large practice there.

-Remember the Donation at the Lawrence House this evening. Rev. Lusher is a man who deserves remembering by the people of Tionesta, and we hope that all will take or send substantial gifts for the occasion. Refreshments of various kinds will be

-During the rafting excitement last week two slight burglaries were perpetrated. The Central House and Lawrence House being the sufferers. At both places an antrance was effected by raising a window. At the Central a lot of cigare and about four dollars in money was carried. At Lawrence's pies and other provisions were gubbled. said and sailed down the river.

-Our readers have doubtless read a notice which was published in this papaper some weeks ago, asking the Legislature to pass a supplement to het act of May 1st, 1861, to extend the powers and duties of the Commissioners of the scheme know as the Big Level Road until the meeting of the County Auditors for the year 1877. This matter has been laid before the Legislature in the interests of those who have the job, and we would merely suggest that now is the time for remonstrances to be signed and sent in if any stop is to be put to the operations of those who are making fortunes out of this scheme. We have never heard the Big Level Road spoken of by any citizen of our county except in terms of censure. Ever since 1861, the lands of Jenks and Howe townships have been taxed to help put the read through that part of the county, and probably not more than five per cent. of the morey so received has been expended on the road. Our citizens will do anything to belp those town ships to throw off this burden; all they have to do is to send their remonstrances down, and they will be signed by nearly every voter about here. There is no time to be lost, and the remonstrances should be sent to Harrisburg as soon as possible.

-A boy, whose name we could not ascertain came near shuffling off this mortal coil in the creek at Buck Mills, one day last week. He was on the forward end of a creek piece which came over the dam, and by some means lost his balance, falling in the water so the paft went directly over him. He didn't come to the top as was anticipated, and the hands searched for him. Directly a man saw some thing white in the water, some three feet below the surface; he reached down, and it proved to be the boy's arm. He was speedily taken out and in a short time was fully recovered from his bath. That boy will never be any mearer death until he takes his final leave of this mundane sphere.

-Mr. Herderson, for a year or more past manager of the Superior Lumber Co. Store, is about to leave Tionesta, and go into business for - The slippery sucker is being taken himself at Brookville, his native place. Our citizens will be sorry to part with since be has been here in such a manner as to be true to the interest of the business he was engaged in, and at the that the mill will start up in the course the best manner. He is to be succeeded by Mr. Brooks, who is at present in the store getting the run of things. Mr. B. is highly spoken of by those who know him intimately.

-Thomas Kime, of Stewart's Run fell off a raft into the creek, on Thursday, and came pretty nearly putting a period to his existence. By means of prompt assistance, however, he was rescued from his dangerous predicament, and now treads the soil again in his usual health. He fell into the creek at Oldtown three times on the same day, and waded out without assistance. For fear our readers might he mistaken as to the cause of these frequent accidents we would say that we know Mr. Kime to be a strictly children are permitted to visit him. temperate man, He simply had a

-Another flood has visited us since the date of our last paper. Several millions of lumber have been run out of the creek, and we have no idea how much has floated past this place on the river. There seemed to be almost a floating mass of lumber and square timber from the time the water was high enough until it was too low to run. We are very much afraid the market will be overstocked this spring and cause a decline in prices. Should this be the case the lumber business will not be as brisk in this region for a year to come as it has been for some time past.

-One evening last week, some one who evidently has a grudge against David Hunter, went into his barn, and unloosed two of his horses, and opened the door so they could run at large. The night train ran over and killed one of them, a young horse which was very much valued by its owner, and would, even in these hard times, have zen. The trains on this road were commanded a good price. The person who did this dastardly trick is as yet unknown, but if over the bands of fifty-nine years of age. the law clutch him, he will suffer for his maliciousness -Henry Hinckley, ex-mayor of Titusville, died suddenly in that pity, Thursday afternoon. He was injured They then hoarded Mr. Lawrence's some time since by the cars and had never thoroughly recovered.

-It seems that we stand a chance of having a grange in Forest county after all. A meeting was held in the Arbitration room of the court house. on Friday evening of Jast week, and a grange organized. Jacob Kepler is to in January, we believe, at Franklin, be Master of the Grange; S. H. Haslet, Treasurer, and Dr. Blaine, Secretary. A charter is to be sent for forthwith. Some twenty persons will go in as charter members. As we understand grange movements no political importance attaches to them.

-The wife of James Davis, black smith, at Ford & Lacy's mill, Green township, this county, gave birth the other day to a boy whose left knee is located on the back part instead of the front part of the leg. This reversed knee is perfectly formed, and the foot in proper position, while in all other respects the child is well proportioned and natural. As a result of this curious freak, the child touches its chin with its toes with all the facility of a trained acrobat.

-John Jamieson returned from Cincinnati on Monday last, and reports having met J. T. Dale and Jas. Savage there, who told him that their ago. It's a long trip to Louisville.

-A political fight of 1872, in Arkans, s, bids fair to become a war of ly discouraged. bloodshed and confusion. In that year Elisha Baxter and one Brooks were candidates for Governor. The election was closely contested, but in the spring trade. His fishing tackle the end Baxter was declared duly elected, and took his seat. Ever since one cannot fail to be suited. Also, a that time Brooks has been trying every means to have Baxter ousted and is selling at panic prices, for instance himself proclaimed Governor. At Blue Jacket, Double Nickel plated, last about a week since, a court of inferior jurisdiction rendered a judgment in favor of Brooks, who immediately et, blued, 89. Cartridges sold in protook forcible possession of the State House and assumed the office of Governor. Baxter was forcibly ejected from the State House, when he immediately set up headquarters in another public building. Both men have armed forces at their back, Brooks having only about 200 troops, while Baxter has from 1,000 to 1,500. The United States troops occupy the ground between the opposing forces to prevent bloodshed. The Federal government, refuses to interfere in behalf of either party, claiming that the courts have jurisdiction in such cases. There may yet be hot times there.

-A man named Peter Healy, a pathter, committed suicide in Oil Cit one day last week by cutting his throat with a razor. He had been sick for a few weeks previous, and had gotten downhearted, and frequently talked of making way with himself. On the day the suicide occurred, his wife left him alone about fifteen minutes, and upon her geturn she found him lying in his bload, his throat cut, and the razor still in his hand. The man was generally esteemed by his acquaintances.

PENSIONS .-- Widows and dependent relatives now receiving pensions at the rate of ten dollars per month, whose husbands in the former cases and sons in the latter ware easigns in the United States navy, are, by act of March 3d, 1873, entitled to fifteen dollars per month. Invalids of the same rank are entitled to the same amount for total disability. The return of the pension certificate to the Pension Bureau is all that is necessary to obtain the incracee.

-Coll Wm. Phillips, President of the Allegheny Valley Railroad, and a prominent citizen of Pittsburgh, died in that place on Tuesday, the 14th inst. The A. V. -Our readers will recollect the tragedy which occurred at Oil City last full, in which one Laribee was supposed to have killed a colored man named Williams. Laribee was tried and found guilty of murder in the first degree. He was afterwards granted a new trial, which will take place the latter part of the present month.

-According to the Democrat they have an original telegraph operator in Clarion. Having received a message the other day from a man who had missed a train, telling that he would come by private conveyance, he took a message blank, drew a train of cars with a man running, after it, signed the sender's name, and delivered the same in style.

-The cremation theory has a disciple in Philadelphia, in the person of a physician. His son died last week, and the father erected a furnace in the cellar of his house, and reduced the body to ashes.
