LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

-Preaching in the Brick Church next Sabbath evening by Rev. Lusher. -The trial of D. D. Williams the Conneautville cashier, which was to have been tried at Erie this term has been changed to Pittsburgh and will come off in October.

. -John P. Park, Esq., formerly connected with the Banking House of May, Park & Co., of this place is a candidate for Democratic nomination for Assembly in Venango county.

-Two-wecks from Saturday next the Republican Primary Meetings occur. Republican, make arrangements to be at the polls on that day without fail. It is the duty of every man in the party to attend the Primaries.

-W. R. Johns, of the Enlenton Messenger is an Independent candidate for Assembly in Venango county. If our memory serves us Mr. Johns has been in all parties that give places or pelf, and it is very appropriate that he should now run "Independent." -The Oil Stockings of Franklin scooped the Ancker Club of Oil City, on Friday of last week, carrying away with them that $100 which was staked on the game. That is a good deal of money for Oil City to lose in these times of 75 ct. oil. Better play for fun hercafter.

The Crawford Co. System.

It will be seen that the Chairman of the County Committee, has published a call for a meeting of that body on Saturday next. As we understand it, the object of the meeting is to place before the people a code of the rules by which they will be governed, for them to vote upon.

It will be seen that there is a difference between the rules published in 1868 and those which have guided us since 1870; the latter being different by reason of two sections of the former having been lopped from it. The rules of 1868 we publish on the first page of this issue, and those of 1870 will be found on the 2d page. This is considered necessary at this time because of the ruling of the Congressional Conference, in admitting the Delegates appointed by the county committee and denying the others seats, which action was strictly in accordance with the instructions of the State Central Committee. The latter body rules that custom makes rules, and as it had been the custom of the county committee for some years past to appoint and intruct conferees, the delegates were pronounced qualified to sit with the convention.

It is now agreed by all parties, that as we are in a Congressional district, where we, as a county, really have a voice, it is meet and proper that the people at their primary election should vote for the candidates, Congressional plate. Here is what he says of the and Senatorial, and conferees he appointed by the return judges, instructed according to the vote of the people at the primaries. We would suggest, therefore, that the county committee at their meeting next Saturday, place both cets of rules before the Republicans at their primary elections, and let them choose by which they will be guided. Next week we will publish the proceedings of the committee, that all may see and know all about the quession up n which they will un doubtedly be called upon to vote.

TITUSVILLE, July 27, '74. ED. REPUBLICAN :- Dan. Rice was here, and for a little space all, "some older some younger," were happy.

-The big strikes down the river create considerable conversation in the slippery circles.

-The race between the Bloss and Drake Hose Companies for a silver trumpet was won by the Bloss boys.

-Picnics of all sorts, from the Sunday School to the Demi Monde style are the every day occurrences of this shade loving community.

-The entertainment of the Courier Hose Minstrels was rather good. This organization has no connection with the Hose Company of that name.

-W. H. Andrews, the dry goods Barnum, expects to leave Titusville soon. Lis increasing business at Cininnati requires all his energies; so he says. -The fight between the Plymouth Pastor and the hero of the Golden Age, calls for the lion's share of time and talk. Without doubt it is the greatest Tilt-on record. Beats'yer' common affairs all to pieces. -The feeling of the community in general is, that, if by economy and patience, the present dullness can be lived through, a time of good, genuine prosperity must follow; never to equal the times of five years ago, but steady reliable times, like those of any thriv--The large barrel Factory situated in the East End, on Watson Flats, fast approaches completion. Already some dozen or two noisy fellows are staving off starvation, within its walls, When fairly under way, it will roll out about 2,500 barrels a day, giving employment to 300 or 400 coopers. -Senator Anderson has his park and stand it as long as any of them illuminated these evenings, and open to visitors. editor of the St. Mary's Gazette : Brandon came all the way from St. Mary's on Wednesday of last week to see the bear perform in our streets. As he stood gazing upon the antics of bruin, with his hat jammed on the back part of his head, his hands in his pockets nearly to his elbows, the topacco juice oozing from the corners of his mouth like fermentation round a ley in case any interference was made beer barrel cork, and one of his well known ginger-bread grins enveloping his classic features from ear to ear, the by-standers were about equally divided as to who presented the most dignified appearance -- Brandon or bruin.

In addition to this, he last week gave Parsons, of the Advocate the benefit of a column and a quarter complimentary notice, ending up with three stanzas of intensely exciting and highly original poetry, written upon the spur of the moment. If these kind of notices appear periodically in the Democrat hereafter, we shouldn't be surprised to be summoned to attend his into the hip, causing death as above funeral soon.

-Among other societies there has been organized a lodge of the United Order of American Mechanics in this place, called Tionesta Council No. 342. -The Tilton-Beecher scandal has assumed shape, definite charges having been made by Tilton against Beecher and Tilton's wife, which both the latter parties deny totally. The case is when they get through we will know all about it. Enough has been made public however to convince us that Tilton is either a fool or a knave. -A terrible flood occurred in and about Pittsburgh and Allegheny, during Sunday night last. It is thought that a waterspout passed over that section. The loss of life and property was enormous. The last news from the scene of the disaster, reports seventynine dead bodies recovered, and upward of two hundred still missing. -Glass jars, tin cans, sealing wax, &c., for putting up berries and fruit, at Robinson & Bonner's. 16tf

-Last Wednesday evening Henry Perry, a citizen of SnyJer township, was shot by a man named Amzia Sibley, a near neighbor, resulting fatally on Sunday morning. It appears that a family difficulty existed between the parties, an improper intimacy existing between the wife of the murdered man and Sibley, and that threats of violence had frequently been made by Sibwith him. On the evening the crime was committed Sibley passed Perry's house, when he was hailed by some members of the family and asked to take home some tinware that had been borrowed to be used while huckleberrying, and while engaged in conversation Perry ordered him to go away, and not talk to his wife, but he refused to do so, and Perry coming toward him with a hoe in hand, he pulled a revolver from his pocket, saying that he would shoot if Perry came any closer. It is not known whether he made any further movement to strike Sibley or not, but he fired, the ball taking effect in the abdomen, passing stated.

A post-mortem examination was made on Monday morning, by Drs. Sweeney and McKnight, and an iuquest held by J. W. Green, Esq., be-fore the following jury : Jos. P. Tay-lor, Peter Galushia, Jas. McConnell, Samuel McLaughlin, Wm. Wilson and R. O. Moorhead. After hearing all the evidence in the case, a verdict in accordance with the above statements was rendered.

Sibley is still at large, but hopes are entertained that he will be arrested and justice meted out to him .- Brookville Republican.
