LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

-A. B. Kelly, Esq., Cashier of May, Park & Co., is at present absent on business at Brookville.

-The bymn books for Presbyterian services have arrived, and are at this office. Those who want them can get them by eatling.

-Sand hill cranes abound on the islands in the river between this place and Tidioute; woodcock are also said to exist on the islands to some extent.

-We notice Benj. May, Esq., of Norristown, is in town on a visit to his friends. He is looking hale and hearty, and is apparently enjoying himself

-There are a number of our enterprising farmers who own and operate mowers and respers, but as yet we have heard of one who has been injured by them.

-Hon. C. B. Curtis, of Erie, was vesterday nominated for Congress by the Republican district conference com- The first makes out that Gen. White posed of delegates from Warren, Erie and Venango counties.

-Mr. Brown had a horse killed on a logging job rear Jug Handle one day last week, and C. F. Gillespie had one boof taken off one of his horses on the same job by a rolling log.

-The Beecher investigating com mittee find Mr. Beecher not guilty of the charges upon which he was arraigned. Popular opinion, as far as we can learn, also acquits him.

-Grangers, attention. The meeting night of the Tionesta Grange is changed to Saturday evening. The first meeting under the new rule will take place on Saturday evening next.

-From our exchanges we learn that a regular organized band of burglars are infesting Northwestern Pennsylvania. It might be well for our citizens to provide means for their reception should they come here.

-I. O. O. F. Rebecca Degree, D. D. G. M., H. G. Smith, of Union will be in town on Monday evening next, 7th inst., for the purpose of conferring the Rebecca Degree. Members will please take notice.

-We invite attention to the card of the Empire Hotel, of Tidioute. This is a good place to stop, and guests nominating candidates in the future. built at considerable expense to the are always sure of good rooms and good treatment. We have tried it, and know whereof we speak.

-Capt. Knox, in addition to putting an extra story on his sitting room, The Congressional Campaign.

We append extracts from two of the Clarion papers in regard to the opening speech of the campaign by Gen. Harry White, delivered in the Court House, in Clarion, on Tuesday evening last.

LOOK ON THIS PICTURE.

General White then came forward and addressed the meeting in his usual eloquent style. The speaker, during his discourse, discarded all the dead issues of the past, and in a careful manner stated and discussed at length the issues of the day, at the same time endeavoring to enforce upon the nudience the importance of carefully study. ing those issues so that they might be enabled to go to the polls and east their ballots in a manner truly becoming American citizens. The speaker then defined his position as a Republicans He did not beg for the votes of the Republican party, as politicians are generally wout to do, but he frankly asked the voters of Clarion county, irrespective of parties, to carefully consider the issues of this campaign, and to more carefully consider what action would be best and safest for the welfare of this great Republic. The speaker continued throughout his discourse to discuss the live issues in a true statesmanlike manner, always appealing to the intelligence of hearers. In closing he hoped that every man present and, in fact, every voter in the district, would study the issues and vote honestly and intelligently, and by so do-ing he assured them that the State, district and county tickets of the Republican party would be unanimously elected in November next. In conclusion General White thanked the intelligent and oppreciative audience for their kind attention, and then retired amidst the most profound and enthusiastic applause.

AND THEN ON THIS.

G. W. Arnold introduced General Harry White, who entertained the audience with a speech an hour and a half long. We intended giving the points of his remarks, but could digcover none. For a pluasible, smooth and sophistical talker when a buncombe epeech is needed to kill time White is the man to wind up and set running, but in close logical argument and vigorous debate he fails. His audience knew him by reputation as an orator, but few had ever heard him, and many have been the expressions of disappointment, for he really seemed taboring with difficulty, and did not even do average justice to himself.

We ask all people of any party whatsoever, if it is possible for two honest men of good common sense to attend a meeting, and differ honestly to such an extent as the above extracts would have us believe. The first extract is from the Republican, and the second from the Democrat, both published in the moral town of Clarion. sustained his reputation as an elequent and forcible political speaker, The second would have us believe that rel shooting season. It will be lawful Harry White, a man known and acprofound speaker, made a speech, the shade trees, which afford the visitor -Latest returns show that Ohio opening speech of his campaign, too, cool shelter and retreat from the over-

Do you ever think, Mr. Brown that your zeal for Democracy exceeds your love of the truth, and has made you, time and again, violate the ninth commandment of God? Reflect on your sins, and retract your false witness against your neighbor, and you may in time be within reach of mercy and pardon. Recollect that

-Mr. Jas. G. Clark, the Poet-Voealist, is announced to sing in the Presbyterian church of this place on Tuesday, the 22d inst. Mr. Clark has given entertainments here before, and they have always been well patronized.

W. West, Harness Maker, advertiscs with us to-day, for the first time. He is located in the Roberts Building opposite the Rural House, and is prepared to do everything in his line that may be called for. He keeps everything in stock that his line calls for, Give him a call.

-Mr. J. L. Craig, Agent at Tiones ta station, informs us that more freight is being shipped from this point now, than at any time since the road was constructed. This is owning, to a great extent to Dithridge's Mill, which ships an average of one and one-half cars per day of box boards.

-Attention is called to the new advertisement of L. Spears, Blacksmith, and H. W. Roberts, Wagon Maker, in this issue. Mr. Roberts is known to all who are liable to be customers of his. Mr. Spears comes among us well recommended, and will undoubtedly secure a fair share of public patronage.

-On Saturday last while riding toward Newmanville, with S. C. Sloan, he killed a large black rattlesnake cheap, on long time, by applying to just beyond S. H. Haslet's farm; and the editor of this paper. on Monday, coming back over the same route he killed another similar one about forty rods from where the first one passed in his checks. Both were lying across the road.

-The Democracy have nominated State Ticket as follows: Warren J. Woodward for Supreme Judge; John Latta for Lieutenant Governor; Justus F. Temple for Auditor General, and William McCandless for Secretary of Internal Affairs. The nomination of Judge Trunkey for Supreme Judge would have been more satisfactory to the Democracy of this part of the State. With the exception of the candidate for that office the above nominees will take an excursion to Salt River on the 4th of November.

-This is how the special correspondent of the Titusville Herald was smitten with Tionesta: "Th's is one of the finest little towns in the summer time to be found in seven States. On Sunday forenoon, Rev. Wm. Elliott preached his farewell sermon before the congregation of the Sugarcreek Presbyterian church, having accepted a call to Tionesta. He delivered an affecting discourse from the "Apostolic Benediction," his remarks melting not a few of his hearers to tears. During a pastorate of three years Mr. Elliott has labored with marked success to build up this interesting charge, and his removal to another field is deeply regretted by his attached people both at Sugarcreek and Cherrytree. The congregation, however, with characteristic enterprise, will lose no time in securing a competent pastor, meanwhile engaging such supply as the Presbytery can furnish till the vacancy is again filled.

DEDICATION.

We are requested to announce that the New Methodist Episcipal Church of Tidioute will be dedicated on Sunday, Sept. 13th. Dr. B. J. Ives, of Auburn N. Y., will officiate.
