A West Hill minister picked up a frozen wasp on the sidewalk recently, and, with a view to advancing the insterest of science, carried it in the house and held it by the tail while be warmed its ears over a lamp chimney. His object was to see if wasps froze to death, or merely lay dormant during Winter. He is of the opinion that they lie darmant, and of the dormantthey lie darmant, and of the dormant-est kind at that, and, when they re-vive, he says, the tail thaws out first, for while this one's head, right over the lamp, was so still and cold that it could not wink, its probe worked with such inconceivable rapidity that the minister couldn't gasp enough to keep up with it. He threw the vicious thing down the lamp chimnes with be thing down the lamp chimney, said he didn't want any more truck with a dormant wasp, at which his wife burst into tears and asked how he, a minister of the Gospel, could use such language, right before the children, 100

Bishop Ames tells a story of a slave master in Missouri, in the olden time of negro vassalage, who said to his chattel: "Pompey, I hear you are a great preacher." "Yes, mssa, de Lord do help me powerful sometimes." "Well, Pompey, dou't you think the negroes steal little things on the plan-tation?" "I'se mighty 'fraid they does, massa," "Theo, Pompey, I want you against stealing." After a brief re-flection, Pompey replied: "You see, massa, dat wouldn't never do, cause 'twould trow such a col'ness over de BUSINESS CARDS

A few days ago a man came in from the country who had a terrible pain in his stomach. He was all bent up, and his stomach. He was all both up, and his face wore an expression of agony that was pitiable to see. He asked a boy if he knew where there was any liquor sold in town, saying he couldn't stand it much longer if he didn't get some. The boy eyed the stranger for a moment, and then said : "Mister, I cannot tell a lie-I don't know where they sell liquor in this 'ere town, but if you'll give me some terbacker I'll show you where all the fellows go what's got pains in their stomachs."-Altoona Tribune.

"Eat your bread, Charles-do not fling it away," said a learned and good Judge to one of his family, adding "for who knows in the vissitudes of this life, if you may not some day want it." The old gentlemen had to cough, look learned and go away, when the youngster and go away, when the youngster answered more logically, "If I eat it, how can I have it when I want it?" This is the result of a learned Judge having chilren.

One of the boys just before return-ing to Cornell, the other day, sent a young lady filend of his a cake of Lubin's finest variety of toilet soap, with the request that she would draw no inference on receiving such a gift. The next day the young man was somewhat astonished when he received a letter from the young lady contain-ing the present of a fine-tooth comb, withe request that he would draw no inferences therefrom.

James Murphy, Jr., sged thirty-three years, the "Irish Giant" died in Baltimore on Saturday, of bronchial affection. Murphy traveled several years with P. T. Barnum, and was well known in the United States. He was about eight feet high, and weighed about three hundred and fifty pounds.

Lucretia Boyd of Elizabethtowc, settled the matter with her slow wooer by simply shedding a few tears, and saying: "I don't believe I nave a real friend on earth." What could the

Our business is exclusively PIANOS and ORGANS, which enables us to give our whole time and attention to this exclusive trade. Thus where other dealers sell from five to ten instruments a week, our sales very often exceed these numbers in a single day, so that we can better afford to sell at 10 per cent, profit on cost, than they can at 20 and 25 per cent.

Hvery Instrument we sell is a good as an agent for us, as they invariably introduce us favorably to all who see them. We have sold and in use in and about Pittsburgh alone. They are not some new Organ, the growth of a few months, but are old reliable makes, that are constantly adding every ineritorions im-provement. The really Grand Simmons & Clough's Combination Organs have been manufactured for Twenty-five years, while the Celebrated Taylor & Farley Celestes Organs have been manufactured over Twenty years. And now for the purpose of in-troducing them more thoroughly throughout all the country towns of the State, we have made new and very heavy contracts for large numbers of them, which we pro-pose to sell on their merits, and without the sama and wholegale discounts, we are thus enabled to offer these Organs at the following prices, at which we shall sell for a short time.

Station at 2,10 p. m. Cincinnali express leaves daily. South-ern express daily except Monday, All oth-er Trains daily, except Sunday. For further information aply to W. H. BECKWITH, Agent. There is "sheddy" in glass, as well as in in woolen fabrics. Consumers of koro-seme are sometimes almost discouraged, so frequently do cleinneys break, without any aquaent cause, rendering the could of chlunneys about equal to that of oil. Cheap-ness being the order of the day, a great many manufacturies make chlunneys from allieste of line, instead of from tend. The inflated uny toil the different qualities of glass by ringing them : t e vibrations of glass by ringing them; t e vibrations of the lead glass have a clear, ringing, hell-like sound, possessing the requisite strength in withstand expansion and constrongth to withstand expansion and con-traction, as well as the remerat pressure of mae, and will outlast half asboart of She-lime plass chimneys. Fifteen cents in-vested in one of the lead chimneys is mancy well spant, even though it infiress the "trade" in the chaper kied, which is mast assurably ought to, and doubties will. Testimonials of Waters' Pianos' and Organs,

"Waters' Concerto Parlor'Organ pos-sesses a benutifui and peculiarly soft tore. The Concerto Stop is, without doubt, the best over placed in any organ. It is pro-duced by an extra set of reeds, peculiarly voiced, from which the effect is most charming and its imitation of the human voice is superb. For sweetness of tone and orchestral effects it has no equal."-N. Y. T'gaes.

'The Concerto Parlor Organ''s some-thing entirely new; it is a beautiful 'parlor orna I, possesses a sweet and power-ful tom is a most commendable inven-tion and holds a high place in public fr-vor."-N. Y. Evening Post.

AN OBCHESTERA IN THE PARLOR.—The orchestral organ is the name of anew reed organ recently announced by Horace Wa-ters & Son. The instrument takes this name from its needed of this is peoplic, producing the effect of a full sweet con-traito voles. Its finest effect is produced when the stops are drawn, so that an or-chestral effect is given. The case is and the and makes a handsome article, of furni-ture."—N. Y. Nun.
