

David Crockett, after returning home from his first trip to New York, gave his backwoods audience the idea of the first gentleman in the metropolis: "Philip Hone is the most gentlemanly man in New York, boys, and I'll tell you how I know it. When he asks you to take a drink he don't hand you a glass—he puts the decanter on the table, and walks off to the window and looks out until you have finished."

What changes a few years bring about—don't they? Yesterday the citizens of Arbor Hill were aware of a woman madly tearing along, potato-masher in hand, giving chase to her husband who was flying from her presence like a deer. Eight years ago the same female took a medal at an Eastern seminary for a graduating essay on "Repose of Character."

A case of sickening cruelty on the part of the Sheriff of San Antonio, Texas, toward a prisoner confined in jail, is reported. The prisoner was held for murder, and when a circus came to town the other day, the sheriff refused to allow the man to attend. Public indignation at San Antonio is naturally aroused by this barbarous and heartless innovation.

One of our leading citizens was being shaved the other evening, when he noticed a poster announcing the coming of Theodore Thomas. He read the price, and then said: "I wonder how many fools will pay a dollar and a half to hear that feller sing?" The barber had to cry "next!" twice before he could be heard.—Danbury News.

"Why," said a country lawyerman to one of his flock, "do you always sleep in your poy when I am in the pulpit, while you give all attention to every stranger I invite?" "Because, sir," was the reply, "when you preach, I'm sure all's right; but I cannot trust a stranger without keeping a good lookout."

A colored gentleman of Montgomery, Ala., has, we notice, unexpectedly left a vacancy in the jury-box to accept a position on the city chain-gang, kindly tendered him in consequence of a misunderstanding about the ownership of some hogs.—Commercial Advertiser.

A little girl who had great kindness of heart for all the animal creation saw a hen preparing to gather her chickens under her sheltering wings, and shouted earnestly: "Oh! don't sit down on those beautiful little birds, your great ugly old rooster."

There is a story of a defunct dry goods clerk who, after the funeral services were over and the undertaker had put the last screw in the lid of the coffin, preparatory to interment, was heard to say, in faint and muffled tones: "Anything else?"

A clergyman in Iowa stood in his door and warned a donation party that the first one who entered his gate would be a dead man. He said it was bad enough to take half his pay in beans, without having his house destroyed.

There are young men who cannot hold a skein of yarn for their mothers without wincing, but will hold 125 pounds of a neighboring family for the best part of the night, with a patience and docility that are certainly phenomenal.

At a juvenile party one little fellow, rejoicing in the splendor of his new clothes, went up to another with triumphant remark: "You ain't dressed as well as I am." "Well," retorted the other, "I can lick you, anyhow."

"She is a perfect Amazon," said a pupil in one of our schools of his teacher yesterday, to a chum. "Yes," said the other, who was better versed in geography than history, "I noticed she had an awful big mouth."

At a printers' festival lately the following toast was offered: "Woman—second only to the press in the dissemination of news." The ladies are yet undecided whether to regard this as a compliment or otherwise.

We read that paper put inside the lining of a coat gives additional warmth to the garment. We have plenty of paper, says a Missouri editor, and will put the experiment to a test, when we get a coat.

When Brigham Young was in jail the other day for contempt of Court there were five of his wives weeping at each window of that institution and twelve at the door.

Conductor Mose Terry, remarking the weather a few mornings since, said: "Cold? Y-a-a-a! The Atlantic Ocean froze over, and man just come over with a load of wood."

A Washington man who was treated to a "25-center," slipped back to the cigar store, the other day, and economically exchanged it for "three for a quarter."

An English judge has recently defined "gentleman" as a term which "includes anybody who has nothing to do and is outside of the workhouse."

Dio Lewis says that mule meat is just as good as beef. Dio can only be half a cannibal so long as he adheres to mule-meat.

The Detroit Tribune furnishes the "head line" of the season in calling the inter-collegiate contest "A Skull Race."

OUR MOTTO IS AND HAS BEEN

QUICK SALES AND SMALL PROFITS.

Our business is exclusively PIANOS and ORGANS, which enables us to give our whole time and attention to this exclusive trade. Thus we offer dealers sell from five to ten instruments a week; our sales very often exceed these numbers in a single day, so that we can better afford to sell at 10 per cent. profit, than they can at 20 and 25 per cent.

Every instrument we sell is as good as a new one for us, as they invariably introduce us favorably to all who see them. We have sold and in use in and about Pittsburgh alone. They are not some new Organ, the growth of a few months, but are old reliable makes, that are constantly adding every year to the number. The really Grand Strainers & Clough's Combination Organs have been manufactured for Twenty-five years, while the Celebrated Taylor & Farley Combination Organs have been manufactured over Twenty years. And now for the purpose of introducing them more thoroughly throughout all the country towns of the State, we have made new and very heavy contracts for large numbers of them, which we propose to sell on our merits, and without the assistance of AGENTS or MIDDLE MEN, giving the purchaser the benefit of commissions and wholesale discounts, we are thus enabled to offer those Organs at the following prices, at which we shall sell for a short time.

CABINET CASES,	Regular Price,	at $
Double Reed, 4 Stop Organs, <td>$145.00</td> <td>$ 85.00</td>	$145.00	$ 85.00

These Organs are all Solid Walnut, Paneling and Carving all of Solid Walnut. Neither saw-dust mouldings nor cheap brass trinkets assumed on these instruments everything is of the very best, and are all fully warranted for five years.

THE BRADBURY & DECKER, 77 5TH AVE., PITTSBURGH, PA.

Having completed the alteration of our store room, we would respectfully announce that we have re-opened.

We have arranged our Store with a view to the convenience of customers, and to secure expedition in all branches of our business.

Our Stock will be new throughout, embracing all the latest novelties in Fine Jewelry, Watches, Silver Ware and Fancy Goods.

By attention to customers, in accordance with price, and adherence to a high standard of quality, we hope to merit a continuance of the patronage heretofore so liberally bestowed.
