Republican County Committee.

There will be a meeting of the Republican County Committee, Monday evening of court week, May 17, 1875, at 7:30 o'clock, at my office, in Tionesta. A full attendance is desired, as matters of importance will be considered. The following named persons are members of the Committee:

- T. J. Van Gieson, Tionesta Boro.
W. A. Dusenbury, Kingsley twp.
P. Berry, Harmony twp., upper.
F. Connelly, " " lower.
L. Arner, Green twp.
L. Keister, Hickory twp.
W. S. Cole, Howe twp.
J. Merrillott, Jenks twp.
C. W. Clark, Tionesta twp.

W. P. MERRILLIOTT, Chairman.

Republican State Convention.

The Republicans of the State of Pennsylvania are hereby requested to assemble by their delegates in State convention, at noon on Wednesday, the 26th day of May, 1875, in the Fulton Opera House, at the city of Lancaster, for the purpose of nominating candidates for Governor and State Treasurer. Each Representative and Senatorial District will be entitled to the same representation as it has under the present apportionment for Senators and Representatives in the Legislature.

RUSSELL EBBRETT,

A. WILSON NORMAN, Chairman. Secretary.

The Louisiana muddle has been settled, by the unseating of several members to give room to their opponents. A conservative Speaker has been elected, and everything bids fair to run smoothly hereafter. Now the next thing we notice the Democrats complaining about it, that our Government won't let Mexicans come across the border into Texas and burn, destroy and murder to suit their own good pleasure; and because measures are being taken to stop these outrages Grant is said to be trying to get up a war with Mexico to secure a third term. Is there anything that the Democratic papers won't turn into a "third term" scare?

We find the following in the Coakburg correspondence of the Clarion Republican:

One of our citizens, Thomas B. Maze, met with a serious accident, today, in Hon. A. Cook's grist mill. The regular miller, John Cook, Esq., not being at home, Mr. Maze undertook to grind some for a customer when one of the belts broke and caught the rope fastened to the lever which raises the gate of a small wheel which runs the boiler and some other machinery, and the rope caught and wrapped around the shaft and threw the gate out of place so the wheel could not be stopped. Mr. Maze called Mr. J. W. Cook to assist him in replacing the gate, and while engaged in so doing Mr. Maze's shirt sleeve came in contact and was caught by the shaft of the wheel and in an instant his pants caught also, and he was whirled around at a fearful rate. From some cause the wheel stopped and he was released from his perilous position. It is supposed that some of his ribs were broken, and he is considerably bruised otherwise.

—Col. Butler was killed by one Laundesburg, in Clearfield county, in 1864, while endeavoring to arrest the latter as a deserter. The murderer was arrested a few weeks ago, and is now awaiting a trial. In the meantime several Democratic exchanges are trying to make the murderer cut an injured man, and at the same time blacken the memory of the murdered officer by such malicious inventions as the following:

Only a short time before Butler was killed by Laundesburg, he (Butler) shot a woman named Smith, in Jefferson county, through the neck, for refusing to tell him where her husband was. The poor woman was instantly killed, and Butler allowed to go unpunished.

This slander was first published in the Bellefonte Watchman, and shortly after it first appeared the editor of that paper received the following, which explains itself. The names signed to the paper are a guarantee of its entire truthfulness:

The article in your paper characterizing Col. Butler, who was murdered by Laundesburg, as a sneaking man, and stating that he killed a woman, is false in every particular, and the man who wrote it is a defamer of the dead, a liar and a villain.

[Signed] DAVID EASON, A. P. HEICHOLO, JOHN S. BARR, B. SWEENEY, SILAS J. MARLIN.

—Governor Curtin says that there are fifteen thousand Liberal Republicans in Pennsylvania, and that it was their votes which decided the contest in favor of the Democrats last fall. If the Governor will drop a cipher from his figures he will come much nearer to the truth, and as to his little band using the balance of power, last year, where, let us ask, were those votes in 1872 and 1873? Did they not vote with the Democracy then, just as they did in 1874? The Democracy got all the advantage which Liberal Republicanism could give it, in 1872, and it did them mighty little good then, according to our recollection.—Pittsburgh Commercial.

THE SUN. WEEKLY AND DAILY FOR 1875.

The approach of the Presidential election gives unusual importance to the events and developments of 1875. We shall endeavor to describe them fully, faithfully, and fearlessly.

THE WEEKLY SUN has now attained a circulation of over seventy thousand copies. Its readers are found in every State and Territory, and its quality is well known to the public.

It is our aim to make the Weekly Sun the best family newspaper in the world. It will be full of entertaining and appropriate reading of every sort, but will print nothing to offend the most scrupulous and delicate taste.

It is our aim to make the Weekly Sun the best family newspaper in the world. It will be full of entertaining and appropriate reading of every sort, but will print nothing to offend the most scrupulous and delicate taste.

The number of men independent in politics is increasing, and the Weekly Sun is their paper especially. It belongs to no party, and obeys no dictation.

The markets of every kind and the fashions are regularly reported in its columns. The price of the Weekly Sun is one dollar a year for a sheet of eight pages, and fifty-six columns. As this barely pays the expenses of paper and printing, we are not able to make any discount or allow any premium to friends who may make special efforts to extend its circulation.

We have no traveling agents. THE WEEKLY SUN—Eight pages, fifty-six columns. Only $1.20 a year, postage paid. No discounts from this rate.

THE DAILY SUN—A large four-page newspaper of twenty-eight columns. Daily circulation over 120,000. All the news for 2 cents. Subscription, postage prepaid 45 cents a month, or $5.50 a year. To clubs of 10 or over, a discount of 20 per cent. Address "THE SUN," New York City.

1875. THE 1875.

PITTSBURGH COMMERCIAL A POLITICAL, LITERARY, COMMERCIAL and GENERAL NEWS-PAPER.

Devoted to the Best Interests of the People.

IN POLITICS, The COMMERCIAL will bear, as heretofore, its inviolable support of Republican principles, maintaining its independence of the Republican Party, and disclaiming the right at all times to speak freely and fearlessly on the merits of men and measures. Party government is essential to a constitutional country, and the COMMERCIAL claims to be independent of party. Faithful to the great convictions and aims upon which the Republican Party was based, it is the mouthpiece of no clique or faction, supporting the party solely because it believes that party is founded on principles of right and justice.

THE EDITORIAL DEPARTMENT OF the COMMERCIAL will contain, from day to day, contributions from able writers upon all subjects—Political, Literary, Scientific, Local, Commercial, Foreign and Local—in which its views will be set forth plainly and independently, keeping in view the prime aim of the paper, which is the advancement of the best interests of all sections of the country.

ITS NEWS DEPARTMENTS Will always contain brief but accurate reports of all the occurrences of the day. Liberal expenditures will be made in securing special telegrams and correspondence from the great news centers of the country, so that readers of the Commercial will always be kept served with early and reliable news.

The department devoted to the publication of Local News will be found a complete daily history of the city and its environs, gathered by a corps of careful writers and set forth in attractive style.

THE MARKETS Will, as heretofore, receive careful attention. Full telegraphic reports of the state of Business, with Prices Current, will be received daily from the Trade Centers of this country and Europe. The Pittsburgh Market, in all its branches, will be reported fully and accurately. As a commercial journal the Commercial stands second to none in the country.

The Financial Column will give daily the ruling rates of money, and the prices of Stocks and Bonds at all the great trading points, with much interesting statistical matter.

INTERESTING MISCELLANY. Embracing Poems, Sketches, Incidents of Travel etc., will find a place in the columns of the Commercial, furnishing abundance of instruction and amusement for the family circle.
